UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
OF ILLINOIS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
MAJ. GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT
OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE.
HON. ULYSSES MERCUR,
OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
BRIG GEN. HARRISON ALLEN,
OF WARREN COUNTY.

CONGRESSMEN AT LARGE,
GENERAL LEMUEL TODD,
CUMBERLAND COUNTY.
GENERAL HRRY WHITE,
INDIANA COUNTY.

DELEGATES AT LARGE TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

WM. M. MEREDITH, Philadelphia,
J. GILLINGHAM FELL, Philadelphia,
GEN. HARRY WHITE, Indiana,
GEN. WM. LILLY, Carbon,
LINN BARTHOLOMEW, Schuylkill,
H. N. M'ALLISTER, Centre,
WILLIAM DAVIS, Monroe,
JAMES L. REYNOLDS, Lancaster;
SAMUEL E. DIMMICK, Wayne,
GEO. V. LAWRENCE, Washington;
WM. H. ARMSTRONG, Lycoming;
DAVID N. WHITE, Allegheny;
W. H. AINEY, Lehigh;
JOHN H. WALKER, Erie.

THE Raftman's Journal says the first effects of the announcement of Greeley's nomination was a severe hail storm in Clearfield county, which, while furious for a few moments, was harmless in its effects.

JUDGE DAVIS has wisely resolved to retire from the candidacy of the Labor Reformers. His light since the convention has visibly paled, and it is safe to say that he would not poll twenty thousand votes. It is very doubtful if the Labor Reformers will reconvene and nominate another candidate.

THE following eloquent words were uttered by no less a personage than one Horace Greely, and in view of the signs of the times we are inclined to think them prophetic: "We are led," remarked Mr. Greeley, "by him who first taught our armies to conquer in the West, and subsequently in the East, also. Richmond would not come to us until we sent Grant after it, and then it had to come. [Cheers.] He has never been defeated, and he never will be. He will be as great and successful on the field of politics as on that of arms."

GREELEY and Brown as nominees are in like position in the presidential campaign of 1872, to that occupied by Bell and Everett in the contest of 1860. Under no circumstances will the people allow the election of a president go into the House, a result for which the Democracy now labor, by intriguing for the nomination of a third and even a fourth ticket. If a dozen candidates for president are nominated Grant will poll as many votes as he would if only one man was opposed to him, and the fact that he will have three candidates against him is merely the evidence that the enemies of the administration, whipped traitors and traitor sympathizers, cannot agree among themselves.

A nother Protest Against the Greeley Ring.

The following protest which has not been generally published, was presented to the Cincinnati convention on Thursday last:

"Because we feel that we should be recreant to every principle which rendered necessary the calling of this convention, if we failed to lay before it a statement of the situation in which we have been placed:

"Because we believe this great gathering from every part of our common country has been brought together by a better motive, and for a higher purpose than the casting of the solid vote of the State of New York in favor of any one man.

"Because a few trained politicians, long practiced in the management of New York State politics, have, by the tyranny of a majority vote, taken possession and control of, and have so packed and bound the delegation from that State that only the casting of such a vote will be kept in view and accomplished:

"Because our urgent demands for representation in that delegation have been denied to us, unless we would first, each and all, pledge ourselves from first to last, to aid in casting such a vote for the one named in the resolutions passed by the majority, or for such other person as the same majority should at any time demand, if they saw fit to designate another;

"Because we are unwilling that this great and noble effort at reform shall be seized and controlled by and perverted to the selfish ends of some of the very men who have made this uprising a necessity;

"Because we believe in the right of representation, of free thought and free speech, and because these have been denied to us by accomplished manipulators;

Therefore we earnestly and determinedly remonstrate and protest against the claim of this packed and mouth-locked delegation to misrepresent New York in this convention.

"And we demand that the officers of said delegation be cited to appear with the recording minutes of their proceedings, in order that after a hearing of our grievances equal and exact justice may be administered.

"Cordon L. Ford, of Brooklyn.
"Theodore Bacon, of Rochester.
"John Norton Pomeroy, of Rochester.
"Edw. Hallock Seaman, of Hempstead;
"Members of the convention from the State of New York."

From Europe.

LONDON, May 8.—The Echo of today contains a critical article upon the performances of the Atlantic boat crew of New York, who practice daily on the river Thames. The writer says: "Their performances are exceedingly good, their action fine, and time and featherings are simply perfect. They are nevertheless somewhat deficient in dash and power, and betray a disposition to hang at the finish of the stroke, and do not pick out their blades closely and promptly. Practice will however rectify their faults."

The London boatmen all regard the New Yorkers as a fine yawl crew, whose appearance on the river is very showy and elicits the admiration of the spectators. A great struggle is certain on the 10 of June.

MADRID, May 9.—Marshal Serrano shoots all the insurrectionists he captures who deserted from the Spanish army to the cause of Don Carlos, and spares the lives of all other prisoners.

The Government troops attacked a band of Carlists under Palacios and completely defeated them. Twelve of the insurgents were killed.

Marshal Serrano, leader of the government troops in Spain, reports to Amandus that in the engagement at Navarro with the Carlists his troops, after a serious resistance, succeeded in completely defeating the insurgents. The reports concerning Don Carlos continue contradictory.

Pennsylvania.

SOMERSET, May 9.—A terrible fire broke out in this place this evening, resulting in the destruction of three quarters of the town. All the banks, stores and hotels but one, were destroyed.

