PROFESSOR FOWLER'S PRIVATE LECTURES.—This afternoon at 3 o'clock, Professor O. S Fowler will deliver his lecture to ladies exclusively, at Musical Fund Hall; and at 7½ P. M., he will deliver his lecture to men, at the same place. These lectures are replete with information of the most invaluable character to both sexes, and should be largely attended.

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER ON THURSDAY EVENING.—Of the army of lecturers known to the community at large, the name at the head of this article occupies, by universal consent, the very first place in point of popularity. The mere announcement of his name has, within the last five years, never failed to secure an overflowing audience. His powers of eloquent speech are apparently unlimited, and hundreds, after hanging with rapturous delight upon his impassioned eloquence for an hour or more, become fairly enchanted with the speaker's flow of living thought, his wonderful imagery, and magic power of words.

We shall not be surprised to find Concert Hall filled to overflowing on Thursday evening, an hour before the lecture commences, unless the means of ingress should be purposely delayed by the committee. We again repeat, that, in all probability, the only way to make sure of hearing Mr. Beecher on this occasion, will be by securing a season ticket now.

LECTURE BY DAVID PAUL BROWN.—It will be seen by a correspondence published elsewhere in our columns, that David Paul Brown, Esq., has consented to deliver a lecture before the Philadelphia Literary Institute.

WALBORN'S AUTUMNAL DEBUT.—In passing the popular Gents' Furnishing Store of Messrs. R. C. Walborn & Co., Nos. 5 and 7 North Sixth street, yesterday, our attention was arrested by the magnificent display of Gentlemen's Dressing Gowns, for which this house is so justly celebrated. On entering, we learned that their fall campaign has now been fairly inaugurated, and, from appearances, if they do not move the richest kind of a swarth, from this time until the holidays, in everything pertaining to their branch of trade, then there is no virtue in superfine.

M. CZEE'S Ivorylypes, Water Colored, India Ink, Crayon, and plain Photographs are known to be unequalled. No. 135 Chestnut street.

REASONABLE AND SEASONABLE.—That he who deals only in Teas and Coffees, should have the best assortment, the purest qualities, and the lowest prices. For instance Love, Fourth and Chestnut.

THE International Stereoscopic Company have just received the most splendid assortment of pictures ever imported. A Stereoscope and dozen pictures $2.50. 18 South Eighth street

PROFESSOR ANN PRESTON will deliver the general introductory lecture before the Pennsylvania Female College of Medicine, at No. 637 Arch street, at half past three o'clock this afternoon. We understand that the lady lecturer is very eloquent, and we have no doubt the announcement of her purpose will attract a large audience.

HOUSEKEEPERS TAKE NOTICE.—A full and extensive stock of house-furnishing goods, comprising fine silver-plated ware, ivory-handled and ordinary cutlery, Britannia and block-tin ware, fine tea trays, plate warmers, toilet sets, and japanned ware generally, iron, wooden, tin and willow ware, together with all the new and useful inventions for housekeeping purposes, may be found at Messrs. E. S. Farson & Co.'s, southwest corner of Second and Dock streets

THE PROPHETIC ELOQUENCE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—As far back as 1845, Daniel Webster, in speaking of the rapid progress of events in the United States, said, prophetically, in the blaze of his rhetoric, "I look forward to the period when the people of the Pacific States will raise a standard for themselves as they ought to do; and when they inscribe upon its folds the sensible admonition to all men to go by their patronage to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, in Philadelphia."

PUBLIC CONVENIENCES.—In our "Quaker City" there are, besides any quantity of dwellings, stores, churches, and places of amusement, hotels, hospitals, prisons, &c.—some 400 miles of cobble pavements, over 500 miles of foot pavements nearly 6 000 gas and fluid lamps, some three or four dozen passenger railroads; and, quite as many, if not more, drinking "public hydrants"—besides the elegant new Tailoring Establishment of R. E. M. Estrada, No. 21 South Seventh street—of whom a cotemporary says: "In addition to a superb stock of choice goods, he has secured the services of John Hobson, the most skilful cutter in the United States." We would only add that "them's our sentiments."

INSURRECTIONARY MOVEMENTS.—The startling intelligence has been heralded over the world, that a handful of misguided men had seized the United States Arsenal, and other works at Harper's Ferry, Va., and now hold them vi et armis. By the time this report is spread over Europe, it will be exaggerated to read that—the red car of civil war has swept over the entire Union, leaving in its track ruin and desolation, and that the 'beautiful "Continental" Clothing House of E. H. Eldridge & Co., northeast corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets, had ceased to exist. We hope, however, that Providence will avert such a calamity.

COL. WOOD'S BURLESQUE CIRCUS.—Col. Wood announces his highly interesting performances at National Hall, which are to take place on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings of the present week. The astonishing feats of his dogs, monkeys, and goats are such as to attract large audiences.

A "STAR SPANGLED BANNER" YANKEE'S OPINION OF A PHILADELPHIA TAILOR.—I'm shock, brimin full, runnin over, and afeared of spilin! Words, spoken oral, epistolary, or otherwise don't kim within two rows of apple-trees of mestin the case. If I had the tongues of a jawsaps and war a tinkin symbol or a soundin brass kittle I couldn't dew it! My feelins is onexpressible to put finkin out. Sich a rush of idees. Bird of my country, moult me a quill—a quill did I say!—give us all yer got, even to yer tail feathers—strip yerself quick, and then kill me the British fun that I may use his blood for ink!—with which to write—hooray! for Granville Stokes, the celebrated American clothier, No. 607 Chestnut street. Brother Jonathan, we guess, got suited.

BARNEY.—On the 9th inst., in Swanton, Vt., at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Sarah A. Barney, (formerly Miss Burton, of Sussex county, Delaware,) wife of Elisha Barney, aged 20 years.

The deceased was a worthy member of the M. E. Church in this place. She was the victim of that fearfully distressing disease—consumption. She had been visiting her friends in Delaware, hoping that a change of climate and associations would be beneficial to her health. In company with her husband, she arrived in this village on Saturday eve before her death, and returned to tarry but a night. She had been visiting for months previous to her departure, in expectation of the event, and was not, therefore, surprised, as too many are, by the sudden coming of the Messenger. Besides, she was both ready and willing to die. As the hour approached, she was not only undismayed, but confident and rejoicing. She conversed freely of death and the future, and appeared calm and collected in the dying hour: "like one that trouble not himself save in a dream;" she had that a portion of Scripture be read, and prayer offered. She bade her weeping friends farewell, and said she would meet her in a far-off home, commended her spirit to that merciful Saviour in whom she had trusted, and immediately passed to her rest in Heaven.—Swanton (Vt.) Sentinel.

NICHOLLS.—On the 18th September, at Eagley House, Manchester, England, in his 87th year, John Ashton, only son of Benjamin Nicholls, Esq.

The premature death of Mr. Nicholls is a source of deep regret to his native city, being deprived so early of the services of one who promised to be eminently useful, and to have his name inscribed among those which have done it honor.
