PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported Specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TUESDAY, August 2, 1864.

The excitement attending the rebel raid has, to a great extent, subsided, but, notwithstanding all our business houses are again opened out, there is not much business doing. This, however, is usually the dullest season of the year, and no material improvement can reasonably be expected for at least thirty days to come. The general markets continues very dull and neglected, and there is no new feature in any of the leading articles worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet, owing to the fact that there is none in market and but very, little coming in. We give the nominal rates from first hands at $2,00 for Red and $2,05a2,10 for white. Corn is quiet but firm with small sales from store at $1,55a1,60. Sales of oats at $1,00a1,03 from d pot, and $1,05a1,08 from store.

FLOUR—Is very quiet, and neglected, but with a light stock and improved advices from New York, holders are, apparently, firmer in their views. We note a sale in one lot of 200 bbls (Dayton, Ohio) Extra Family at $10,65 per bbl, delivered at the Allegheny wharf.

BACON—Is steady with a fair jobbing demand at previous quotations. We quote at 16 for Shoulders; 19a19½ for Ribbed Sides; 19a19½ for Plain Hams; 22 a 24a27 for Sugar Cured.

GROCERIES—Market continues dull and neglected, as there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. It is but proper to remark, however, that, as yet, there is no essential change in values.

HAY—Is steady with a continued good demand and moderate receipts. Sales of 13 loads from scales at $35 to $37 for Clover and $40 to $45 for Timothy, according to quality.

BUTTER—Is in good demand and scarce, and prime qualities still tend upward. We quote good at 35, prime at 38, and choice at 40.

CHEESE—Is quiet but firm with sales to a fair extent at 21a22c, for good to prime Western Reserve. The receipts continue light.

EGGS—In good supply and very dull, though nominally unchanged—16a17 per doz.

GREEN APPLES—Come in slowly, and with a good demand the market may be quoted active at $3 00 to $4 00 per bbl, according to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—The regular small sales at unchanged prices—10a11c for apples and 19a20 for Peaches.

SALT—Is quiet but firm with sales at $3,00 per bbl, on the spot, and $3,10 delivered.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Market.

AUGUST 2—There is, apparently, a better feeling manifested by the holders of both Crude and Refined Petroleum, and, while the market cannot by any means be termed active, there is evidently more firmness, and less anxiety to sell. Some four thousand barrels of Crude have been shipped to Philadelphia within the past two days, part of which is reported to have been sold at 49, delivered there, and some two thousand barrels more will probably be forwarded to that place today. Here, there seems, as yet, to be no demand whatever for Crude, and, as there have been sales reported for ten days, it is impossible to give quotations. There is a very remarkable incident to note in Refined, which is a sale of two thousand barrels—1000 bbls in bond, "Brilliant" brand, August delivery, buyers option, at 80, 1000 do, same brand and same option, for September, at 80. This is the first sale of bonded oil that has been reported for about three weeks, and we are in hopes now that as the ball is started it will be kept rolling on. Free Oil is dull and neglected, and it is impossible to give quotations. Naptha is still held firmly at 35c, although there appears to be little or no demand. Residuum remains as last quoted.

The receipts by the Allegheny river during the twenty-four hours ending this evening are as follows:

R. Ashworth 175	J S Long 411
Bessemer & Bro 239	Jonathan Guttinger 125
M Collings 174	Roberts & Boyd 125
Total	1268

New York Petroleum Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, AUGUST 2.—The market for refined in bond is dull but prices are unchanged; the nominal rates on the spot, are 82a83. Free Oil is dull and nominal at 85a87 for present delivery. The market for Crude is very firm and holders are asking higher rates—closing at 61a61½ on the spot. Naptha is irregular, ranging from 53 to 57.

Weekly Review of the New York Petroleum Market.

[Reported Expressly for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 30, 1864.

The market has again been very irregular. On some days there has been almost a deadlock—the exporters' offers being largely below the rates demanded by the trade. But whenever by the fall of gold or other causes, holders have lowered their pretensions, a good business has been done. Nearly all the export orders—which are large—are limited to 51c for Crude and 81 for Refined in bond—at which a good business was done early in the week—but since then, prices have ruled higher and, comparatively little has been done. Yesterday the exporters raised their ideas a little, and freely offered 50 a 51 c—but holders asked 61. The speculators of Crude [illegible] their best to keep prices up—but with the receipts averaging nearly 8,000 bbls a day—they have found it up hill work. Except in the improbable event of great activity and largely decreased receipts—the speculators will fail lamentably in their efforts to push Crude to [illegible]—quoted 65a81.00 and free $1,10a1 12½ next month which event some of the leading spirits must go "to the wall." There is one at present, to be no chance of escape for them. They have got through this month by selling large amounts of both Crude and Refined for export—Crude at 49a50 and Refined—nearly all at 81. They have already taken the alarm and have been trimming their sales accordingly.

The sales for the week comprise about 35,000 bbls Crude nearly all at from 47 to 51½c—of which about 31,000 bbls on the spot—chiefly for export—and the bulk of the balance, deliverable in August at from 55 to 57c. The market to-day was firm at 51—with a good export demand at that rate.

The sales of Refined foot up about 23,000 bbls at from 81 to 84a85c for prime light straw to white on the spot—including some 90.0 for August at 87½ a90c. The bulk of the sales have been for export. The market today was quiet at 82a83 on the spot and 90 for August.

The price of Free Oil has been creeping up during the week—and has advanced. 6a8c—at from $1 to 84a90c—but sales are moderate—comprising about 10,000 bbls at from 81 to 90c—chiefly on the spot, and including some 3,000a4,000 bbls for export at 81a82c. The market to-day was quiet and nominal at 87a90c.

