DICKEY AND SUSY.

Dickey was poor—Susy had a rich mother—Dickey loved Susy, and vice versa—Dickey wanted to marry Susy—Susy's mother was "down on" that measure—Dickey was forbid the premises—notes were exchanged through a knot hole in the high board fence that enclosed the yard. One day the lady went out "calling," and Dickey was duly informed of the fact—called on Susy—remained a little too long—old lady close at hand—no chance of escape without detection—at the instance of Susy, Dickey popped into the closet—old lady saw that Susy looked confused—guessed what Dickey had been about, but supposed, of course, he had rendered good his escape—thought, perhaps, the young couple had agreed to elope together—determined to be too smart for them—accordingly shut Susy in the same closet where Dickey was concealed, and giving her a pair of quilts and a pillow, locked her up for the night—didn't see Dickey—next morning went to the closet to let Susy out—

"Oh Lord!"—a scream—couldn't get breath for a moment. Finally—

"Ahem! Dickey, is that you?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Ahem! ahem!—well, Dickey——"

"Susy, dear, go and see about the breakfast." [Exit Susy.

"Well, Dickey."

"Well, ma'am."

"Dickey, you must stay to breakfast."

"Couldn't ma'am."

"Oh, but you must."

Dickey concluded to stay.

Breakfast table—"Dickey, I have been thinking about you a good deal lately."

"So I suppose, ma'am—very lately."

"You are industrious and honest, I hear, Dickey."

"I never brag, ma'am."

"Well, now, upon the whole, Dickey, I think you and Susy had better get married."

☞ THE ALLIGATOR.—The weakest part of an alligator is his stomach. Man is an alligator. Fact! Give him enough to eat, and you're sure of him! Make a straight path from the door to the dinner table; kick the children out of his way, put his knife and fork where he won't lose a minute in getting 'em; then set his favorite dish before him, and don't wink till he has eat his way through it, and—then's your time to ask for the "half of his kingdom," or the whole of it; keep your "alligator" tame with victuals, my dear, and his bite will never be dangerous. But—if you're a villainous cook (and don't know how to cook yourself,) you may be as beautiful as Venus, intellectual as Madame de Stael, and as chaste as Diana—but your matrimonial death warrant is signed, sealed and delivered; you can take your piano for fire-wood, and your French books for kindling, and study how to make the pot boil, if you don't want a divorce quicker than you got your "license." I knew a man who was bound to his wife by no other tie on earth but her good dinners!—he always adored her at dinner time!—Whenever he gets savage, she runs to the pantry, and gets him something to eat, and he'll be as quiet as a lamb till next morning.—Fanny Fern.

☞ LUDICROUS.—A young lass, who had gone to camp meeting and come back full of the revival which they had, did nothing the following week or more but sing:—"Shout! shout! we're gaining ground!" She had the tune so pat, that all she said was but a continuation of that song, and not unfrequently the rhyming was too long for the tune. Old Jowler slipped in and took a bone off the table, and just as he was making for the door, she sang out—

"I'll von don't go out I'll knock you down
Hallo, hallelujah,
You nasty stinkin' lop-ear'd hound,
O glory, hallelujah."

☞ DOUGLAS, OR MORPHEUS.—Excited Nurse.—"Why, Doctor, I have given the old gentleman a hundred drops of laudanum, and he hasn't slept a wink yet. I am going to repeat the dose."

Modern Æsculapius.—"No, no, I have a much better opiate in my pocket, contained in a paper; when he reads the congressional proceedings on the Nebraska Bill, you will find that he gets a refreshing slumber. It will be conveyed through the eyes to the brain, when the effect will be immediate."

Astonished Nurse.—"I hope it won't blast him."

☞ SOCIAL SKETCH.—Youthful Husband, (sternly.) "There's no use in saying any more about it, Louisa; if a man can't have his Club he might as well be nobody; and moreover, let me tell you, I will be master of my own house!"

Youthful Wife, (meekly.) "I thought it was your mother's house, Alfred."

Youthful Husband, (moodily.) "Oh, ah! ya-as—that is to say—I shan't be home to dinner to-day."

☞ KATE DARLING MARRIED.—Miss Kate Darling was married at Memphis, on Monday evening last, to Madison M. Vales. After "Sweet Katy" has been sung under a thousand starry skies, by moon-struck lovers, "breathing like a furnace;" after being thumped over a thousand pianos, by misses sighing to be like her, she has gone the way that all girls would like to go—into a husband's arms!

