CITY ITEMS.

We are requested to state that Dr. Boynton cannot give the entertainment at Handel and Haydn Hall, this evening, as previously announced.

ON CHANGING ONE'S MIND.—Some one blamed Dr. Marsh for changing his mind. "Well," said he, "that's the difference between a man and a jackass; the jackass can't change his mind, and the man can—it's a human privilege." The learned Doctor was right, and our readers should follow his example, if they have weakly been persuaded that clothing, combining the elements of fashion, style, and durability, can be found elsewhere than at the fashionable Clothing Bazaar of Granville Stokes, No. 607 Chestnut street.

CHESTNUT STREET IN A BLAZE!—Chestnut street was in a perfect blaze of light on Saturday night. All the retail stores were brilliantly lighted, and some of them had gas jets flaming outside their walls. The street was crowded with people who were unanimous in the opinion no building more stately could be found upon the line of the great thoroughfare, than the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. The fame of the garments for gentlemen and youths sold at this celebrated store is too well established to need comment.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—"De Sauty, the mysterious genius of the Atlantic Telegraph, has been heard from. He announces that there are "perceptible currents," and that the telegraph says 'Henley' The world is in breathless wonder waiting to know what's next. Is not the story of 'De sauty salty?'" A contemporary asks the above question, and we are compelled to think that there "perceptible currents" should be received cum grano salis, though implicit credence may be given to the assertion that the best and most fashionable clothing, is gotten up at the "Old Franklin Hall Clothing Emporium" of E. H. Eldridge, No. 824 Chestnut street.

TAXES IN OHIO.—A letter from Ohio says: "Our citizens are busy paying their semi-annual taxes, and right heavy they are. All our taxing-levying authorities have raised their taxes, and the general increase is some thirty per cent. over last year. I know many citizens who now pay more taxes for their property than it rented for ten years ago. People in other countries complain, where its entire wealth passes through the tax-gatherer's hand every hundred years, but we grow only a little when, including our special taxes, this is accomplished in a little longer time than that of a generation—say forty years. We now pay our taxes semi-annually, a provision adopted last winter, which makes our burden more sufferable, and for which I was thankful, until it was suggested by a friend of mine—an old county auditor—that the half-yearly division would surely lead to still higher taxes, because the people would bear to be bled more profusely in two operations than in one."

HON. CHARLES B. PHELPS, of Woodbury, Conn., fell dead on Tuesday, while engaged in conversation. Mr. Phelps has been a prominent man in the Democratic party of Connecticut, and has held several important offices in the State. He was seventy-four years of age.

Special Notices.

A Simple Article!

We would call the attention of our friends to the following:

HAVERHILL, MASS., Feb. 7, 1857.

DEAR SIR: Permit me the pleasure of stating to you the gratification I have in vending, and the universal favor Hoofland's German Bitters meet with, by nearly every person who has had occasion to test their virtues in this vicinity. This establishment has had the agency of your medicine since 1853, and I can safely say there has been no remedy placed before the public, within the scope of my knowledge, that has met so much general favor, and so worthily, as the German Bitters. I have no hesitation in recommending them to our customers, suffering wi h diseases for which they are appropriate, feeling confident from past experience that they will do all, and more than is represented of them. In Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, I defy an equal. To Druggists I can recommend them as a safe investment, and to the public as a truly worthy remedy.

Very truly yours,
To Dr. C M JACKSON. CHAS. B EMERSON.

These Bitters can be had of any Druggist or dealer in medicines in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, or South America, at 75 cents per bottle. They are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, 418 ARCH street, Philadelphia, Pa., and every bottle has his signature on the wrapper. d27-1t&2t*

A Beautiful, Luxuriant Head of Hair surely follows the use of JULES HAUEL'S EAU ATHENIENNE, or HAIR RESTORATIVE. It cleans the scalp, strengthens the roots, and changes harsh, gray hairs to their original life color and beauty. Sold by all Druggists, and by JULES HAUEL & CO, No. 704 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. d27-6t

Silver's Gas Consuming Stoves!—Unless these Stoves are made in a proper manner they are no better than the common old-fashioned heating Stoves.

I employ none but the best workmen, and use the choicest imported Russia iron.

I warrant every Gas Consumer I sell to be FULLY EQUAL to those I had on exhibition in the Franklin Institute, and which attracted the attention and admiration of visitors generally. The Committee conceded that GALLAGHER'S make of SILVER'S GAS CONSUMING STOVES were the best in the Exhibition. I call attention to the following letter:

"I have examined the 'Silver Gas Consumers' manufactured by Mr. A J. GALLAGHER, and pronounce them fully equal to any I have ever seen. The Russia Iron is the VERY BEST, the workmanship unsurpassed. The whole stove fully embraces my invention. I recommend with pleasure to my friends and the publ Mr. Gallagher's make of Stoves. J. S. SILVER."

Burnett's Cocoaine.

A compound of Cocoa-nut Oil, &c., for dressing the Hair. For efficacy and agreeableness, it is without an equal.

It prevents the hair from falling off.
It promotes its healthy and vigorous growth:
It is not greasy or sticky.
It leaves no disagreeable odor.
It softens the hair when hard and dry.
It soothes the irritated scalp skin.
It affords the richest lustre.
It remains longest in effect.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

BOSTON, July 19, 1857.

☞ MESSRS. J. BURNETT & Co.—I cannot refuse to state the salutary effect in my own aggravated case of your excellent Hair Oil—(Cocoaine.)

For many months my hair had been falling off, until I was fearful of losing it entirely. The skin upon my head became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated condition I attributed to the use of various advertised hair washes, which I have since been told contain camphene spirit.

By the advice of my physician, to whom you had shown your process of purifying the Oil, I commenced its use the last week in June. The first application allayed the itching and irritation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared—the hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth of new hair.

Yours, very truly,
SUSAN R. POPE.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

☞ A single application renders the hair (no matter how stiff and dry) soft and glossy for several days. It is conceded by all who have used it, to be the best and cheapest Hair Dressing in the World.

Prepared by
JOSEPH BURNETT & CO., Boston.

☞ For sale by dealers generally at Fifty Cents a Bottle. n27-3m

Dyspepsia.—There is probably no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the PERUVIAN SYRUP as Dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been completely cured by this medicine, as ample testimony of some of our first citizens proves.
