SPECIAL NOTICES.

LAST WEEK.—Professor O. S. Fowler remains in Philadelphia this week only, having arranged to commence a Course of Lectures in West Chester, on MONDAY EVENING next, and as he is usually crowded the last days of his stay, let those who would avail themselves of his life-long experience call immediately at 922 CHESTNUT Street. You will likely never have another opportunity. Prof. FOWLER, by special request, will LECTURE THIS EVENING at WEST PHILADELPHIA HALL, corner of PARK and MARKET Streets.

THE VITAL PRINCIPLE is restored to decayed hair, and a healthy tone given to the scalp, by the use of JULES HAUEL'S EAU ATHENIENNE HAIR RESTORER, thus preventing baldness, where it exists through age or sickness; it renews its growth, restoring gray hairs and whiskers to the soft, glossy, original color of life. It is not a dye. Sold by all Druggists, and by JULES HAUEL & CO., No. 704 CHESTNUT Street, Philadelphia. o24-6td&1tW

COCIN! COCIN!!

THE ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE FOR IMPROVING THE GROWTH OF THE HAIR.

PHALON & SON'S COCIN,

Manufactured from genuine and pure COCOA-NUT OIL.

This valuable preparation is rapidly taking the place of every other article now in use, as it restores the hair to its natural color and brilliancy. A single trial will satisfy all that—

It promotes the growth of the hair;
It prevents the hair falling off;
It kills and removes dandruff;
It gives new life to the human hair;
It makes the hair rich and glossy;
It is the most perfect article for dressing the hair;
It leaves no disagreeable odor;
It is different from any article made, as
It leaves no sticky substance;

And is the only article discovered for promoting the health and strength of the hair.

With Two Illustrations by VOIGT.

The present Number closes the Nineteenth Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. In the Introductory Notice prefixed to the first Number, the Publishers announced their intention to present a periodical "which no one who had the slightest relish for miscellaneous reading, or the slightest wish to keep himself informed of the progress and results of the literary genius of his own age, would willingly be without. And they intend to publish it at so low a rate, and to give it a value so much beyond its price, that it shall make its way into the hands or the family circle of every intelligent citizen of the United States."

How far they have succeeded in carrying out their design the 114 Numbers of the Magazine already published will show. Each of these contains as much matter as an ordinary octavo of 400 pages, costing, if illustrated in the style of the Magazine, at least three dollars. The Nineteenth Volumes of the Magazine are thus equivalent to a library of more than a Hundred Volumes, comprising the best productions of the foremost Novelists, Historians, Essayists, and Poets of the day.

Without entering into a comparison with other American periodicals, the Publishers may be permitted to say that HARPER'S MAGAZINE contains 75 per cent. more matter than Blackwood's, Fraser's, or the Dublin University Magazine. While giving place to many of the best productions of European Novelists and Essayists, HARPER'S MAGAZINE regularly furnishes a larger amount of original matter than is contained in any other similar periodical, whether European or American. It has published articles from more than Two Hundred American writers, residing in every section, and in almost every State of the Union. By thus welcoming contributions from every part of the country, the Publishers have effectually prevented the Magazine from assuming a sectional character or becoming the organ of any "mutual admiration" clique or party. As an Illustrated Magazine, HARPER'S is wholly without a rival. The volumes already published have contained more than Six Thousand Engravings, most of them executed in the highest style of the art from Original Drawings by Doepler, Parsons, Hitchcock, Fredericks, Wallen, Thwaites, Hoppin, Chapin, Lossing, Voigt, Bellew, McLenan, Strother, Hoppin, Dallas, and other Artists. For these the Magazine has paid not less than One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars. The cost of its literary contributions has considerably exceeded this amount. HARPER'S MAGAZINE has therefore, in less than ten years, paid more than a Quarter of a Million of Dollars to American Authors and Artists.

The Publishers gratefully acknowledge that this large outlay has been remunerative beyond their most sanguine expectations. They hoped from the first that the Magazine would "make its way into the hands or the family circle of every intelligent citizen of the United States," but the number of those readers has proved far greater than they anticipated. They believe that the circulation of the Magazine will continue to increase with the growth and population of the country. For the spirit and manner in which it will hereafter be conducted, they can offer no better guarantee than the contents of the Volumes already issued.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

In assuming the control of the "Atlantic Monthly," Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS would say to its readers, that the Magazine will be conducted upon the same general plan as heretofore. It will be their aim that, under its new management, the Magazine shall not fall short of its present high standard of excellence; and they would bespeak a continuance of the liberal patronage which has hitherto been accorded to it, and which is the best proof of the public appreciation of its merits.

All communications upon the business of the Magazine should, in future, be addressed to TICKNOR & FIELDS.

The completion of the Western connections of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Chicago make this the DIRECT LINE BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE GREAT NORTHWEST.

The connection of tracks by the Railroad Bridge at Pittsburg, avoiding all drayage or ferriage of Freight, together with the saving of time, are advantages readily appreciated by Shippers of Freight and the Travelling Public.

By this Route Freights of all descriptions can be forwarded from Philadelphia, New York, Boston, or Baltimore, to any point on the Railroads of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, or Missouri, by Railroad direct.

THE RATES OF FREIGHT to any point in the West by the Pennsylvania Railroad are at all times as favorable as are charged by other Railroad Companies.

Be particular to mark packages "via Penna. Railroad."

AMUSEMENTS.

WALNUT-STREET THEATRE. EXTRA CARD. The management have great pleasure in announcing that, in accordance with a universally expressed desire from the public of this city, they have made arrangements for the production of the GREAT PLAY OF THE AGE, GERALDINE, written by Mrs. Bateman, and brought out under the express supervision of H. L. Bateman, Esq., from whom the right to produce this play has been secured solely for the Walnut-street Theatre, with new and appropriate scenery, properties, dresses, etc.

The chaste and intellectual dramatic artist, MRS. WALLER, has been engaged for a brief period, and will make her first appearance as GERALDINE, THE HUNCHBACK BRIDE, supported by a cast of sterling excellence.

The immense sensation created by this brilliant AMERICAN PLAY, among every class of theatre-goers, both in New York and Boston, in which cities it has had an unexampled run of 42 NIGHTS, to houses CROWDED with the BEAUTY, FASHION, AND INTELLECT of the community, and the encomiums it has received from the RIPEST SCHOLARS OF THIS CENTURY, warrant them in the belief that its initial representation will be greeted by the most CROWDED and APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE ever assembled within the walls of a theatre. THE SCENERY, painted by HEISTER, is not only beautiful and novel, but STRICTLY CORRECT, thereby rendering the stage a STUDY OF THE FEUDAL AGES.

The costumes and properties have been carefully selected from the rare engravings, and combine to render the mise en scene as remarkable for its classical integrity to truthful detail as for the GEORGEOUS MAGNIFICENCE OF THE COUP D'OEIL.

The united voice of the New York and Boston press has given such laudatory expressions of opinion as to the play itself, that the management feels it would be a work of supererogation to dwell upon the poetic beauty or dramatic intensity of a tragedy so universally acknowledged to be unrivalled on the MODERN STAGE. And with so accomplished and refined an artist as MRS. WALLER, in the role of GERALDINE, A character so admirably calculated to give full scope to her THRILLING DRAMATIC POWER And wonderful intensity of PASSIONATE EMOTION.

There can be no question that this performance will be the precursor of the GREATEST DRAMATIC REVIVAL Ever known in Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 26, 1859, Will be presented, for the first time in this city, the tragedy in five acts, entitled GERALDINE, OR LOVE'S VICTORY.
