Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.

2 If subscribers order the discontinuation of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office where they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it otherwise the publishers are authorized to send it on, and the subscribers will be held responsible until an express notice with payment of all arrears, sent to the publisher.

In short it is the most complete Weekly journal in every detail now published, and will be under the personal editorial supervision of Mr. W. A. Taylor, the well-known editor and author, and a large corps of able assistants.

BEING STRICTLY INDEPENDENT

in all things, and untrammelled by cliques and combinations, it will have no other end to serve than to benefit, interest and instruct its readers.

A GRAND SPECIAL FEATURE which will commend it to Farmers in particular, and all others in general, will be its complete elaborate and strictly reliable Live Stock and other Markets. Look at our unequalled.

Clubs of 5 and less than 10..... 1 15
Clubs of 10 and over..... 1 00

The price at which we furnish THE WEEKLY TELEGRAPH is but a trifle more than the cost of the white paper, but we depend upon a generous public for a sufficiently large patronage to reward us for our efforts in supplying them with a household newspaper that has and can have no rival in excellence and cheapness.

The Daily Telegraph

Published every evening except Sunday, the newsiest, brightest most enterprising daily published in Pittsburgh, containing all the news of the day, by Associated Press and Special Dispatches, Congressional reports, Markets, etc., and edited with the highest ability, will be sent to any address, postage paid for $8 per year. Wherever we may have carriers or agents THE DAILY TELEGRAPH will be delivered at 15 cents per week.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE, and begin with the beginning of winter, when so pleasant a companion will be welcomed to every fireside. Money may be sent by draft, Postoffice order, or in registered letters. Address all communications to THE TELEGRAPH, 122 and 124 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

☞ Send for a specimen copy.