☞ ONE OF THE HINTS.—A school-boy, lately, who thought his pocket money came rather seldom, thus addressed his father:—"Please, Papa! tell me if the words, E pluribus unum, are still on our quarter dollars?" "Of course they are, you stupid boy," said papa; "but why do you ask that?" "Because," replied the young hopeful, "it is such a long time since I had one, that I almost forgot."

☞ SAXE, the poet, recently sent the following toast to the Lowell festival of the Sons and Daughters of Vermont:

Vermont—Famous for the production of four great staples, namely: men, women, maple-sugar and horses.

The first are strong—the last are fleet;
The second and third are exceedingly sweet;
And all are uncommonly "hard to beat."

☞ A LITTLE fellow about five years old ran across a street, and in his course ran between the fore legs of a horse which was rapidly passing along. A man who saw the occurrence, ran up and snatched the boy supposing he was injured.—But the boy, unhurt, pertly ejaculated—"Let him keep his horse out of my way; what do I care."

☞ A MINER in California, that put up at a "first class hotel" near M'Culloch's sluich, in writing home says, they mix their buckwheat cakes in a wash tub, and turn them, when baking, with a garden spade. This certainly smacks of progress.

☞ SPORT IN KENTUCKY.—Young sportsman: "I-say friend, is there anything to shoot about here?" Farmer: "Wal, I don't know, stranger, but you can go down to the cross roads and take a pop at the schoolmaster, just to keep your hand in."

☞ "SONNY, do you know your letters?" "Yes Sir! two of 'em." "Possible, what are they?" "Let her go, and let her rip!"

☞ FOR a single horse and buggy you pay $3 per day, &c.,—Exchange.

How much must you pay for a married horse?—more, or less?

☞ "I believe that they have been inoculated with stupidity," said a lawyer. "That may be," said his opponent, "but the bar is of the opinion that you had it in the natural way."

☞ WHY is four cent sugar like a man that never surrendered? Because it's 'clear grit,' and nothing else.

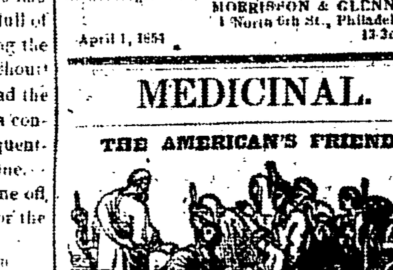
MEDICINAL.

THE AMERICAN'S FRIEND!



HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States:

I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of stating that my Doctors were all American Citizens, and that I entertain for all that concerns America and Americans the most lively sympathies, so much so that I originally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions and manner of living, intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York. THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 80, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York.

PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD, AND LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The Citizens of the Union suffer much from disorder of the Liver and Stomach, scarcely any are free from the influence of these destructive maladies, hence life wears fast. The fair sex, perhaps the most vindicate in the World, upto a certain period when, increasing to say, many lose their teeth and good looks, while yet in the heyday of life, such and evils may be effectually remedied by continually keeping the blood pure, and the Liver and Stomach in a healthy action, which life will flow smoothly, and resemble plants in a congenial climate, where an equal spring appears to reign. As it regards the preservation of the human frame, and the duration of life, which may be affected, and I say fearlessly, that health and life can be prolonged for many years beyond their ordinary "limits," if Holloway's Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.

A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, OF 10 YEARS' STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Johnson, Astor House, New York, January 5th, 1854.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 80, Corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York—Sir:—It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my Ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when at last I was recommended to try your Pills.—After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as I ever was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others. I remain, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) JOHN JOHNSON.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague,	Indigestion,
Asthma,	Jaundice,
Bilious Complaints,	Liver Complaints,
Blotches on the Skin,	Piles,
Bowel Complaints,	Retention of Urine,
Constipation of the Bowels,	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Debility,	Stone and Gravel,
Dropsy,	Secondary Symptoms,
Erysipelas,	Venereal Affections,
Female Irregularities,	Worms of all kinds,
Fevers of all kinds,	Weakness, from whatever cause, &c., &c.
Gout,
Headache,

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the U. States, in Boxes at 37½c, 87½c, and $1 50 each. To be had Wholesale of the principal Drug Houses in the Union.

