HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half so many readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature—It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

TERMS:

The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or Twenty five Cents a Number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and Muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish their back Numbers uniformly bound, at Twenty-five Cents each.—Twenty-two Volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, and also in Half Calf.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs of Two Persons at Five Dollars a year; or Five Persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also, the bound Volumes.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The Postage upon each Number, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the office where the Magazine is received, is Three Cents.

The Best, Cheapest, and most Successful Family Paper in the Union.

A Complete Pictorial History of the Times.

HARPER'S WEEKLY,

Splendidly Illustrated.

Price, Six cents a number; $2,50 per year.

Critical Notices of the Press.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blunts the morals of its readers, vitiates their taste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the follies of the times, its elegantly written and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal. Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family and fireside as the day on which it was first perused.—N Y Evening Post.

PROSPECTUS OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, FOR 1862.

The January number will commence the Ninth Volume of this Magazine. Its very large and still increasing circulation, is a gratifying evidence of public approval, and no industry will be spared to render the forthcoming volume adequate to the requirements of times so pregnant with great events as those of today. The life of the Republic the best interests of the nation, demand of literature a manly and generous action, and the conductors of this journal will remit no efforts in enlisting the best talent of the country to support with vigor and eloquence those opinions and principles which brace the great public heart to stand firm on the side of Freedom and Right. An elevated national American spirit will always be found illustrated in these pages. The Atlantic Monthly will never give other than the best literature, and it will be the constant aim of its conductors to render its variety greater and its attractions better each month than the last.

Professor Agassiz will begin in the January number a series of articles on Natural History, and other kindred topics to be continued from month to month throughout the year. A new story by the late Theodore Winthrop, author of "Cecil Dreeme," will be commenced in the January number,

Dr. George B Windship, well known for his remarkable experiments in Gymnastics, has written for The Atlantic "The Autobiography of a Strength Seeker," giving an account of his method of training for feats of strength, with advice on matters of Health.

The author of "Life in the Iron Mills," and "A Story of To-Day," will contribute a series of Tales during the year

Articles by Professor James Russell Lowell, on topics of national interest, will appear frequently.

Bayard Taylor has written a story which will be printed in the February number.
