"WHEN DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES CEASE TO LEAD, WE CEASE TO FOLLOW."

WM. M. BRESLIN, Editor and Proprietor.

LEBANON, PA.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1858.

Democratic State Nominations.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT:
WILLIAM A. PORTER,
OF PHILADELPHIA.

CANAL COMMISSIONER:
WESTLEY FROST,
OF FAYETTE.

CONGRESS:
JACOB WEIDLE, OF LEBANON.

ASSEMBLY:
DR. A. V. BUCHER,
OF HEIDELBURG.

☞ The government has decided to purchase the Levy property, adjoining the Custom House, on Chesnut street, Philadelphia, for the purpose of erecting a Post Office building thereon.

☞ The Journal says that the population of Reading on Fair days could not have been far short of 100,000 souls, and that if any one says he ever saw a larger crowd he l——abors under a mistake.

☞ The election news by the last steamer from California, are glorious. The democracy have elected their state ticket by ten or twelve thousand majority. The enemies of Mr. Buchanan's administration were building large hopes upon the blow it would receive in the Golden state. As the boot is on the other leg they have very little to say. In San Francisco, the opposition held an election for members of Congress contrary to law. The democrats did not vote, and hence the opposition had an easy victory. When the lawful time comes the Democrats will vote, and no doubt elect their ticket.

To the friends of President Buchanan in Lebanon county.

This is the last opportunity we have to urge upon our Democratic friends to go to the polls. Pennsylvania is a Democratic state, and the polls must produce the proof. Let there be no indifference. Let every man go, and show to the country by his vote that he approves of the administration of James Buchanan—which in reality is the question. The opposition are making the approval or condemnation of the policy of Mr. Buchanan the test, and we must meet them at the ballot boxes. To Pennsylvania, and especially to Lebanon and Lancaster counties, his old home, will Mr. Buchanan look for an endorsement of his administration. Do you approve of the settlement of the Kansas question? of the diplomacy of the administration recently, in bringing proud England to her senses on the right of search question? of the settlement of the Utah difficulties? &c? &c? If you do, apprise the President of the fact by your votes. Mr. Buchanan is not a candidate for renomination, and hence strives only to do right, and advance the best interests of the country. To receive the approval of those who know him so well will be the best and only encouragement he desires.

Hence, let every friend of Mr. Buchanan go to the polls; for the sake of their old friend,—for the sake of one who, in youth, had his home almost in your midst, but who now occupies the highest office in the world; who will ask nothing further at your hands—who has no further expectations, and who desires nothing but your endorsement of the work you have appointed him to perform. Certainly the Democracy of Lebanon county, will not be laggards in expressing their sentiments, especially when 999 out of every thousand of them will be only expressing the sentiments of their hearts. The election this fall is not a scramble for petty offices, and with a few exceptions we have given a clear field in that respect to the opposition. But the question is one of great national importance, and we repeat, that we do hope every democrat in the county will go to the polls. You frequently find time and inclination to travel miles to vote for a candidate for Sheriff, Treasurer, Coroner, or what not, and surely you will not fail in the present emergency when your President is attacked on all sides, and appeals to the people for a verdict against the hordes who have combined against him, and are now seeking to destroy a reputation he has devoted his whole life, to old age, in building up. People of Lebanon county stand by Mr. Buchanan, your President, by going to the polls and voting for the few candidates on the Democratic Ticket from Wm. A. Porter down.

☞ The opposition party of this state have got themselves into a sorry, but amusing position, by the nomination of John M. Read, for the Supreme Bench. His letter of congratulation to Hon. Geo. M. Dallas for his vote against the Tariff of 1842, is denied by the opposition. They attempt to shoulder the responsibility upon John F. Reed, a mith of a gentleman who has neither habitation nor existence. The great boast of John M. Read's life, and his password for admission to office for many years while a member of the Democracy, was his celebrated letter of congratulation; nor was it disowned after his recreancy to his party, and even after he obtained the opposition nomination, until it was known to be impossible to send to England to Mr. Dallas for the original letter to shake it in their faces before the election. It was even waited until the Atlantic cable had ceased to work, that a denial was ventured upon, and then, not by John M. Read himself, but by one Mr. Carey, who speaks for Mr. Read, although, he also lives in Philadelphia, and could handily and readily deny his name himself if he dared do so. But Mr. John M. Read expects to live after his defeat at the coming election, and, also, no doubt, desires to maintain inviolate his reputation, and he knows full well that Mr. Dallas prises the original letter as one of his most valuable documents, and that it will be produced at some future day, when a falsehood, even if a political one, would receive its proper condemnation. Hence Mr. Read himself will not, and does not, deny his letter of congratulation.

