Cedar Crest FFA sponsors festivities

LEBANON — The Cedar Crest FFA held its annual pumpkin contest at the high school agriculture shop. Third and fourth grade students from the Cornwall-Lebanon School District participated. Judges for the contest were Richard Moore, agriculture instructor, and Ferne Eberly, High School art teacher. While the judging was being completed, the participants enjoyed a movie and refreshments. The winners received cash awards and the grand champion received a trophy.

On Wednesday evening, October 23, the Cedar Crest FFA went to "Scream in the Dark," a haunted house in Lancaster County. A hayride on the back of Frank Reist's truck provided the transportation to the haunted house.

While at "Scream in the Dark" FFA members as well as people from other groups were shocked by the "electric chair," shown a narrated slide series, and treated to all of the horrors of a haunted house. The evening concluded with a hayride back to the Cedar Crest High School.