UNCLE SAM'S FARM FENCE,

THE POPULAR BOOK—Uncle Sam's Farm Fence—By A. D. Milne, illustrated by one of the first artists in New York.

This admirable Temperance tale was originally published in the New York People's Organ, and attracted much attention when in the course of publication.

Uncle Sam's Farm Fence is written in a very pleasing, popular, off hand style. Always graphic and true to nature, grave or gay, sunny or sombre.—Many of its pictures are full of thrilling interest.—The sketches are taken from nature, and are true to every day life. A book like this is just in time—There can be no doubt that the work will have a great run; and it is really pleasing to think of the great good it will do. Nothing will be found in it to offend delicacy or sound morals, and it will, therefore be found a welcome guest in every family.

NOTICE! NOTICE!

To all Owners of Houses, and those contemplating to build, call and see Nutting's "PATENT EXPANDING WINDOW-SASH,"

WHICH has all the advantages which Weights and Pulleys have in keeping Windows in any position; and also, has many advantages over them, some of which are these: If you use Weights on your Windows, they are liable to get out of order, cords break, &c. The Expanding Sash cannot break. If you use Weights the Sash must be loose in the Frame, so as to cause an unpleasant noise every time the wind blows, and also to admit dust and air in abundance to the great inconvenience of good housekeepers. The Expanding Sash is tight by expansion, and therefore will not rattle nor admit dust and air, If you use Weights you cannot remove the Windows from the Frames without removing the strips from the sides, thereby causing the paint to be rubbed off as well as losing some time in the operation. The Expanding Sash can be removed from, and returned to the Frame, in a moment.

Another great inducement to use the expanding sash, is the cost, which, in a new house, would not be more than one-half the cost of building the ordinary frame with weights, cords and pulleys. This Patent can be applied to old Sash, whether they now have Weights or not, at an expense that is small in consideration of the many advantages gained. It is, in fact, the only sash which combines economy; convenience and comfort in perfection.

Call and examine it; it will cost nothing to look at it. ☞ SHOP-RIGHTS will be sold to Carpenters. GEORGE BRIGHT

THE CELEBRATED AMERICAN HORSE POWDER,

A Certain, Safe, Speedy and Effectual Cure for Botts, Distemper, Coughs, Yellow Water, Loss of Appetite, Depression of Spirits, etc.

THE proprietors of the above powder take great pleasure in calling your attention to an article which excels anything of the kind ever offered for public sanction and patronage.

It has stood the test of many years' experience, and is no fishing humbug got up as a money-making scheme, but an article substantially and faithfully prepared; composed entirely of such remedies as have been found by practical experience to be valuable for the cure of the diseases for which it is recommended.

It should be in the hands of every Farmer, Farrier and Drayman. No owner of horses should be without it. It will save, if used properly and in time, the lives of many valuable animals.

We ask you but to try it. Confident of its utility we deem it unnecessary to enter into any lengthy details of its virtues, but respectfully submit it to the patronage of a discerning public. Also—

THE CELEBRATED AMERICAN COW POWDER, A NEW AND VALUABLE DISCOVERY

Warranted to cure Hollow Horn, and other Diseases incident to Horned Cattle.

Notwithstanding the numerous compounds which are daily offered under the name of specifics, yet there has long been wanted a preparation that would ensure a safe and effectual cure of the many diseases to which every horned animal is subject. The object of the present one, containing ingredients of the most valuable description, is to enable all those who may own cattle affected with disease, to obtain a Medicine unsurpassed by any other ever offered.—Its composition is entirely different from the Horse Powder, being adapted expressly to horned animals and their disease.

It is unnatural and inconsistent to administer the same medicine to both species for the cure of entirely different diseases. What may be valuable as a remedy in one instance, is entirely inactive and useless in the other. We have, therefore, prepared two remedies of dissimilar nature, which we warrant to eradicate the diseases for which they are recommended.

Use this article once, and we venture to say you will not be without it after.

It has been tried by many intelligent farmers throughout the United States, and universally given the highest degree of satisfaction.

McLEAN'S VOLCANIC OIL LINIMENT IMMENSE SUCCESS,

Over Twenty-one Thousand Bottles sold in one Month in St. Louis.

THIS valuable Liniment has been before the public only twenty months, yet it has gained for itself an enormous popularity by its own intrinsic merits. It is superseding every other Liniment and remedy for the cure of external diseases.