LANCASTER, May 9.—This morning about twenty minutes past 8 o'clock, as the Columbia accommodation train east, on the Pennsylvania railroad, was passing through the short tunnel above Columbia, it ran against a man who was walking in the tunnel, and threw him upon the opposite track. At the same moment a freight train going west caught and crushed him killing him instantly. The trains were stopped as soon as possible, and the dead man was taken from the tunnel. His head was terribly crushed, one of his arms cut off, and his body otherwise mangled. He was a fine looking man, well dressed, and was carrying with him a mason's hammer. We were unable to learn his name, but understand that he was in Marietta yesterday, and said he was on his way to Philadelphia to look for a job of work. He also said that he was married and had four children.

Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 7.—Indiana responds with an emphatic negative to the action of the Cincinnati Convention. The municipal election in Indianapolis shows a gain of 1,000 Republican over the vote of last year. Returns from the leading cities and towns show large gains increased Republican and reduced Democratic majorities.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, May. 8—The Republican Convention to elect delegates to the National Convention met here this morning.

Resolutions were adopted favoring the nomination of Grant and Senator Henry Wilson.

The convention was fully attended and the deliberations harmonious. The sentiment was unanimously in favor of the nomination of Grant.

Delaware.

DOVER, May 9.—The Republican State convention met to-day and elected delegates to the National convention in Philadelphia, and instructed them to vote in support of Grant and Colfax.

New York.

TROY, May 8.—The Colored Republican State Convention met to-day, and unanimously pledged the colored voters of the State to Support the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Advices from the principle section of France are to the effect that the weather has been favorable on the whole for agricultural operations. The condition of the growing crops has been quite uniformly satisfactory, there being but few complaints.

Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, May 9.—A gentleman who has just arrived from Indian Territory reports that on last Saturday night Deputy United States Marshal Joseph Peevy, of the Western District of Arkansas, with his posse, came upon the outlaw, Zeek Proctor, at the head of Bird creek, Cherokee nation, when another fight ensued resulting in five of the Marshal's party being killed and eight wounded.

Six of the outlaws were left dead on the ground, and several are supposed to be wounded. Marshal Peevy was wounded slightly in two places, and had his horse killed under him. Zeek Proctor, with his usual good luck escaped. The wildest excitement prevails throughout the surrounding country.

Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Havana, May 9.—Less anarchy now prevails in the Central, Western, and Southern States. It appears that the present revolutionary movements are for the purpose of gaining ascendancy in localities for the plunder and seizure of the revenue. Public attention has been turned to operations on the Rio Grande, and the movements of the Americans cause considerable excitement at the capital. The Jurists blame the revolutionists for the difficulties, while the revolutionists publish extracts from American journals unfavorable to Mexico to show what the Jurist administration has brought the country to. The revolutionists charge collusion between Juarez and President Grant. Commissioner Guzman goes to Washington to-day.

Communicated.

EDITOR POST.—In making up a ticket to be supported by the Republican party in the coming election we should put in nomination competent men, at the same time respecting the rights of localities. West Perry has always been modest in her demands and is justly entitled to something. For COUNTY COMMISSIONER we recommend that sterling Republican THOMAS SHELLENBERGER. He is well known throughout the county as a man of integrity and business capacity; possessing all qualifications for a faithful discharge of the duties of that office. BEAVER.

Advertising alone does not produce success. The thing which is advertised must have intrinsic merit, or else large advertising will eventually do it more harm than good. If you have anything you know to be good, advertise it thoroughly, and you will be sure to succeed; if it is poor don't praise it, for people will soon discover you are lying.

Such is the policy of the Burlington Route, which runs to the three great regions in the West: 1st. To Omaha, connecting with the great Pacific Roads. 2d. to Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and all that beautiful region south of the Platte, filled with R. R. lands and homesteads. 3d, To St. Joseph, Kansas City and all Kansas points.

The roads are splendidly built, have the best bridges, finest cars, the Miller platform and coupler, and the safety air brake (to prevent the loss of life that is every where else happening); Pullman's sleepers, Pullman dining cars, large and powerful engines (to make quick time and good connections, and are in a word the best equipped roads in the West. So that if you desire to go safely, surely, quickly and comfortably to any point in Southern Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, or on the Pacific Roads, be sure that you go "By Way of Burlington."

All who wish particular information, and a large map, showing correctly the Great West, and all its Railroad connections, can obtain them, and any other knowledge, by addressing General Passenger Agent, B. & Mo. R. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

THE RUSSELL
MOWER & REAPER.

Manufactured by

C. Russell & Co.
CANTON, O.

Weight and Strength,

There must be a certain amount of weight, for the reason that all the power that can be brought to bear upon the knife is derived from the gravity or weight of the machine upon the ground. That it must combine strength enough to do well the work for which it is intended.

Durability and Utility,

It is important that a machine should be durable, for no matter how excellent it may be in all its parts, if not durable it will prove useless. Utility is the great object. In our combined Reaper and Mower to be useful is the desired aim.

The mower cuts a four foot swarth and the Reaper a swarth of six feet.

Rear Cut vs Front Cut.

For the finest cut it has been claimed that it was the more easily handled; that it was safer for driver and machine; that there is not the same liability to injury, by falling or being thrown off, the driver would fall behind the cutters. The Rear Cut machine is more easily handled, because the horses are hitched nearer to the main axle, than in the Front Cut. No weight or sawing on the necks of the horses. The driver can see obstructions, thus saving himself and machine from injury.

Draft and Flexibility,

It is meritously claimed for the Russell to have as little side draft as any machine in use: and its flexibility adopts it to the inequalities of the ground over which it may be drawn.
