VANCE M'CORMICK MAY BE SECRETARY OF WAR

Baker Said to Be Slated for Transfer to Department of Justice

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, it is rumored, is likely to become Secretary of War in the new Wilson Cabinet. It is understood that Attorney General Gregory desires to retire. Should he adhere to his decision, it is believed that Secretary Baker will be shifted to the Department of Justice and Mr. McCormick given the war portfolio.

Washington believes there will be no other changes in the President's official family. Secretary McAdoo has personally denied that he had any intention of resigning, and it was given out that Secretary Houston had been given a further leave of absence by Washington University at St. Louis.