ON MAN AND ANIMALS.

Desperate efforts have been made by proprietors of other Liniments to injure the reputation and retard the sale of this invaluable medicine; but "Truth is mighty." McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has prevailed.

The miraculous cures that it has and is daily performing, are becoming known to every person in the Western and Southern country, and wherever it has been used all other Liniments and external remedies have been discarded as useless.

McLEAN'S VOLCANIC OIL LINIMENT

Will cure chronic or inflammatory Rheumatism, Paralysis, stiffness or weakness in the Joints, Muscles or Ligaments, contracted Muscles, Bruises, Sprains, Neuralgia, Tooth-ache, Ear-ache, or any pain. It will remove any swelling, Tumor, Piles, Hard Lumps, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Bites of Musquitoes, or any inflammation.

And it will cleanse, purify and heal the foulest Ulcer Sores on the legs or shins; no difference how long they may have existed. It will also soothe and heal Burns, Scalds, Fresh Cuts, Wounds, &c., sooner than any other remedy.

We earnestly advise all persons who may be afflicted with any of the above diseases, to obtain a supply at once of McLean's Celebrated Liniment.—It is the only reliable remedy. It will never fail to produce a speedy and permanent cure if properly applied. We offer you sure relief when a safe and sure remedy is so easily obtained. We are receiving daily hundreds of certificates from all parts of the country. We think the following will be sufficient to convince the most incredulous of the miraculous effects of this wonderful medicine.

J. H. McLEAN—Dear Sir:—I take this method of thanking you gratefully for restoring my son, fifteen years old, an entire cripple for nearly one year, now a hale and healthy young man. Two years ago my son had an attack of Rheumatism—I used several bottles of Mexican Mustang Liniment on him, and various other liniments and remedies, but all to no effect; he still got worse.—The flesh on his legs dried to the bones, the muscles became contracted, drawing his feet up so tight against his body, so that he had to crawl on his hands and knees, or hobble along on short crutches in a sitting posture. No one can form an idea how he suffered by the changes of the weather, the most excruciating pains.

Mr. Listen, of Illinois, called at our house. He was cured some time ago of bleeding piles by your Volcanic Oil Liniment. He gave us a part of a bottle, which he always carried with him. I used it on his side, and it relieved the pain immediately. A few days after, he sent me two bottles by Mail.—I applied it twice a day, and it relaxed the muscles and cured him entirely. He can now work, walk or run as well as ever. Yours respectfully, JESSE BURROUGHS.

I live four miles west of Mt. Pleasant, Indiana,—I can get all my neighbors to certify to the above facts, (necessary). I am somewhat acquainted with Mr. Burroughs, and know the above to be strictly true. LOUIS BRONSON, Agent.

FOR HORSES AND OTHER ANIMALS.

McLean's celebrated Liniment is the only safe and reliable remedy for the cure of Sprains, Ring Bone, Wind Galls, Splints, Unnatural Lumps, Nodes or Swellings. It will never fail to cure Big Head, Poll Evil, Fistula, Old Running Sores or Sweeney, if properly applied. For Sprains, Bruises, Scratches, Cracked Hoofs, Chafes, saddle or collar Galls, Cuts or Wounds, it is an infallible remedy. Apply as directed, and a cure is certain in every instance.

Directions accompany each bottle in English and German.

This Liniment is now put up in twenty-five cent, fifty cent and dollar bottles. The fifty cent size contains three times the quantity of the twenty-five cent size, and so on in proportion to the cost.

TO DR. MARCHISI:—I have been ten years troubled with Female Complaints—prolapsus uteri, and all the attending difficulties; at times rendering my life most miserable. I have had the attendance of some of the best physicians; with but little success—the most they could do was to relieve—a cure was out of the question. For five months before commencing with your medicine, I had not been able to perform any labor, could walk but a few steps at a time, and scarcely went out of doors—in short, I was completely prostrated, both in body and mind, and expected to drag out the rest of my days in suffering and misery. But, reading in your advertisement, I was induced to try your invaluable medicine called Uterine Catholicon, as the last resort. I had not used it a week before I felt like another woman. By the use of three bottles I was enabled to perform all the labor for six in the family with ease, and could walk anywhere in the neighborhood without injury. Nothing but a sense of my duty to you and to the afflicted, has induced me to state my case to the public. I can safely recommend the preparation to all those suffering like myself.

