In the Cincinnati Enquirer, of the 15th inst., we find the following:

Last Saturday Officer Reazer, one of the detective police, was approached by a lady addressee, and assist in surveying a mystery connected with the appearance in that place of some of the recent dangerous counterfeit Free on the Commonwealth Bank of Philadelphia. When he arrived, however, an old man named Robert Lowe, had been placed under arrest. Three of the spurious bills had been traced to him, and three more were found in a valise which he threw away when taken into custody. In his house a number of letters were found, which will be of great service to the police; and near hard on the old man when he comes to trial. He was committed to the Hamilton jail, in default of a bond of $500 for his appearance at the Butler County Court of Common Pleas.

Beware of the counterfeits! we learn that between three and four hundred dollars of it has been taken by the Wheeling banks.

Philadelphia Markets.

MAY 16—EVENING.

The market for Flour continues dull, and holders are the sellers at $5 87 bbl. for standard superfine, but there is no demand for export, and the sales are only to supply the wants of the trade; fifteen hundred barrels are sold at $5 62½ for extra, $5 87½ @ $6 for extra family, and $7 @7 50 bbl. for fancy brands, as in quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are very quiet, the former being offered at $4 12½ @ $4 25, and the latter at $3 62½ bbl., without finding buyers.

GRAIN.—There is very little demand, and the market is very dull to-day, a few small lots only having been disposed of at $1 31 @ $1 35 for good, $1 40 for very choice red, and $1 45 @ $1 50 for white under arrest. Three of the spurious bills had been traced to him, and three more were found in a valise which he threw away when taken into custody. In his house a number of letters were found, which will be of great service to the police; and near hard on the old man when he comes to trial. He was committed to the Hamilton jail, in default of a bond of $500 for his appearance at the Butler County Court of Common Pleas.
