DR. R. A. WILSON'S Tonic, Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic PILLS.
WILSON'S PILLS have had a mere local existence for over twenty years, unsupported by advertising of any kind, and held at double the price of what they are now sold at, yet with all these disadvantages wherever used, they have in no instance failed to render the utmost satisfaction in performing all the requirements of a valuable family medicine, and as such are recommended by some of the most worthy and respectable citizens of the land. Hear for instance what Col. William Hopkins of Washington, Pa., says—
From Col. Wm. Hopkins, late Canal Commissioner of the State. WASHINGTON, January 4, 1858.
Dr. R. A. WILSON, Pittsburgh, Pa.—I have been using your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, when occasion required, for many years, and can truthfully say that I have never found any medicine equal to them in relieving me from affections of the stomach, and that they have never failed to relieve me from headache, and have always left my system in better condition than they found it. I must confidently commend your Pills as a safe and highly valuable medicine. Yours, respectfully, WM. HOPKINS.
Hear Dr. Keyser.
MESSRS. B. L. FAHNESTOCK & Co.—I have had considerable experience in the use of the extraordinary Pill compounded by Dr. R. Adams Wilson, of which you are now the proprietors, and have often felt their benign influence in my own case for Nervous Headache, arising from a disordered condition of the stomach. I have likewise prescribed them for others in cases of Acidity and other forms of headache depending on a deranged and irritable condition of the stomach and digestive organs, for which they seem peculiarly adapted, being entirely free from any griping tendency. I regard them as a very valuable pill. Yours, truly, GEO. H. KEYSER.

Political Items.

The Richmond Enquirer declares that the claims of the South to Federal protection for slave property in the Territories will never be abandoned. "The Southern States call upon their Northern brethren to carry out the agreement of 1856. As the Supreme Court has decided that the duty of guarding and protecting the owner of his rights, exists in all the Territories, the National Democracy, in order to quiet forever the agitation of the slavery question, should embody the principle of protection in this platform, and the party be united in principle as well as organization." * * * "The only platform that can make the Democracy again a national party is one that fully, unequivocally, and unambiguously recognizes the right of protection, and the duty of all the Departments of the Government to afford it. * * "We have great hopes," concludes the Enquirer, "that the Baltimore Convention will, in a spirit of fairness and justice, give the Southern States a platform that will preserve those States to the Democracy, and not one that must hand them over to the [illegible] Constitution."

Postmasters are required by law to make their returns and settle their accounts every three months. If the late New York postmaster refused or neglected to obey this law from the time he commenced his peculation, why was he not turned out of office many years ago? If, on the other hand, he obeyed it, what but the most criminal negligence or inattention can possibly have prevented his peculations being known to their fullest extent many years ago at Washington. Is not the Administration clearly chargeable with guilt in this matter? And yet where is the Democratic organ in any section, that has the virtue to hold the Administration to a just responsibility?

One question more—what public officer in the country can possibly feel his lawless thirst of greed restrained in the slightest degree by any fear of his official masters or by any respect for them when he holds such revelations of their own long-continued, systematic, and atrocious villanies as the Covode investigations are exposing daily to the sickened light of heaven?—Louis. Jour.

Let Them Try It!—The Democratic prints say that in the coming canvass the Democrats mean to concentrate their efforts on the State of New York, "where there will be a strong Seward disaffection." But to this the Albany Evening Journal replies with equal spirit and truth:

"If Mr. Seward was not in favor at Chicago his principles were. And, even by his most devoted personal and political friends, his principles are more revered than the man. Let the Democracy, if they please, concentrate all their power upon New York. Mr. Seward's friends would be happy to have their patriotism brought to such a test. The greater the pressure the greater their power; and if it shall be but understood that their metal is to be tried in the way indicated, the Republicans of the Union will see such a battle as has never been fought upon this continent."

Importing Voters from Canada.—In the Michigan contested seat in Congress of Howard vs. Cooper, the frauds shown in this case, though not so numerous or extensive as those in the others, were quite as shameless and outrageous as those which have been exposed in the [illegible] investigation. [illegible] voters were imported [illegible] from Canada [illegible]. Talk about British gold! How do Americans like to be ruled by British voters in the employ of the slave power?