Independent of his signature to this celebrated letter, Mr. Read has always advocated his ultra free trade views, and in the Legislature competed with Mr. Wilmot, as the rankest free trade member in the body. Even in very recent years, he was the well known author of the most ultra free-trade articles that appeared in the columns of the Pennsylvanian. A prominent member of the opposition party recently said "I do wish that when our party will insist on going to yours for its leaders, they would occasionally find some one who is not in favor of free trade, and that they would not invariably insist on having such men as Judge Wilmot and John M. Read!"

AMERICANISM VERSUS REPUBLICANISM.

It has always appeared to us a strong proof of want of stability and honesty in the Republican and American leaders that they could coalesce for the purpose of a disgraceful victory.

The Democracy is not more distinctly opposed to modern Republicanism or Disunionism than American platforms to those put forth by Republican Conventions and leaders.

Republicanism, as the party is at present constituted, means a war upon one-half of the Confederacy, a violation of the Constitution and State Rights, a disregard of solemn compacts, an insult to sovereign States. The American party claims to be actuated by the loftiest patriotism, a profound regard for constitutional requirements, a deep and abiding love for the union of the States. It is a national party, has active and energetic leaders in every Southern State, and counts among its numbers statesmen who occupy broad national grounds. But the Republicans are found in only one section, and have never been anything else than sectionalists. The only effect of its organization must be to array in deadly antagonism the two great sections of this country.

How can Americans and Republicans, then, coalesce, until the one party loses its patriotism, or the other becomes imbued with a reverence for the Constitution and Union, which we have received from our fathers?

We are, therefore, not surprised to see a revival of the Philadelphia Daily Sun, which comes to us with better appearance and evidences of more vigor than ever. It is impossible that the Americans should continue in the Republican ranks without losing their nationality—they can no more harmonize than oil and water. It may be said that we are interested, but how can we avoid an anxious desire to see the Republicans nationalized, rather than the Americans sectionalized? And the latter surely must result, if the American leaders at this time permit themselves to be hugged to death in the embrace of GREELEY and SEWARD.—Patriot & Union.

The October Elections.

Elections are to be held this month in the nine following States, viz: Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Iowa, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Minnesota.

The elections will take place on the following days:

Oct. 4th—Georgia, for local officers; Florida, for a member of Congress; Mississippi, for a member of Congress, to fill vacancy in Quitman's district; Iowa, for Congressmen and State officers.

Oct. 11th—South Carolina, for members of the Legislature, will elect a Governor in place of Gov. Allston.

Oct. 12th—Pennsylvania, for State Officers and Congressmen; Ohio, do.; Indiana, for Congressmen; Minnesota, for a new House of Representatives and nineteen Senators. The next Legislature of Minnesota will have to elect a U. S. Senator in place of General Shields, whose term expires March, 1859.

In the present House of Representatives there are, from the above States, 32 Democrats and 29 Republicans.

DAMAGES.—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has given Patrick Kelly $3,000 damages against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company because his son lost a leg while crawling under a train. The train stood across the turnpike, and the boy, who was going for some "baccy" for his father, could not stop in a case of such emergency for the cars to go on. So he crawled under, and the cars started and ran over his leg. The court held that the railroad had no right to stop its cars on the turnpike to obstruct travel; hence the verdict.

Lebanon Advertiser.

TERMS, $1 50 A YEAR

LEBANON, PA.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1858.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Cards, Circulars, Handbills, Posters, &c., printed at the Advertiser office, at low rates and short notice—and in the most elegant style. Persons at the fairs will take notice.

Persons visiting the Fairs this week will have an excellent opportunity of subscribing for the Advertiser. Good paper—can't be beat—blowing horns—toot-a-toot. Terms $1 50 a year only, and dinner taken with any of our subscribers thrown into the bargain, free gratis, for nothing. Also a free peep at the Comet thrown in, if desired.

Full particulars of the terrible calamity to the steamship Austria, in its destruction by fire, at sea, are given on the first page of this paper.