MEDICINAL.

The Great Specific of the Age! DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY,

OUR readers have, doubtless, noticed from time to time a reference to the above, in the advertising columns of this paper. We intended ere this to have made some remarks respecting this most invaluable preparation, as we are one of those, circumstances requiring and the nature of the subject justifying it, who do not hesitate to speak freely of that which we know and to testify of that which we have seen. It is a principle with us to render to Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's, and never to withhold from the public what we think ought to be known, and which we judge expedient to communicate, no matter whatsoever may think or say.

THE WILD CHERRY TREE, in all ages of the world and in all countries where it is known, has been, both among civilized as well as savage nations and tribes, justly celebrated for its wonderful medicinal properties. But its great power to cure some of the worst and most distressing diseases among us, was probably never fully ascertained, until the experiments of that distinguished botanist and skillful physician, Dr. Swayne, had demonstrated its high adaptation, when properly prepared, to the nature of man, and to the complaints with which he is often afflicted. This learned gentleman has succeeded, after the most persevering efforts, and by bringing much medical skill to bear upon the subject, in obtaining and concentrating all the extraordinary virtues of this remarkable tree, in such a manner as to constitute one of the most efficacious remedies and at the same time most pleasant to take, that is now known in the medical world. Since this most invaluable discovery of Dr. Swayne, thousands have been by it restored to health and the enjoyment of life, who were suffering from the ravages of the most excruciating disease; and we have reason to believe that many hundreds have been saved from an untimely grave, whose cases no other remedy could reach. One thing that is eminently calculated to inspire confidence in the virtues of the Wild Cherry is the fact that the medical faculty throughout the globe are unanimous in their opinion that its medicinal properties are great; and when prepared, as by Dr. Swayne, there can be no doubt of its admirable adaptation to curative purposes. The fact also, that Dr. Swayne is a regular physician, and possesses the advantages of the experience and practice in his profession of nearly a quarter of a century, is calculated to increase the public confidence in the superior merits of the medicine in question.

It is not necessary for us to refer, particularly to the many remarkable cures performed by this salutary remedy which we have been acquainted, or to speak of the abilities of Dr. Swayne as a physician, or to dwell at length upon the peculiarly healthful properties of the Wild Cherry. Suffice it to say that the preparation referred to is in skillful hands, that it is one of the greatest and safest purifiers of the blood that can be administered, that its healing and at the same time strengthening qualities are wonderful; and that the published certificates (from high's respectable individuals show that, in many instances, the cures effected by it have been truly astonishing. Persons, it seems, who had been addicted for years and rendered the most miserable creatures on the face of the earth, have been, by the use of this powerful remedy, restored to perfect health.

From the caution which the Doctor has frequently found it necessary to send forth to the public, we should judge that attempts have often been made by unprincipled individuals, to impose upon the community a spurious article, attaching the name of "CHERRY." To fully guard against such base and palpable impositions, the public will do well to purchase only authorized agents. The name of Doctor Swayne, in connexion with the "Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," we understand has never yet been counterfeited; so that if the public are careful to purchase only such as bears the Doctor's name and portrait on the wrapper around each bottle, they may be sure of obtaining the legitimate article.

It is with great pleasure, as well as confidence in its efficacy that we recommend to the attention of the afflicted "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," the only sure remedy ever discovered for consumption in all its various forms.

DYSPEPSIA OR WORMS. Swayne's Celebrated Vermifuge.

A safe and effectual remedy for Worms, Dyspepsia, Cholera Morbus, Sickly or Dyspeptic Children, or adults, and the most useful Family Medicine ever offered to the public.

This remedy is one that has proved successful for a long time and it is universally acknowledged by all who have tried it, to be far superior, (being so very pleasant to the taste at the same time effectual) to any other medicine ever employed in diseases for which it is recommended. It not only destroys worms but invigorates the whole system.

☞ BEWARE OF MISTAKES. ☜

Remember Dr. Swayne's Vermifuge is put up in square bottles. See that the name is spelled correctly, SWAYNE.

TESTED BY THOUSANDS AND ALWAYS APPROVED!

