HARRIS' BOUDOIR SEWING MACHINE is offered to the public as the most reliable low-priced Sewing Machine in use. It will sew from six to thirty stitches to an inch, on all kinds of goods, from coarsest bagging to the finest cambrics. FARMERS! FARMERS!! FARMERS!!!
SUPERIOR TO ALL!
CHEMICAL PULVERIZED BONES.

The article of BONES is so well known to all farmers, and all its merits so generally acknowledged, that it is not at all surprising to find the CHEMICAL PULVERIZED BONES, manufactured by Messrs. TIERS & CO., fast superseding all other fertilizers. By their successful discovery and preparation, the prior objection against the article has been removed, (viz: its slow results.) Farmers and others now get a Manure which they can understand. It always pays; always reliable. It will at once enrich the soil, push forward the crops, and at the same time be LASTING.

TIERS & CO'S
SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

This deservedly popular Fertilizer is prepared by Messrs. TIERS & Co., at their Carbon Works, and is pronounced "Superior to all." For Lime Stone Land, it is invaluable. Its effect upon the land and crops is quick and lasting—with all the benefits arising from Guano, it has none of its exhausting effects. It is used in about the same quantities and for the same purposes, as the Chemical Pulverized Bones.

These popular Fertilizers are put up in bags and barrels, convenient for handling. Every attention paid to farmers and others wishing information. The latest papers and pamphlets always to be found at our office. Goods delivered free of expense to any part of the city or railroad depots.

IMPERIAL EMBELLISHMENTS.
MIDSUMMER-NIGHT'S DREAM.

This splendid $20 (4 Guineas) London print, beautifully re-engraved by Sartain, embellishes
THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.
FOR FEBRUARY, 1859
Two match prints. Scott and his friends, Shakspeare and his Contemporaries—28 portraits—adorn the January number.

Portraits of two Empresses—Eugenie of France in Imperial Robes, and Maria Theresa of Austria—embellish the March No. Other splendid plates will follow.

THE APRIL NUMBER IS OUT, WITH
1. A Portrait of Louis Napoleon III.
2. A Portrait of Napoleon I.
3. A Portrait of Pope Pius VII signing the Concordat.

THE ECLECTIC invites all lovers of choice reading to its sumptuous pages, which contain—

1. The best articles—cream gathered from 7 British Quarterlies and 9 Monthlies—like cream from 16 pans of rich milk gathered into one for the literary appetite of the reader and his family.

2. THE ECLECTIC is the best, richest in intellectual wealth, most varied, most free from moral poison, and most satisfactory monthly published.

3. Its portrait and artistic embellishments surpass all others; They are an attractive gallery of fine arts, refining in influence.

4. THE ECLECTIC is the cheapest, in view of the treasures it contains. Its reading matter is nearly equal in a year to three entire British Quarterlies, which cost $7. THE ECLECTIC is only $5. Its embellishments alone are worth that money.

5. It is the easiest and cheapest way of getting a choice library of current literature, good for all time.

6. No family—no father for his sons and daughters—no young lady, no young gentleman, can spend this small sum so well in any way for mental improvement and gratification. Try it. You will find it true. Feed the mind with food worthy of its wants and destiny.

7. An intelligent press, far and near, and eminent men, commend THE ECLECTIC in strong and emphatic language.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS!
TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
Paying in advance, the January number, 1859, will be sent, embellished with two splendid match-prints—Sir Walter Scott and his Friends, and Shakspeare and his Cotemporaries, containing twenty-eight portraits—surpassing all precedent.

The May number will be splendidly embellished.

TERMS:
THE ECLECTIC is issued on the first of every month. Each number contains one hundred and forty-four large octavo pages, double columns, on fine paper neatly stitched in green covers, with one or more beautiful Steel Portraits by Sartain. The twelve numbers comprise three volumes of 600 pages each, with titles, indexes, and embellishments. Price FIVE DOLLARS. The postage is only three cents a number, prepaid at the office of delivery.

A REMARKABLE BOOK!
A MATRIMONIAL BROKERAGE IN THE METROPOLIS. A strange and startling record of FACTS recently brought to light by a reporter of the New York press, with a sketch of the recent movements of the celebrated with six graphic illustrations. Price $1.
MRS CUNNINGHAM,

See important affidavits in the Evening Post of the 2d of March, substantiating the truth of the narratives.

CAUTION.—Some unprincipled person in Philadelphia has attempted to impose on the public with a spurious and very imperfect edition, in paper covers.

We hold the copyright on the only authorized edition, and shall rigidly prosecute any infringement thereof.

PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE:
A DESCRIPTION OF
Its Inhabitants, Customs, Mines, Minerals, Early History, Modern Fillibusterism, Proposed Inter-Oceanic Canal, and Manifest destiny.
By PETER F. STOUT, Esq.,
Late United States Vice-Consul.

As Vice-Consul Mr. Stout had unusual facilities for becoming acquainted with the productions of the country, the character of its people, and the political affairs of this and adjoining States. He saw most of the leaders of the Central American forces, and gives a history of the Fillibusters, with a graphic but truthful and impartial pen. His book will serve to throw much light on the great Central American problem now occupying the attention of statesmen and others in our country.

INFANT SALVATION AND BAPTISM.
JUST PUBLISHED,
INFANT SALVATION, IN ITS RELATION TO INFANT DEPRAVITY, INFANT REGENERATION, AND INFANT BAPTISM. By J. H. A. Bomberger, D. D., Pastor of the Race-street Evangelical Reformed Church, Philadelphia. In one vol. 12mo. Cloth. Price 50 cents.

"This work, which has just come from the press, is one of the latest and best contributions towards a clear, satisfactory and scriptural solution of the vitally important and pre-eminently practical questions of which it treats. The subjects which it discusses have a deep interest for all Christians, for it surely must be interesting for them to know the entire reach and scope of the plan of salvation in which they believe. But, in addition to this general interest the book possesses a special importance for all Christian parents, especially for all such who have lost infant children by death."—Northampton County Journal.