The Fredericksburg Guards, Capt. Earnst; the Jonestown Rifles; and the National Rifles, of Jonestown, visited the Womelsdorf Battalion, on last Saturday a week, and created quite a sensation. The GAZETTE, of Reading in speaking of the battalion says: "The visiting companies, particularly, made a highly favorable impression upon the vast concourse of spectators, by their handsome appearance and correct deportment."

We have the most cheering accounts of the enthusiasm of the friends of our ticket, not only in this county, but throughout the entire Congressional District. In Dauphin county the majority for WEIDLE, it is confidently expected will exceed that of Haldeman last year. In Union and Snyder counties the opposition despair of making any majority at all, so that the bringing about of a glorious result, rests entirely in the hands of the sterling Democracy of Lebanon county. It was the fault of Lebanon county, last year, that we are not now represented in the State Senate by a Democrat. Let us not again make a similar mistake. Let every Democrat go to the polls and vote the Democratic ticket and victory will be ours. Our friends learned last fall what can be done; they saw that their old excuse of "its no use" is a fallacy. It defeats us year after year, and nothing else. We have 2500 Democratic voters in Lebanon county, the opposition cannot, by their most strenuous exertions bring out a vote of 2500 this fall. Let us for once go to work in good earnest and beat them. We have played with them long enough. Let us work.

That the opposition view this matter in about the same light we do, is apparent from the freight they are in. They see no opposition to their ticket scarcely, and yet their papers are rather more excited than in a Presidential election. They have riders out in every section of the county,—hold meetings and make speeches at every tavern; —have been endeavoring to raise a fund of hundreds of dollars for electioneering purposes, &c. Why all this if they do not fear the result. We have neither money, orators, meetings, nor excitement,—neither do we desire an infliction of any of the above "roots of evil," but we do want our friends to go to the polls and vote for the many reasons we have indicated.

Banks, Clearing House and the Merchants in the Country.

MR. BRESLIN:—I have read with pleasure the articles published in the Advertiser relative to the Country and City Banks.

The clearing house system is no doubt a great evil from its arbitrary and oppressive operation on the country banks, and the people in the interior will confidently look to our next Legislature for such relief as the nature of the case will imperiously demand at their hands.

But as several months will intervene to that period, it strikes me that it would be well if the country banks in the meanwhile would make the necessary arrangement with the Baltimore and New York Banks, so that they would be enabled to give drafts on either of those cities, to their customers Whenever this would be done the merchants in the country would find it to be their interest to purchase their goods in Baltimore, and New York which they could do much cheaper than in Philadelphia.

The conspiracy of the Philadelphia merchants and the banks in Philadelphia would then find it to be rather an unprofitable and ruinous concern viz:— the clearing house, and it likely would be abandoned. A BUSINESS MAN.

Our candidate for the Legislature, Dr. A. V. BUCHER (the only county candidate nominated by our convention,) will receive an enormous vote in the eastern and southern sections of the county. If he receives the usual democratic vote in the north, west and central portions of the county, his election is certain.—Hence, let every democrat turn out. There has not been a more promising time in the last ten years to knock the opposition sky-high in this county, than there is this fall. Every other man that belongs to their party is either indifferent, or dissatisfied, and it is an utter impossibility for them to bring out their voters.

Our Fair.—There is every indication that the Agricultural Exhibition, commencing this morning, will be the most successful of any yet held in Pennsylvania. The display of stock is unusually large, and embraces every variety; so also in other departments. The chairman of the committee of arrangements, Levi Kline, Esq., and J. Lawrence Rightmyer, Esq., the efficient and talented corresponding Secretary, deserve great praise for the tact and energy displayed in managing the affairs of the Society so successfully. Next week, probably, we shall have more to say, and also, publish the reports of committees &c.

Let there be a grand rally of the Democracy on next Tuesday, at the polls for President Buchanan, our State Ticket, for Weidle, Bucher, the Constitution and the Union! Let every laborer, mechanic, and farmer, who is disgusted with the hard times of the year past, (brought about by the reduction of the tariff by the opposition party in 1857,) go to the polls and assist in maintaining the Democratic ascendency in Congress. Let them show by their votes that they desire a revival of business, plenty of work, paying prices for their farm products, &c., as was the case several years ago, and before the tariff of 1846 was modified and reduced. Ever since the origin of our government, hard times were invariably produced by the opposition to the Democracy upon obtaining the ascendency in whole or in part, of government. The trial of their new-fangled and experimental notions in government invariably set everything topsy turvy. All their measures are impracticable. The democracy are always up to the times, and practical, hence the national prosperity under their rule. The opposition had only one branch of Congress in 1857, and brought everything to confusion and distress; beware of them obtaining entire possession and control of the whole government.

