THE CITY POST.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.....APRIL 26.

AN ARMED ROBBER.—A month or two ago a man named James Carr was arrested for robbing the tavern of Joseph Schmidt, of the Fifth Ward, of a considerable sum of money. Last week he was convicted in the Court of Quarter Sessions of larceny, and sentenced to the Penitentiary, by Judge M'Clure, for a term of one year and six months. As some time generally elapses after conviction before prisoners are taken over to the Penitentiary, Carr thought he could turn the delay to some use to himself, and accordingly formed a plan of escape. He first endeavored to raise one of the flags forming the floor of his cell, and by getting into the [illegible], escape out of the Grant street entrance to the building. Failing in this, he broke from the end of the refuse pipe a piece of iron, and endeavored with this instrument to force the iron plate affixed to the jail window from its place. About nine o'clock, on Monday night, Mr. Crawford, the jailor, hearing a noise in Carr's cell entered, and found him busily engaged in loosening the iron plate, assisted by a fellow prisoner named Flem[illegible]. The prisoners were immediately secured and removed to another cell, and Carr's legs and arms manacled. This did not disturb him, for when the jailor left the cell he remarked that if he (Carr) would leave during the night, the jailor would find the irons on the bed. Sure enough, yesterday morning the manacles were found on the bed, but Carr was still in the cell. He has a peculiar way of removing irons, which is entirely incomprehensible. Yesterday he was taken to the Penitentiary, and on his way over the bridge, by a peculiar jerk which he gave his arm, he unlocked one of the handcuffs, and would have done the same to the other had he not been prevented. Carr told Major Beckham he didn't think he would stay with him more than a week, at the farthest. As to that we shall see.

He is certainly one of the most adroit and dangerous villains in the country. He is an escaped prisoner from the Sing-Sing prison in New York, from one of the Philadelphia jails, and also from the Ohio Penitentiary. He boasts of his escapes and ill deeds in a true Jack Sheppard manner, and, in fact, he is not a bad representative of a class of which Jack was so noted a leader.

FORGERY.—Yesterday morning, a young man entered the banking house of Kramer & Rahm, on Wood street, and presented a check for payment, dated "Pittsburgh, April 24, 1854," for twenty dollars. The check purported to be drawn by Andrew M'Master, City Treasurer, and was presented by Augustus C. Hutton, lately in the employ of the Alderman, as Clerk. Mr. Florence Kramer, to whom the check was presented, detected the signature immediately as a forgery. Efforts were made to induce Hutton to remain in the office, until an officer could be sent for; but he, growing suspicious, left the banking house. An information was immediately made before Mayor Volz of the occurrence, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Hutton. In the course of the afternoon he was apprehended, and committed to jail to await his trial at the June term of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Hutton, it is supposed, drew the check, and forged the name of Mr. M'Masters. He was recently in the employ of that gentleman, for some time, as clerk; and, previous to the present affair, has borne an excellent character for honesty.

CAMPHENE EXPLOSION.—On Saturday evening last, a girl named Elizabeth Rogers was dreadfully injured in the Ninth Ward, by the explosion of a camphene lamp. It appears that in supplying the lamp with camphene, a portion of the fluid adhered to her fingers. When lighting the lamp, this caught fire, and communicating with that in the lamp, the explosion was produced, and the fluid scattered over her body. The girl's breast was horribly burned—so much so, that it is feared she will not recover. Miss Rogers resided in one of Mr. Darragh's houses, on Lombard street, and is a sister-in-law of that gentleman.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.—William Wolf was arrested on Sunday afternoon, by High Constable McVicker, of the Allegheny police, for selling beer on Sunday. While the officer was in the act of arresting Wolf, a number of persons attempted a rescue, but the officer succeeded in taking him to the Mayor's office, where he paid a fine and was discharged. Mr. M'Vicker then proceeded back to Wolf's, and arrested a man named Charles Myers, on a charge of being concerned in the attempted rescue. Myers was fined $10 and costs, and in default of payment, was committed to jail.

CONCERT GERMANIA SOCIETY.—The first concert of the above celebrated company will take place to-night at Masonic Hall. The programme is excellent and varied. Among other things they will perform the overture to "Tannhauser," an entirely new work, by a young and most talented composer, Richard Wagner, who is also a poet of great merit, and himself writes the plot and poetry for his operas. The above work has created great excitement in the musical world of Europe, and is, for the first time in this country, brought out by the Germanians. Go and hear it, by all means.

LECTURE.—Mr. George Sumner, of Massachusetts, has signified his intention of delivering a lecture before the Young Men's Mercantile Library, next week, on the subject of "Louis Napoleon and the French." Mr. Sumner has achieved considerable reputation by his lectures, delivered throughout the country, on various subjects, and we have no doubt his discourse will be listened to with great attention by a large number of our citizens.