A Very Serious Charge.—Senators Hunter, Slidell, Johnson and others, in an address to their Democratic brethren, charge the Charleston Convention with deliberately rejecting the majority report of the committee on resolutions "with the openly avowed purpose of enabling the Democratic party to wage battle, with any chance of success, in certain Northern and Western States by presenting to the people [illegible] doctrines, principles openly and expressly repudiated by a majority of the Democratic States, [illegible] delegations, and by [illegible] a majority of the Democratic electoral vote of the Union."

Latest.—It is said that Postmaster Fowler is still in New York in concealment, and that the U. S. Marshal will not arrest him, because an investigation of his case would disclose some more ugly matters, in which other dignitaries of the Government are involved. It is probable that in a little while the people of this country will be convinced that Democracy is a beautiful invention, and that the more they see of it, the more magnificent it appears.—[illegible] Ohio [illegible].

Notwithstanding all the [illegible] intercourse, &c., we gather from an article in the New Orleans Picayune that Southern trade is yet likely for a long time to flow into Northern channels. In the item of shoes alone, Boston has exported more to the Southern States within the last three months than during a corresponding period in the past year. Let radicals clamor as they like, [illegible] endeavors to place a Northern man in the Presidential chair.—Ky. Times.

The Democratic Keystone.—Mr. Hunter, of Virginia, in the Senate of the United States a few days since, said:

"The very Keystone that sustains the arch of our national government, consists in the black marble cap of African slavery. Knock that out, and the mighty fabric, with all its supporting pillars [illegible] to the ground!"

This is the latest democratic discovery—we have to record it! A "nigger" the Keystone of the arch of American Liberty! Knock the "nigger" out of the arch, and our government is gone!—Oregonian.

The First Act of Lincoln's Administration.—When the news of his nomination first reached Springfield, Mr. Lincoln's friends rushed to his house, and asked him how many guns they should fire, whether one hundred or one for each State. "Well," said he "I must begin my administration on the principle of retrenchment and economy. You had better fire but one gun for each State."

It is stated that Mr. Lincoln's ancestors had a hand in taking off the head of Charles I., and fled to Hingham, Mass., whence they emigrated to Pennsylvania, and that one of the family received the sword of Cornwallis at the defeat at Yorktown. If these things be so, they are curious reminiscences.—Balt. Patriot.

The New Jersey Opposition Press a Unit.—The papers in this State who supported Fillmore and Donaldson in 1856, we believe, without exception, now support Lincoln. This indicates the result. The Opposition will be united, harmonious, enthusiastic and successful.—Newark Mercury.

Mr. Everett is in the fog. He doesn't know whether it is or is not best for him to accept the Vice Presidency with Bell, and desires advice. The old gentleman better leave the question with the people. They have an effective way of solving political doubts.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

Mr. Craig of Missouri lost his nomination for Congress owing to the zealous part he took for Mr. Douglas. It is believed the same cause will operate injuriously on Mr. Clingman's re-election to the Senate.

LINCOLN green has suddenly become the fashionable color in New York, since the Chicago nominations; [illegible]

Our cause never flourished better in Warren than now. [illegible] for Lincoln and all the Democrats [illegible] for Seward.—Warren (Pa.) Mail.

It is a significant fact that Lincoln and Hamlin have each polled the highest votes ever polled in their respective States. [illegible]

CAPTIVITY AMONG THE CAMANCHES—Return after thirteen years' absence.—The St. Joseph Journal of the 16 states that Mr. George [illegible] baker, a citizen of Lancaster county, Pa., reached that city yesterday, on his way home. He was captured by a band of Camanches while on his way to California, in 1847, thirteen years ago, and has just escaped from them. There were but three of the party captured alive, George Richardson, of Schuylkill, and Peter [illegible], of Dauphin county, Pa.,—both of whom were afterwards burnt at the stake, for attempting to escape from the savages.

After becoming acquainted with the language and habits of the Indians, he was made medicine man, and in that capacity did a great deal of good among them, and has succeeded in converting over two hundred to the Christian religion. It was only after the most solemn promise that he would return that they allowed him to depart, and he will go back as soon as he has greeted his family, who have mourned him for years as dead.