THE hand of a beneficent Creator has planted in every country with its own proper antidotes against the effects of soil and climate upon the human being. The aboriginal Indians are proof of this fact, maintaining as they did, without other aid, a vigor of constitution unsurpassed by any other race. It is from the roots and plants, which grow spontaneously upon our own soil, that WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are compounded. They are, therefore, better adapted to meet the particular forms of disease prevailing in our country, than any foreign medicine, or any medicine concocted from foreign drugs can be.

The high celebrity which these Pills have acquired for thoroughness and efficacy, renders any thing more than a short notice unnecessary. Being compounded entirely of vegetable simples, the productions of our own soil, they are entirely free from all mercurial and other deleterious mixtures—powerful, for good, yet innocent of injury, even to the weakest constitution. They should be resorted to at once in any of the following complaints:

Then follow Dyspepsia, Constipation, Cold Feet and Loss of Appetite—the skin becomes yellow, the spirits droop, and there is a great aversion to society. Regulate the Liver, and you correct all these evils.—The surest preparations to take are DR. ROSE'S celebrated Railroad or Antibilious PILLS. They carry off the bile, and soon give appetite and strength.

His Dyspepsia Compound should be taken where a person has been troubled with Dyspepsia a long time. Price 50 cents; but for Colds, Bilious habits, jaundice, &c., take DR. ROSE'S Antibilious or Railroad PILLS, 12½ and 25 cents per box.

For Cough, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

THE BEST COUGH SYRUP IN THE WORLD.—Dr. Rose's celebrated Cough Syrup gives immediate relief to the worst Cough, whether Consumptive or proceeding from a cold. It allays any irritation of the lungs, and fortifies the system against future attacks. In bottles at 50c. and $1.

Children are also liable to croup, which dangerous complaint yields immediately to Dr. J. Rose's never-failing Croup Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Whooping Cough, another complaint, always worse in cold and damp weather. The afflicted find great relief in the use of Dr. J. Rose's Whooping Cough Syrup, which always relieves, and prevents the disease from running into other diseases, such as Inflammation of the Lungs, Dropsy in the chest, and Consumption. Price 50 cents.

For all Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.

Dr. J. S. Rose's Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu. This is decidedly one of the best remedies ever used for diseases of the kidneys, bladder, &c., and also for gouty affections; always highly recommended by the late Dr. Physic, and many of the most distinguished medical men abroad. Price 50 cents.

☞ The above preparations can be found, with Dr. Rose's MEDICAL ADVISER to persons in sickness and in health, at the stores of B. Bannan, Agent for the County; John G. Brown, John S. C. Martin, Pottsville; J. W. Gibbs, Minersville; and E. J. Fry, Tamaqua.

The Farmer.

ORDERS received for all kinds of Fruit Trees, Grass Seeds, Agricultural Implements, Plants, &c., by B. BANNAN.

CHARRING POSTS—COAL TAR.

Charring posts, we observe by several writers, is not considered of much value.—G. W. Allen, chars them and then saturates them with coal tar, which he considers of great value to farmers. "For plows, harrows, sleds, wagons, ladders, posts, board fences, gates, &c., it is an excellent article combining convenience and durability with cheapness—costing about one dollar per barrel at gas manufactories.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING IT.—Provide yourself with a kettle or pot—put in the tar set it over a slow fire and boil it completely, the more the better, taking care that it does not take fire—after boiling provide yourself with a brush, (a whitewash brush with a short handle is the very thing,) apply the tar tolerably hot with the brush—when dry or nearly so, give it another coat. If the wood has been previously planed or made smooth, two or three applications will fill all the pores and form a beautiful glossy black, not unlike varnish. Don't be afraid of it grease your hands before you begin, and it will come off easily, and don't mind the smell, it will not last long, and if your extremely fastidious neighbors should have their olfactories somewhat excited by it, and complain, just "go ahead" with the consciousness that you are doing your duty in trying to preserve your labor, and from my own experience I have no doubt you will be rewarded."

HILLING CORN AND POTATOES.

The old practice of hilling up corn and potatoes, is discarded by the best cultivators. Still, there are some who yet cling to the old ways, that might be of benefit in a wet and humid climate, where a necessity exists, for raising the plants up out of a superabundant moisture. But, in a climate like ours, where long continued droughts parch up the earth, as they frequently do in many sections, the flat culture, with planting on or below the surface, is the better plan. Where the soil is well underdrained and subsoiled, potatoes planted below the surface, without any hilling, succeed the best; in such situations the superabundance of rain passes down through the earth, leaving its ammonia and other fertilizing properties for the benefit of the growing plants, while, in the dryest weather the roots of the plants search their food so deeply in the generous soil, that they keep in a vigorous condition.—Rural New Yorker.

