EVANS & WATSON'S
Philadelphia Manufact'd
Cel. Salamander Safes.
No. 304 Chesnut Street,
PHILADELPHIA.

These Safes are now in use all over the United States, have been tested in many fires; the following is another instance of their capability in resisting fire:

WESSER'S BANK,
Lancaster Township, July 20, 1860.

EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen:—The small Salamander Safe which I purchased from your agent, William R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1859, has been tested in a very severe fire, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some of my neighbors and friends, and contained over Twenty Thousand Dollars, was in my office, which was destroyed on the night of the 19th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor, and the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain stored within the brick walls. After the fire the Safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders, a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me.

Yours, respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

Another Victory for Evans and Watson's Salamander Safe.

OWEGO, N. Y., March 27, 1860.

Gentlemen—It affords me much pleasure to inform you that the Safe No. 3, (upright) which I purchased of Messrs. Wright, your traveling agent, has passed through an extensive fire in a three story brick building, which totally destroyed the Safe to a white heat, so that the contents of the upper shelves, but it preserved my books and valuable papers to the amount of several thousand dollars, for which I feel thankful.

Yours, respectfully, J. N. ELDRIDGE.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS

Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United State to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years's residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H ASHTON, No. 232 Market st., Phil'a.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in the country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.