We stopped for a few minutes at the BANNER HAT STORE yesterday, and must say that the stock of fancy summer goods, for men, boy's and children, is of the largest and most beautiful description—and to know that the stock is there, is to know that they can be bought low. Just call and see the prettiest hats for children in the city. We almost forgot those riding hats. ALL beats all compeers. Remember the sign of the American Flag, 147 Wood street.

RECOVERED.—The body of Garrett, drowned in the Ohio river, near Manchester, on Saturday afternoon last, was recovered on Sunday morning, and an inquest held by the Coroner, Lowry. The body was afterwards removed to the residence of a brother of the deceased, in Allegheny city.

CAPTAIN.—John S. Hamilton, Esq., a member of the Legislature, from this county, has been tendered the office of commander of the Shield Guards. Mr. Hamilton served as a volunteer, during the Mexican war, with distinguished merit.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Alderman Major yesterday held Ellen Pole to bail, to answer at the next term of Court, a charge of assault and battery, and surety of the peace, made against her by Margaret O'Laughlin.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Hon. Wm. B. McClure, President Judge, and Wm. Boggs and Gabriel Adams, Associates.

TUESDAY April 25, 1854.

Lawrence Winchell, indicted for keeping a tippling house was found not guilty.

John Brunner, indicted for the same offence, was tried, and the jury finding him guilty a sentence of $75 and the costs, was imposed.

Commonwealth vs. Mary Riley; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Bridget Hughes. Not guilty, the prosecutrix to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Lewis Baldwin; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Christopher O'Farrel. Not guilty, the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Diehl. The defendant, a young man, was indicted for stealing a paint pot from Guy L. Emilhson. A verdict of guilty of petit larceny was rendered, and the defendant remanded for sentence.

Philip Schwemble, indicted for keeping a tippling house, on the information of Mary Ann Rose, was acquitted.

The next case taken up was one of assault and battery, against the same defendant. The charge was also made by the same prosecutrix. She was regaling the Court and Jury with her tale of wrongs, when we left the Court room.

EARLY ENGAGEMENTS: by Mary Frazaer; 1 volume 12mo. 75 cents.

"Evil is wrought by want of thought, As well as want of heart."

"The subject discussed is one that never loses its hold upon the heart, nor loses its importance; and when so pleasantly presented in the garb a finished domestic narrative, as in this work, must have many eager students, * * written in a style of great freshness and piquancy, we heartily commend it to our friends."—Louisville Courier.

"A very interesting and exciting story, which, while it is read with the deepest interest, will, at the same time, convey instruction that may prove of inestimable value."—Troy Times.

"So much genuine merit and knowledge of the secret springs of the human heart are seldom found, as the reader will find in this book."—Madison Courier.

"We have read the greater part of this volume with deep interest. * * The plot is well laid and handsomely executed, all the characters being sketched with decided vigor and power. The scenes are laid in the South and West."—Louisville Journal.

NEWS FOR RIVER MEN.

The River—13 feet water in the channel, and falling.

A steamer was launched at New York on Thursday, called the Metropolis, which is the largest steamboat ever built, being 350 feet long, 45 feet beam and 15 feet hold. She, unlike other steamboats, is timbered up to the level of her state room floor, and thus is really 24 feet deep. Her engine, which is to be put in by the Novelty Iron Works, is of nearly double the power of any steam engine now in use. The cylinder is 105 inches diameter by 12 feet stroke. The Metropolis will measure 3200 tons burden, and is intended for the Fall River Line.

We called on our "young friend," Capt. H. Kounts, to enquire the time of the Cincinnati leaving, and he says that he will go as soon as he is ready. We presume that will be about 10 o'clock. Don't forget the red shutters.

Capt. McVay's and Capt. Moore's new boats came down from California yesterday. Capt. McVay's is for the Zanesville trade, and Capt. Moore's for the Wheeling trade. They were pronounced fine specimens by the judges.

The owners of the Exchange are dressing her in a new suit, preparatory to putting her in the evening line to Wheeling.

The steamer Southerner left St. Louis on the 17th inst., at 6 o'clock. In port for the Ohio—Keystone, Caledonia and U. S. Mail, loading for Pittsburgh.

The Louisville Democrat seems to think that the present rise of the river is inopportune for coal speculators and monopolists.

The Mississippi, opposite St. Louis, was rising on the 24th, at the rate of one foot in twenty-four hours.

The Missouri was rising on the 24th from St. Joseph down. The Illinois was on a stand at the same date.

The packets for Louisville to-day are the steamers Gazel and Castle Garden.

