The Fifth Street Fire—Full Investigation Before the Mayor—The Prisoners Discharged.

Yesterday morning at ten o'clock a hearing was had before Mayor McCarthy in the case of Messrs. J. H. Van Pelt and J. A. Pyle, arrested on suspicion of setting fire to the photograph gallery of the former, situated in the fourth story of the Brewer building, on the corner of Fifth and Market streets. District Attorney [illegible] appeared for the prosecution, and Thos. B. Hamilton, Esq., for the defense. The first witness sworn was officer David Campbell:

Was at the Custom house steps this morning about twenty minutes of two o'clock. Heard an alarm of fire at the foot of Fifth street and ran down in the direction of Market street; saw smoke issuing from the fourth story window of the Brewer Block. Went up into the building and found the fire in a photograph gallery in the fourth story. When I entered saw Kavanaugh, Trauble and John Newell trying to extinguish the fire. [illegible]

[illegible]

Patrick Kavanagh [illegible]

[illegible]

This closed the evidence for the defense, which his Honor discharged both the defendants, stating that there was not the least shadow of evidence against them.

In justice to the parties, we append the following statement of the matter as given by Mr. Van Pelt: I had been reading the evening with Mr. [illegible] at the [illegible] Minstrels. I retired to my room about [illegible] past eleven o'clock. Mr. Pyle and I occupy the same bed. The first knowledge I had of the fire I was awakened with the sound as of something burning. I succeeded in awaking Mr. Pyle, asked him if he did not smell something burning. [illegible] to see what it was. He did so, and proceeded toward the operating room. I began to dress myself. In a few minutes Mr. Pyle returned and said the building was on fire, and that the flames [illegible] through the floor of the operating room, and immediately to the operating room. I believed that the fourth story was on fire, and not suspecting that the flames had originated in the operating room, told Mr. Pyle to assist me in taking out personal effects to the bath room, so that we could throw them from the window into Market street. Before doing so, however, I put my head out of the window and shouted fire twice. Heard the alarm become general and heard men in the building. Supposed that they were firemen; went to among them once and threw a bucket of silver water on the [illegible] from the third to the fourth story, was astonished and embarrassed to be arrested, and told the police that I was the proprietor of the establishment, and that I was perfectly willing to accompany them, as I [illegible] charges on reaching the Mayor's office.

The result of the investigation showed conclusively that there was not the slightest shadow of cause for the arrest of Mr. Van Pelt, who, from our own personal knowledge, is a gentleman in the fullest acceptation of the term, having a reputation in the community for integrity and honor that was fully placed above suspicion. The cause assigned for the perpetration of the act was to receive a policy of $3,000, while several disinterested witnesses testified that his stock alone was worth $2,000 more than that sum, and he would therefore be a loser to that amount. As to the statement of Mr. Van Pelt being concealed in a room, there is not the shadow of evidence to justify such allegation, which the mere circumstance of his being between this rear room and [illegible] means of exit conclusively proves. [illegible] fault to find with the police in arresting [illegible] Van Pelt, but we sincerely trust [illegible] officers will be very careful [illegible] respectable citizens with such [illegible] unless in cases where [illegible]. It is a very easy [illegible] or the defendant is [illegible] to paint things in the [illegible] light, and thereby jeopardize the happiness of an entire family [illegible] would be more fully [illegible] of certain parties that [illegible] is innocent until he [illegible] should be treated with [illegible] fully accused and not [illegible] prompt dispatch [illegible] case, showed [illegible] by no other motive [illegible] the ends of justice.

Gold, Silver and Coupons bought at highest rates, and Gold Drafts issued on New York.

FINANCE AND TRADE

WEDNESDAY, July 11, 1866.

Gold opened in New York to-day at [illegible] and closed dull at 149. The market is light and there is no speculative movement. The only reason ascribed for the present quotations being maintained, is the demand of foreign bankers to draw at sight for nothing less than gold shipping rates, and parties who wish to use their money at once. [illegible]

Government bonds are firm but without notable change. [illegible]

As will be seen by advertisement, the Columbia Oil Co. announces a dividend of four per cent.