☞ IS THE FIRST MILK POISON?—A friend informs us that Mr. H. H. Wymond of Sidney, lost a valuable sow not long ago, in consequence of giving her the first milk of a cow after calving, and asks if it invariably causes such trouble if hogs are fed on it? We believe that it does. We one year gave some such milk to a sow that was with pig. It made her sick and she cast her pigs before her time all of which were dead. We were told that such would be the result if we fed her with it, but were faithless. The next year we fed it to another under the same circumstances, and the result was the same—all the pigs being dead. We found this rather costly experimenting, and have never tried it again. Last spring one of our neighbors, who had a very fine sow, fed with a pretty generous portion of such milk—she immediately became sick and came near dying.—Maine Farmer.

☞ SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING.—A fact perhaps not generally known to farmers, and which is at this season, far too important, that there are two parts in the potato which if separated and planted at the same time, will produce potatoes fit for the table eight or ten days sooner than the other. The small end of the potato, which is generally full of eyes, is the part which produces the earliest; the middle of the body the late, and always large ones. This we learn from an exchange.

☞ FOOT ROT.—There has been so much said lately on the subject of foot rot in sheep, and as I have had it in my flock and have effected a cure by a very simple method, salt between the hoofs and rub them until they are quite chafed, and then put plenty of salt between the hoofs and the cure is [illegible]

☞ YOUATT says the horse will never drink hard water if he has access to soft; he will leave the most transparent water of a well for a river, although the water may be turbid, and even from the muddiest pool.

Scientific and Practical.

☞ HORSE RADDISH, if eaten too freely, is said to be very injurious. The American Agriculturist, "highly stimulating and exciting to the stomach, and the effect is almost always followed by lassitude and weakness. We have met with several cases where persons have ignorantly used this root so freely as to be scarcely able to labor at all. Where it is needed as a medicine, a small quantity of horse-raddish is doubtless beneficial; but we are quite sure from considerable observation of its effects upon ourselves and others, that any [illegible] using a spoonful or more at a meal, will suffer in consequence, although the cause of this suffering may not be perceived, since it produces a stimulating effect for the first hour or two after eating it."

☞ BLUE WASH FOR WALLS.—Take a pound of lump blue vitrol, pound it in a mortar as fine as possible, and dissolve in two quarts of rain water. Slack three quarts of lime, and when cold pour in the blue water by degrees, and you can make the wash of any tint you may desire. Stir with a metal spoon, and use not a wooden stirrer or earthen vessel, for mixing the vitrol water, and lime in, as wood affects the color injuriously. To cover smoke and other impurities, first apply a coat or two of common white-wash.

A yellow wash for walls is made by taking a quarter of a pound of chrome yellow, a quarter of a pound of gum senegal, and two pounds of gum whiting. These dissolved in pure rain water, and treated as above described for blue vitrol, will form an excellent yellow wash.

☞ TO CLEAN BRUSHES.—Put a tablespoonful of pearlash into a pint of boiling water. Having fastened a bit of sponge to the end of a stick, dip it into the solution, and wash the brush with it; carefully going in among the bristles. Next pour over it some clean hot water, and let it lie a little while. Then drain it, wipe it with a cloth and dry it before the fire.

☞ A VERY little and economical towel for sheets, pillow-cases, etc., may be made from the cuttings of bleached muslin by cutting one and a half-inch squares, and folding them bias, from corner to corner, then fold again, so as to form a point on the straight side on raw edge, and face on raw edge, and face on a strip to cover the seam.

☞ FLY POISON WITHOUT ARSENIC.—The following preparation is much used in Europe for the destruction of flies; Quassia eight parts; water, five hundred parts.—Boil the quassia and water ten minutes, strain and add the molasses. The preparation can easily be made by any one. They are attracted by this and soon killed.

☞ CUTTING SALAD.—The old fashion of pulling salad up by the roots when wanted for use, is a very foolish one. If cut with a knife the salad is equally good and the same plot may be "cropped," half-a-dozen times during the year.—Pottstown Ledger.

☞ WARTS.—It is said that the oil from the outside shell of walnuts or butternuts will cure warts by a few applications.
