MEDICAL.

DR. MORSE'S Invigorating Cordial, A Phenomenon in Medicine.

HEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE LENGTHENED, BY DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR or CORDIAL.—At first the properties attributed to Prof. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial were deemed fabulous. The public, often deceived, could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer. But facts, undeniable facts, attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. Incredulity is overthrown by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistible.

The ELIXIR remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to full vigor every delicate function connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the reproduction of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy, which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex, or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, enervated youth, the over-worn man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have predisposition to paralysis, it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but

REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION.

The derangements of the system, leading to nervous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease itself, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, tic doloreaux, head-ache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, muscular debility, tremors, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, fainting after exercise, broken sleep and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, sinking at the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases, it is averred that will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of re-action, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralyzation of the nerve of motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixir Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated and shattered nervous system, whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness—the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revivified and built up. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish together under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary the relief is permanent—for the Cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition.

LOSS OF MEMORY.

Confusion, giddiness, rush of blood to the head, melancholy, debility, hysteria, wretchedness, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, dyspepsia, general prostration, irritability, nervousness, inability to sleep, diseases incident to females, decay of the propagating functions, hysteria, monomania, vague terrors, palpitation of the heart, impotency, constipation, etc., from whatever cause arising, it is, if there is any reliance to be placed on human testimony, absolutely infallible.

A GREAT MEDICINE FOR FEMALES.

The unparalleled effects of this great restorative, in all complaints incident to females, mark a new era in the annals of medicine. Thousands of stimulants have been invented—thousands of invigorants concocted—all purporting to be specifics in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate formation of woman renders her liable.

EVERY WOMAN OF SENSE, who suffers from weakness, derangement, nervousness, tremors, pains in the back, or any other disorder, whether peculiar to her sex, or common to both sexes—to give the Invigorating Cordial a trial.

MARRIED PERSONS,

Or others, will find this Cordial after they have used a bottle or two, a thorough regenerator of the system. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offspring, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for the many diseases for which it is recommended. Thousands of young men have been restored by using it, and not in a single instance has it failed to benefit them.

PERSONS OF PALE COMPLEXION, or consumptive habits, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and vigor, changing the skin from a pale, yellow, sickly color, to a beautiful florid complexion.

TO THE MISGUIDED.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, etc.

Mentally, the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, etc., are some of the evils produced. All thus afflicted should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness; indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage—the prospect hourly darkens the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

CAUTION.

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial has been counterfeited by some unprincipled persons.

In future, all the genuine Cordial will have the proprietor's fac-simile pasted over the cork of each bottle, and the following words blown in the glass:

Astonishing Results! PRODUCED by using B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, which can always be depended on, as it never fails to rid the system of worms.

MONTREAL, Canada, March 18, 1850.

Messrs. B. A. Fahnestock & Co.—Gentlemen: My little girl, eight years of age, was for a considerable time suffering from worms. I purchased one bottle of your Vermifuge, which I gave according to directions, and to my great astonishment she passed one hundred and twenty-one worms, varying from eight to sixteen inches in length, besides Pinworms. Having experienced the good effects of this medicine, I administered it again to my boy, five years old, with the same happy effect, passing forty-eight worms, of various sizes. I feel it a duty to recommend this Vermifuge, and to make the cases of my children known to the public. Your ob't. servant, JOHN MORAN, Alexander st.

