NEW PUBLICATIONS.

FROM THE PRESS OF

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO.

I.

A NEW DICTIONARY OF QUOTATIONS

FROM THE

GREEK, LATIN, AND MODERN LANGUAGES.

Translated into English, and occasionally accompanied with illustrations,

HISTORICAL, POETICAL, AND ANECDOTICAL.

By the author of

"Live and Learn," "The Newspaper and General Reader's Pocket Companion," &c.,

WITH AN EXTENSIVE INDEX, REFERRING TO EVERY IMPORTANT WORD.

One vol., Crown 8vo, Muslin, Bevelled Boards, $1.50.

"On the score of utility it may be classed among the most excellent and convenient, not only to the general reader, but to the scholar, who, in active life, has suffered the classics to rust. And it may as well be confessed, that, in these busy days, many a man who passes for a scholar will find it much easier to verify a quotation in this convenient manual, than to search for it in the original. * * * The 'New Dictionary' will find a place in the hands of every reader of current literature. It is altogether worthy of the beautiful typographical dress which the publishers have given it."—North American.

"If, as we think, this is a book which has been wished for at times by nearly every body, the inference seems that nearly every body ought to buy it."—Gentleman's Magazine.

"The Dictionary of Quotations before us is copious in contents, neat in execution, and moderate in price. The index vastly enhances the merit and utility of the work, and gives it a paramount claim to general circulation."—London Morning Advertiser.

THE GLORY OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL: OR, THE HEBREWS' PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY CITY; presenting a picture of Judaism in the Century which preceded the Advent of our Saviour. By Frederick Strauss. One vol., 12mo. $1.25.

"It will prove a most acceptable publication to the lovers of Bible History, as well as to the general reader."—Pittsburg Gazette.

IN PRESS:

Will be published January 1st, 1860,

FOOTFALLS ON THE BOUNDARY OF ANOTHER WORLD. By Robert Dale Owen, formerly Member of Congress, and American Minister to Naples. 1 volume, 12mo. $1.25.

"This work is devoted to an inquiry whether occasional interferences from another world in this be reality or delusion. It treats of the phenomena of Sleep, Dreams, Somnambulism. It examines the alleged evidence for Presentiments, Second-sight, House-haunting, and Apparitions; referring, to the means approved modern works on Hallucination, Insanity, and the Nervous system. It inquires whether, when we set down the narratives of all ages (including our own) that touch on the marvels referred to as mere vulgar superstitions, we are overlooking any actual phenomena.

HENRY WARD BEECHER'S

SERMONS,

PUBLISHED WEEKLY IN

THE INDEPENDENT.

In addition to the interesting matter contained in every successive number of The Independent, the publishers have pleasure in announcing that the Sunday Morning Sermons of Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER will appear exclusively in its columns every week. They are the only reports given to the press, which receive revision from the Author's own hand. Among other special contributors are the following well-known writers:

MRS. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE,
Rev. GEO. B. CHEEVER, and JOHN G. WHITTIER.

TO EVERY VOTER

WHO AIMS AT RISING

FROM THE MEN

POLITICIAN TO THE STATESMAN.

D. APPLETON & CO.,

346 AND 348 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

Will Publish, on the First of January,

THE FIRST VOLUME OF A RE-ISSUE OF

BENTON'S ABRIDGMENT

OF THE

DEBATES OF CONGRESS

From 1789 to 1850.

One volume to be issued every month, and the work to be completed by March, 1861.

15 VOLUMES, $3 PER VOLUME CLOTH; $3 50 LAW.

The publication of this work was commenced just before the panic of 1857, and it is believed that numbers were prevented from subscribing at that time by reasons that do not now exist. Since the first volume appeared, now nearly three years ago, a new Congress has been elected, to every member of which it is a necessity; many young men have entered the arena of active life who may naturally desire to possess these volumes, which contain the most satisfactory political history of the United States, and the best Biographies of our Orators and great Statesmen. For the convenience of all, the Publishers have resolved on a RE-ISSUE, to the regularity of which there can be no interruption, as twelve volumes are completed, and the work will be finished by July 1860, when those who may prefer completing their sets, rather than wait for the regular issue, will have an opportunity of doing so.

[From the Philadelphia North American.]

In this work the PEOPLE will have, for the first time, an opportunity to become acquainted with the manner and spirit, in which public affairs were discussed in the early stages of the Government. This Abridgment, or "Annals," will be an invaluable part of the history of the country.

The re-issue will contain a memoir of the author. By subscription only.

THE PORTRAIT OF

HON. EDWARD EVERETT,

beautifully engraved on steel by D. J. Pound, will be published October 8th, and presented free to ships in the United States. Those portraits, all engraved on steel, in the finest style of the art, combining accuracy with such capacity of finish in engraving rarely attainable, except by the best and most practised artists—may be subscribed for as follows:

With the weekly numbers of the
ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WORLD,

A favorite family journal, replete with news and standard information for the fireside, profusely illustrated with fine wood engravings, and in connection with the

DRAWING PORTRAIT GALLERY,

The wonder of the age for cheapness and beauty.

Half-yearly—52 Papers, 52 Portraits and Memoirs $7 80
Half ..... 26 " 26 " 3 90
Quarterly ..... 13 " 13 " 2 00

Postpaid to any part of the United States.

Subscriptions may commence at any date, as back stock of all the portraits are constantly on hand.

To prevent injury in passing through the post, the Portraits may be sent separately, (not prepaid,) neatly packed, quarterly in advance; or a selection may be made from those already published, if preferred, for the whole year.

The postage on the weekly numbers, with or without the portrait, is always pre-paid by the publishers.

Proofs $1.25, and India proofs $2.50, on fine paper, of the portrait of Mr. Everett, or any of the portraits may also be had.

Now ready, the first and second series (40 Portraits and Memoirs in each, beautifully bound), THE DRAWING-ROOM PORTRAIT GALLERY. Price $5.50 each series.