The Boston Advertiser refers as follows to the recent action of the Associated Banks of that city, in modifying a previous vote, with regard to the notes of State Bank bills, which were not to be received on deposit after July 1: "The consequence of the first action was to create considerable disturbance in the public mind, and a general distrust [illegible] of all the State Bank issues. [illegible] The National Bank [illegible] at Boston will continue to receive on [illegible] the old State Currency, [illegible] placing the whole matter [illegible] originally stood."

—The causes of the failure of Overend, Gurney & Co. are becoming clear. It is a very [illegible] business. The old firm, when sold, [illegible] insolvent at the time; the new company trusted that [illegible] over five or six millions [illegible] had done themselves. [illegible]

[illegible]

The New York Times of to-day says:

[illegible]

New York Stock and Money Market

NEW YORK, July 11.—There is a fair demand for money, but it is generally supplied at [illegible]. [illegible] the close, on the report that the Senate had resolved to postpone any action on the tariff. The market for exchange [illegible]. Government securities were firm this afternoon, with a fair demand following. Closing prices: 5-20 Coupons, 1862, [illegible]; Coupons [illegible], July, 7-30s, [illegible].

The stock market was generally firm at the last open board. Erie continues to be the great feature of the market and fluctuates widely, there have been some heavy short contracts covered yesterday and to-day.

Latest—Erie, 74½. Petroleum stocks, Benninger Run, [illegible], Pithole Creek, [illegible], United States, [illegible], First National, [illegible], Gold [illegible].

The Commercial's money article says: The stock market shows vigorous recovery from the slight reaction of yesterday. Transactions at the morning board were unusually large, and prices range higher throughout the list. The activity in Governments continues. The Government is at present a large operator in securities, and the present excitement and advance in prices, is chiefly owing to its transactions. The passage of the tariff bill in the House, with such a large majority, has revived confidence in the gold room that the bill will become a law. There has consequently been an enlarged demand from speculators, with a view to holding gold off the market so as to squeeze the importers. Money is in rather more demand, and some lenders are holding for six per cent on call loans. The general rate, however, is 5 per cent. Discounts are a shade firmer but quiet, prime names ranging at [illegible] per cent.

The Post's money article says there is no supply of gold for delivery, and loans of coin are made either without interest, or at [illegible] per cent in favor of the borrower. The foreign demand for United States securities is [illegible] state of general interest as stock exchange. The inquiry from investors [illegible], there is much activity in the loan market of railroad shares. Erie is the chief favorite and has risen to 76.

The following were the sales at the 1 o'clock open board to-day: Western Union Telegraph, [illegible]; Hudson River, 111½; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, 77¼; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 85; Marietta and Cincinnati, [illegible]; Cleveland and Toledo, 110; Chicago and North Western, [illegible]; Gold closed at 149⅞.

Ironton Iron Market.

IRONTON, OHIO, July [illegible]. There is nothing new regarding prices. A firmness [illegible] every branch of the trade. Transactions in pig have been scarce. We note sales of 300 tons No. 1, delivered here, at [illegible]. Quotations still rest at [illegible] for No. 1 and [illegible] for No. 2 mill. There is not the least apprehension of a fall below these figures. The signs of a better demand are brightening. Rates abroad are steady, strengthening.

In the year 1865, the production of pig iron in this county amounted to 20,570 tons, against [illegible] in the year before.

The Old Rolling Mill, Scott, Campbell & Co., is undergoing important repairs, so that full operations will be delayed about six weeks. Some parts of the mill, however, will be running in a couple of weeks. The rollers are being provided with new foundations, and the building itself will be considerably improved.