A REMARKABLE HIGHWAY ROBBERY IN WASHINGTON.—Yesterday afternoon, an hour after we went to press, as Miss McNeill, the daughter of the late General John McNeill, of Boston, and the niece of President Pierce, was walking on Third street, very near the corner of C street, with a porte monnaie in her hand, she received a heavy blow on the breast from a ruffian, who instantly afterwards jerked the porte monnaie from her hand, and rushed off through the alley opposite to which the robbery took place. As soon as the young lady recovered her breath, she started in pursuit of the villain, crying out that he had assaulted and robbed her. The alley being unfrequented for the most part, the scoundrel managed to make his escape, turning down at the intersection with the alley which runs from Pa. avenue at the corner of the Globe office to C street. The last the lady saw of him, he was running at the top of his speed near the old depot on Pa. avenue, just as she herself reached the avenue at the Globe office corner, too much exhausted to continue the pursuit. The porte monnaie thus stolen contained $30 in gold, a ring worth perhaps $100, though being a memento of her father to the young lady, and certificates for some $2,000 worth of stocks. Miss McNeill proceeded, as soon as she could call a carriage, to the City Hall, and instantly put in motion the police, which happened to be there at the time.

The consequence was that officers Stanley and Allen arrested at the car office an individual, apparently, answering the lady's description of the foot-pad. Officers Barnacle and Martin also made another arrest at the same place. Both the individuals taken into custody were taken into the lady's presence by the officers, but neither proved to be the man. Every possible exertion is yet being made for the capture of the scoundrel, who so far has successfully eluded the officers of justice.

A WORD TO PARENTS.—It seems a hard and cruel thing—and it is a hard and cruel thing—to make the affections of a child its means of punishment for slight juvenile offences. A friend relates the following occurrence as evidence in point:

A little girl, who, although an affectionate little creature as ever lived, was very volatile and light-hearted, and could not always remember to mind her mother. At the close of a day in the early part of the present winter, she had, in some trifling manner, disobeyed her mother—going into the street to play with one of her little companions; when she came in, and was prepared to go to bed, she came to her mother for her nightly kiss.

"I cannot kiss you to-night, Mary," said the mother, "you have been a very naughty little girl, and have disobeyed me. I cannot kiss you tonight."

The little girl, her face streaming with tears, again begged her mother to kiss her, but she was a "strong minded woman," and was inexorable.

It was a sad lesson that she learned; for on that very night that child died of the croup. She had asked her mother, the last thing as she went up to her little bed, if she would kiss her in the morning; but in the morning her innocent lips were cold.

A REMARKABLE BOY.—As the train was about to leave for Lockport this morning, a boy was discovered under the platform of one of the cars hanging to the brake-rod. He was taken out and gave the following account of himself and his adventures. His name is John King; his age fourteen years; he is a native of Galway, Ireland. He concealed himself on board a ship in that port, and secured a passage to New York without means. At New York he secreted himself under the platform of a car on the Hudson River Railroad, and came to Albany. At Albany he met a gentleman, who took so much interest in his case as to pay his fare to Syracuse. At the latter place he again concealed himself under a car, and came to this city. He says he is going to the Suspension Bridge, and that he has an uncle at work at the "Devil's Hole," near that place. He was taken to Col. Thompson, overseer of the county poor, who gave him the means of traveling safely to Niagara Falls. Depend upon it, that boy will make his way through the world on his own hook.—Rochester Union.

A SCENE IN A RAILROAD CAR.—A Cincinnati paper vouches for the following:

"While the train of cars was at Cleveland depot, heading for Columbus, a lady bearing an infant child in her arms, (apparently five or six weeks old,) entered one of the passenger cars, and going to a young lady of some 16 or 18 years, very politely inquired if she would do her the favor to hold her babe until she could step out and see to the disposal of her baggage. The young lady generously complied, and received the infant in her arms. The mother left the cars, and has not been seen or heard of since. The young lady also fell heir to a carpet sack, which had been placed under her charge by the inhuman mother; in which was found a note containing a request that the child should be treated with kindness, in which case it might be come a distinguished man. Several offers to take the child were made to the young lady, but she refused to give it up to any but its lawful and natural mother."

A merchant ... this city suddenly entered his counting house ... other day, and found one of his clerks ... a large book in the air, with the end resting on his chin. ... "Why ... you at work, John?" ... quired. ... sir." ... "on ... at what work?" ... the Badger, sir."
