One of the Choicest, Cheapest and Best Family Newspapers Published.

Every One Should Subscribe for it

The Pittsburgh Weekly Dispatch, like the Daily, is printed from clear new type, and is one of the choicest, as well as one of the cheapest Family papers published. The Commercial, Financial and Oil Reports of the Weekly Dispatch are made up with great care, and are always full and reliable, while to its Cattle Market reports equal attention is given. Narrow Escape.

J. N. Brown, painter, resident of this place had a very narrow escape from death last Saturday morning. Brown was engaged at the foundry of Hyde, Kline & Co. white washing overhead, and near the main shaft, which was running at the rate of 120 revolutions a minute. He says he had only standing room between the shaft and an upright support of the building, knowing this fact he had left his coat down on the floor before commencing his work. He had reached down to replenish his brush when he came in contact with the shaft which at once commenced to draw him in its clutches. At the instant he commenced to feel his clothes tighten he grasped the upright support with one hand and the rafters overhead with the other. In an instant all was over, and Brown was in the holiday costume of the South Sea Islanders, viz: paper collar and boots, every other article of clothing having been torn from him. His presence of mind and prompt action saved his life as there was not standing room between the platform where he was working and the rafters over-head. Brown was said to be perfectly cool while every one else was in a fever of excitement.