The tariff question is now agitating Congress, and a hard fight will be on the proposed increase of iron duties. The bill was before the Committee of the Whole a few days since, when Mr. Bundy succeeded in getting the tariff on pig iron raised from $9 to $10. Whether the bill, with the section favorable to the interests of this locality, will finally pass the House, is a question that cannot be definitely answered. The western men have a bear in [illegible] cover, when they are prone to make believe is a terrible monster, so that their fright makes them impervious to reason. Nothing but the passage and enforcement of the measure will disabuse their minds.—Register.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The following are the receipts and shipments of beef cattle for the current week, according to the returns of the board of trade, and for the corresponding period of last week:

	Receipts.	Shipments.
Monday	703	1,279
Tuesday	24	166
Total this week	727	1,445
Same time last week	395	1,688

The fresh receipts of Beef Cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 20 cars. Entered sales 612 head at prices ranging from $5@5.50 for common light cows, [illegible] for medium butchers' stock, and from $7@7.50 for fair to good shipping stock stock. The market is dull and inactive at a reduction of from 25@50c per 100 lbs on last week's closing prices. The stock offered is of a light class, and not calculated to bring good prices; the greater proportion consists of half-fed cows and steers, and such stock only tends to fill the yards and reduce prices. There are very few choice steers in the yards, and for such fair prices are obtained off the cars. City butchers and speculators are the principle operators. The market is weak at the close—at the decline above noticed, shippers are not disposed to operate, on account of the depressing advices from New York.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, July 11.—Flour declined 25c. Wheat steady, at $1.90@1.91 for No. 1. Corn firm, at 58c. Oats quiet, at 36c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 11, 1866.

The operations in the produce market continue very much restricted, and it does not seem probable at present that there will be any immediate improvement. The demand for the leading articles is restricted almost entirely to supplying immediate wants, while prices generally are nominal.

GROCERIES—[illegible]

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a fair jobbing demand, but no change. [illegible]

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull but unchanged at $2.25 for No. 1 Spring. Oats a shade firmer, and a little more active. [illegible]

FLOUR—[illegible]

FISH—White Fish scarce and higher. [illegible]

MILL FEED—[illegible]

POTATOES—New Potatoes, under the influence of large receipts, have still further declined, and we now quote at $1.75@1.85 per bbl. Old crop about exhausted, [illegible]

DRIED FRUIT—[illegible] Peaches at 20, and 3 bbls prime halves at [illegible]. Apples selling at 12@13c.

CHEESE—Is steady with sales at 14c for Western Reserve, and 15@16c for Goshen.

EGGS—Unchanged. Sales of fresh packed at [illegible].

BUTTER—There is considerable inquiry for packed Butter on speculation, and we can report sales at 20, 21@22c, as to quality.

SEEDS—We can report sales of Flaxseed at $2, and there is a good demand with but very little offering.

SORGHUM—[illegible]

OIL—No. 1 Lard is quoted at $1.30@1.35.

HOMINY—Sales at [illegible].

PIG LEAD—[illegible]

CUCUMBERS—[illegible]

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 11, 1866.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was to-day, the demand apparently being less active than on Tuesday, at prices remaining unchanged. [illegible]

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding at this point, the pier marks indicating but three feet last evening. The weather continues cloudy and warm, with indications of more rain.

The Forest City, from Parkersburg, is the only arrival we have to report. The Nashville [illegible]. The Kate Putnam, which boat has been hard up somewhere between here and Wheeling for some days past in consequence of low water, will doubtless be able to get down now that there is a little rise.

The Nora left for Cincinnati last evening, with all the freight she could take at this water, and a fair number of passengers. The Forest City cleared for Parkersburg, as did the Gallatin and Elector for Brownsville.

The Columbia, Capt. Porter, was positively to leave for St. Louis yesterday afternoon, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind. The clerk, Mr. Rasse, will be found at his post ready to wait on those having business with the boat.

We clip the following items from our Cincinnati exchanges of Tuesday:

The Euclid, a boat owned in Pittsburgh, has been chartered by the Government to take a load to Fort Benton, Upper Missouri. [illegible]

ENGINEERS CONVENTION TO-DAY.—We learn that an engineers convention is to be held in this city to-day, under the auspices of the Engineers' Association of this city. Delegates from all the river cities and towns from Moscow to Pittsburgh are expected to be in attendance, as matters of vital interest to the engineers on our western waters are to be considered. The [illegible] Congress relative to engineers is one of the chief subjects of complaint. [illegible] laws are both injurious and unjust, no matter to whom applied, and we hope our friends of the engineers will be enabled to correct the evils complained of. [illegible]