Naptha has advanced to 43a45c—for Refined 60a63 gravity—some 400 bbls. 61a65 gravity, sold at 39; 300 do, 60a63 at 40a45; and 600 do, for next month at 50a51. The impression is that it will advance to 70a75c within a month.

Agricultural Prospects in Great Britain.

[From the Mark Lane Express, July 4.]

Although the weather last week was not bad, it was not sufficiently genial to help forward the successful blooming of the wheat, or the growth of the later corn. Much hay has been gathered in fair order, but the heavy crops have proved light, the growth having been materially impeded by the sharp nights which occurred in its early growth. The more we hear of the standing corn, the more we are convinced that to cherish the expectation of anything like the abundance of last year would be fallacious. Fine warm sunshine and occasional showers may do much; but with the finest weather we cannot expect heavy sheaves will be the exception in the coming harvest. It is true they are better in Germany, and the French markets have rather yielded on the commencement of their southern gatherings; but the corngrowing districts of North rn Europe have been very unequal in their prospects, expectations and the improvement of their prospects bringing us to an average expectation. Politics severally bring us to an average expectation. Politics have severed to sad ends and bloodshed; but, happily, British farms for the present saved from mingling with insane and ruinous strife, though the renewal of the Danish blockade must have the effect to again limit supplies, as it has lowered prices at Dantzic to 43s and 44s for fine high mixed wheat, with a doubt as to their ability. The nearer markets note, as yet, little change; but America, with her exchange up to 250 per cent, and her cereal expectations down 30 per cent, showing such a state of disturbance as to be no longer reliable as a source of future supply of importance, whatever be the issue of her internecine and reckless civil war. Our own markets, on the Pacific resolutions of the ministry, show much less buoyancy; but with money easier and politics assured, there is much more chance of a speculative move, should a "peace panic" force us back to the previous currency. The news is that 100,000 qrs are now afloat, coming across the Atlantic, and that a smaller supply is to follow; but this so large expectations only reach up to a tithe of a month consumption for the country.

Cleveland Market.

AUG. 1—Flour—Dull and neglected. The nominal quotations are: XX white $10,60a11,25. Some brands of fancy country mills and city made, being 25a50c advance over the above rates. Wheat—Very dull and without inquiry this morning. The following sales were reported at the Board this afternoon: 300 bu red from store at $2,10; 3 cars red on track at $2,08; 3 cars do do at $2,10. Corn—Nominal at $1.30c on track. Hold at $1,32c from store. Oats—No sales reported. Held at 80a85c on track.—Herald.

Gloucester Fish Market.

JULY 29—George's codfish—Sales of 300 qtls the past week at $7,50. At present there are none in shipping order. Mackerel—two trips of shore have been sold this week at $10¼,$15¾a10 for Nos 1, 2 and 3. Last sales of Bay at $10, $12¾a10½ for 2's and large medium 3's. None left in the market. Fresh halibut 9¾c per lb. None in the market. Oil scarce. Smoked, do. None in the market. Sales of a small lot at $1,25; hold higher.

Boston Dry Goods Market.

The Shipping List of July 29th says: For the past week trade has been very quiet, but all descriptions of goods maintain firm prices, owing to the small production and stocks on hand. There is, however, some symptoms of reviving trade, and the continued firmness of cotton goods, at both first and second hands, has given more confidence to buyers. It would be in opposition to all ordinary mercantile calculation to anticipate or predict a decline in the prices of domestic goods at this season of the year. We are just on the eve of the opening fall trade. The mills are curtailing production on account of the high price raw material, and many mills are forced to diminish operations by the great scarcity of water. Prices remain the same as last week, but we anticipate and predict much higher figures for cotton fabrics, if political and financial movements continue on their present basis. The great substitution of woolen for cotton fabrics causes an intense sympathy between the prices of wool and cotton. Manufacturers of woolens will no doubt have to keep their mills in full operation to supply the demand, and we look for very full prices not only for cotton but for woolens also. There is no change of any importance to note in prices, and we omit details. In a week or two we look for a more active trade, and the prospects of the fall business look quite promising.

Eastward Movement of Flour and Grain by Canal.

[From the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.]

The following will show the shipments by canal from Buffalo for fourteen days ending July 26th, and ten days from Oswego, being shipments at the latter place from July 16 to 25th, inclusive, which, taken together, will show the amount of Flour and Grain afloat on the canals destined for tide water.

From	Flour	Wheat	Corn	Oats	Rye
Buffalo	7,465	689,165	1,633,215	355,316	6,710
Oswego	6,031	163,501	56,654	22,800	......
Total	13,496	852,669	1,686,869	378,116	6,710
Prev week	12,800	1,361,514	650 022	351,777	......

The reason why nine days' shipments from Oswego and fourteen days from Buffalo are taken, is that it takes boats these periods to reach New York from these places respectively.

Note—There is probably much more on the canal than the above will show, as a large number of boats have been detained by low water.

Chicago Market—Mail Report.

AUG. 1—Wheat was in light request and declined 3a 5c on Spring and 1a2c on Winter grades. No. 1 Spring was scarce and almost nominal. No. 2 Spring sold at 90a96½c—closing at $1,90½a1,91.

Whisky Bears in New York.

[From the New York Times, 28th.]

Whisky has been unsettled to-day. A bear clique reported sales of 2 000 bbls Western at $1,65 per gallon, but, on "cross examination," admitted that they knew not definitely who made such sales. Legitimate buyers had to pay $1,66a1,70 per gallon for State and Western, in small lots, but towards the close the market was very irregular.