Emigration was never so great to the West as this season. The new comers are not foreigners, but sturdy, hard laboring tillers of the soil, and mechanics, from Ohio, Pennsylvania and the eastern States. The foreign immigration with the exception of the proselytes to Mormonism, is small this season. The Editor, Edinburg and Paul Anderson, in yesterday from the Ohio river, were all crowded, and thousands more are on the way. Arrivals of Mormons for the week past cannot number less than three or four thousand, who have come out, to possess the land and to make for themselves and children a permanent home of their own. Most of them are well provided with tools, implements of agriculture, and frequently with stock with which to commence operations, and from their general appearance we surmise that they are tolerably supplied with the needful. Every boat going up the Missouri and Mississippi is crowded with the sovereigns.—St. Louis Democrat.

The Grey Cloud was detained four days at Keokuk by high winds. The steamer Galena broke loose from her moorings and drifted to a bar, but received no injury.

River falling slowly at Weston; Grand river and Osage running out fall. On the trip, one fireman died and another fell overboard.—St. Louis Democrat, 22nd.

RAILROADS.

CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAILROAD.

IN CONNECTION WITH STEAMERS FOREST CITY AND DIURNAL.

Great Reduction of Fare. VIA WELLSVILLE.

THE shortest, quickest and cheapest route to Toledo, Chicago, Lasalle, Rockford, Galena, St. Louis, and the Northwest, via Cleveland. This route is 40 miles shorter and about 4 hours quicker to Chicago, than the circuitous one via Indianapolis.

Owing to the present arrangement of the Trains of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the trains of this Company cannot be run to connect with them at Alliance, as heretofore, without too great a sacrifice of their legitimate business.

On and after Wednesday, March 2, 1854, Passenger Trains run daily, (Sundays excepted) as follows:

Leave Wellsville at 8 P M, Alliance at 7.40 A M, and 5.10 P M, and reach Cleveland at 10 A M, and 7.30 P M.

Leave Cleveland at 9.30 A M, and 2.50 P M, and reach Alliance at 12 M, and 5.10 P M, and Wellsville at 2 30 P M.

Passengers for Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, and the North west, also passengers going south or east from Cleveland to Columbus, Cincinnati, Buffalo, or Albany, can take the steamers FOREST CITY or DIURNAL, at 10 A. M., at Monongahela Wharf, Pittsburgh, and go directly forward by the 8 P M Express Train from Wellsville, reaching Cleveland at 7.30 P. M., connecting with the 7.45 P M Train for Toledo and Chicago, and the 9 P M Train for Erie, Dunkirk and Buffalo.

Baggage checked through to Cleveland on board the boats, and accompanied by a baggage master.

As no connection is made at Alliance by either the 8 A. M. or 3 P. M. Trains of O. and P. R. R, passengers for Cleveland who go on the first train will be detained five hours, and those on the 3 P. M. Train till next morning at 7.30.

Passengers are ticketed through to Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, Lasalle, and St. Louis. Time through to St. Louis, 48 hours.

Fare to Alliance	$1,50	Fare to St. Louis	$19,80
do Cleveland	3,00	do Rockford	12,80
do Toledo	3,00	do Lasalle	13,50
do Chicago	10,50	do Freeport	13,50

Passengers are requested to procure tickets at the office of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, Monongahela House, second door from the corner. J. DURAND, Sup't Cleveland. J. A. CAUGHEY, Agent, mar20 Monongahela House, Water st., Pittsburgh.

TRANSPORTATION TO THE EASTERN CITIES.

D. LEECH & CO.'S LINE, VIA CANAL AND RAILROAD, BETWEEN Pittsburgh, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

ON the opening of Canal, we are prepared to carry a large quantity of produce and merchandize to and from the Eastern cities, having in addition to our own stock of boats and cars, recently added, by purchase with another party, the stock of Bingham's Line, which will increase materially our capacity and facility for transportation. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company having now withdrawn from the Portage Railroad, it will enable our cars to pass it in one third the time previously taken, thus ensuring increased despatch. Shipments consigned to either of the undersigned, will be forwarded without charge for commission, and all instructions promptly attended to. Freights always carried at the lowest current rates. Address or apply to D. LEECH & CO., Penn street and Canal, Pittsburgh. HARRIS & LEECH, Receiving depot, 13 South Third street, Delivering depot, Dock st., Philadelphia. A. SMITH, Agent, No. 75 North street, Baltimore. J. McDONALD, Agent, feb23 No. 8, Battery Place, New York.

PENNSYLVANIA & OHIO LINE.

BETWEEN Pittsburgh and the Eastern Cities.

OFFICIAL NOTICE has been given that the State Works will be open on the 1st of March. We are prepared to start our Lines in two or three days after, and are now ready to receive freight for Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore, at moderate rates.

Having recently added extensively to our car and boat stock, by purchase with another party, a part of the stock of Bingham & Co., (who retire as will be seen by the accompanying notice, from the business of transportation,) our tonnage capacity is greatly increased.

The withdrawal of the cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from the State Road, will enable us to save about two days in time of transmission.