The second annual commencement of Mount Washington Female College, took place on Thursday morning, the 31st ult. A large crowd was in attendance, and everything passed off in admirable style. Among the names of the graduates we notice the names of Miss Catharine Alice Gloninger, of Lebanon, Pa., and Miss Mary Ann Heilman, of Lebanon county, Pa. The institution is said to be in a very flourishing condition.

We had a peep the other day at the "documents" taken out of the corner stone of the Moravian Church, recently destroyed by fire in this place. They consisted of the papers then published in this place, some of the journals of the denomination, Books, pamphlets, manuscripts relative to the congregation, &c., and all were in as good preservation as they were on the day of enclosing.

An Owner Wanted.—Our friend, John G. Snavely, publishes a notice in another column, desiring the acquaintance of the owner of a gun found on his premises. The "Turkey" question will probably be reopened, should the owner claim his property. There have been some "fowl" transactions lately in that neighborhood, and it is supposed the owner of the gun found it rather inconvenient to move, upon a certain trying emergency, when his liberty depended upon the speed of his legs.

Our democratic friends throughout the county are invited to call at the Advertiser Office and obtain the Tickets for the election. They are printed and ready for distribution. The German tickets can be obtained at the Wahre Democrat office.

The Bee Hive Store, under the Mammoth Portico, is filling up the second time with Fall Goods. Give them a call if you wish to buy Fancy dress Goods. For Ladies and Gentlemen they are visiting the city monthly and you will always find bargains in the old Hive.

Mrs. Buch has just returned from the city with a new stock of Bonnets and Bonnet Trimmings, for Fall and Winter.

CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.—One of our cleverest and most reliable friends, says the Holly Springs HERALD, informs us that common mullen leaves, smoked in a new pipe—one in which tobacco has never been used—is a sure and certain cure for bronchitis. The remedy is simple and innocent, and within the reach of all. Recollect, this is no "retired physician's" remedy, but is given to us by a citizen of our city, who has tried it himself, and seen it tried on others, and has never known it to fail in affecting a permanent cure.

The Philadelphia Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4, 1858.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET.—The market for Beef Cattle was more lively this week owing to the light offerings, the receipts at the different yards being only about 1300 head, and prices are unchanged, ruling at from $7½ to $8½ the 100lbs.

About 325 Beeves were yarded and sold at the Bull's Head new drove yard, at full rates, ranging at from $7½ to 8½ ℔ 100 lbs., net. On and after Thursday next, the 30th inst., the market at this yard will be held on Tuesday of each week.

Of Cows and Calves there were only about 200 offered, and the market was dull at $10 to $50 for Fresh Cows; $30 to $10 for Springers, and $15 to $20 for Dry Cows.

Of Hogs the arrivals at Phillips' Yard were 3045 during the past week, including 600 taken to New York; the market was brisk, and all sold at $6@$7 the 100 lbs. net.

Some 6000 Sheep were brought in, principally at Wardell's and sold at $2@$4, including some of poor quality at $1 50@$2 each.

FLOUR.—There is very little demand for Flour and the market is dull. The only sales made public are to the extent of 6@700 bbls. at $5 50@$5 62½ for superfine, mostly at the latter rate for better brands, which are rather scarce.—The retailers and bakers are buying moderately at from these figures up to $6@7 ℔ bbl. extra and fancy brands as in quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are wanted at $4 12½ ℔ bbl., but there is no stock here. The inspections of Flour and Meal for the week are 21,051 bbls.

GRAIN.—In Wheat the business continues small, owing to the difference in the views of buyers and sellers, and only about 2000 bushels have been taken at $1 28@1 32, mostly at $1 30, for good Pennsylvania red, and $1 38@1 45 for white, the latter from prime. Rye is less inquired for, and 1000 bushels Southern sold mostly at 80c. Corn is very dull, and only about 1200 bushels yellow found buyers at 91c., in store; a mall lot of white brought 87c. Oats are wanted, and about 7000 bushels good Southern sold at 45 cts., afloat, including some very handsome at 47 cts., in the cars.
