LANCASTER -- The District VI 4-H Horse Show was held September 17 at the Lancaster Riding Club with riders from the eight counties of Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry, and York participating. The English judge was Mrs. Judy Newvine, Jersey Shore, Pa.; Western judge was Mrs. Kathy Whitehill, Pleasant Gap, Pa.; and trail judge was Robert Mowrey, University Park, Pa.

Over 200 4-H'ers competed in the 29 classes shown throughout the day.Prizes were awarded to the top six placings of each class, with the awards being spread throughout the different counties, and no one county dominating the show. Top placing winners in each class will go on to compete in the State 4-H Horse Show, usually the top two or three riders, depending on the state quota for that class.

In the grooming and showmanship classes, Ricky Buckwalter, Lancaster County 4-H'er from Denver, Pa. top honors in the junior division. The 13 year old youth is a member of the Broken Bit 4-H club. He also placed second in the Stock Seat Equitation Jr. Division and the Western Pleasure Horses Class.

In the Senior Division, first prize was awarded to Lori Jones, a member of the Cumberland County 4-H Horse and Pony Club. The nineteen year old 4-H'er showed her horse, Positively Pete to also win the Sr. Stock Seat Equitation, and place fourth in the Western Pleasure Horses Class.

exhibitors in the fair competitions.

Mummert showed his dairy heifers and exhibited in the tomatoes, beans and onion classes. His entry in the FFA oats category won a second place; and a three-square-feet veal production display also captured a red ribbon in the school exhibits.

Selection of this year's winner was made from a field of six FFA members representing several county chapters. The award is judged on the fair participation, leadership, scholarship, project program, FFA activities and a personal interview.

Judging for the competition was done by Dr. Robert Deck of the Lincoln Intermediate Unit, Ed Heindel of the York Office of Production Credit Association, and Leo Rutter who represented the York Fair management.

Agway Feed Prepared Seattle Slew™ For Triple Crown Victory

Seattle Slew, undefeated winner of racing's Triple Crown, had Agway horse feed as his training ration during the critical yearling period.

"We found that Agway feed supplied the right nutrition for the job we wanted him to do," said Dr. Jim Hill, co-owner of Slew along with Mickey and Karen Taylor. "In fact, we've got all of our two-year olds on Agway feed."

Doesn't your horse deserve Triple Crown treatment?
