News and Notions.

—Wm. Smyth Esq., the able Principal of the Owego Academy has succeeded M. S. Barnes, in the proprietorship and management of the Owego Southern Tier Times.

—The annual commencement of Union College, is to be signalized this year by a special commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the venerable Dr. Nott's accession to the Presidency of this institution.

—The Homestead bill languishes. The Nebraska Northern Democrats say now that the President has secured his darling measure for the South, he gives a cold shoulder to the Homestead bill.

—In the U. S. Senate on Friday last, Mr. Allen of Rhode Island, submitted a series of resolutions, passed by the Legislature of that State, denouncing the passage of the Nebraska bill, the Fugitive Slave Law, and against the acquisition of new territory.

—It is stated in the Star that Miss Mary Ann Beachler, daughter of Mr. John Beachler, of Washington city, has fallen heir to $100,000 by the death of a relative, in Germany, on the condition that she marries on arriving at the age of eighteen.

—At Cincinnati, Ohio, the various Catholic Societies joined in the procession in honor of the Fourth. No disturbance occurred except in one instance, when an Irishman, who attacked an American wearing a 'Know Nothing Hat,' was killed by the latter with pistol and bowie knife.

—The people of Western Massachusetts celebrated the Fourth, at North Adams, ten thousand strong. The true spirit of liberty was manifested. As nearly as could be ascertained the sentiment on Nebraska stood: Against the iniquity, 9,997; for the bill, three —Postmasters!

—Statistics show incontrovertibly the tendencies to crime of that superstition, which forbids the Bible to the people, and arrogates for the priests the power of dispensing pardon to the guilty. In Ireland, for each million of its inhabitants, there are 14 murders annually; in Lombardy, 45; in Sicily, 90; in the Papal States, 100; in Naples, 200; while in Protestant England there are but 4.

—It is thought they have got a new edition of the Declaration of Independence at the South, especially calculated for that latitude. The following is said to be the beginning of the precious instrument: "White men are born with considerable freedom, and endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, and the Pursuit of Niggers.—Portland Advertiser.

—The idea of expelling Mr. Sumner from the Senate, as we learn from the Washington Union, was entertained by the Southern Democratic Senators, but according to the same authority, fearing the result of such a movement, they have come to the conclusion to pocket their indignation and treat Mr. Sumner to a determined 'letting alone.'

—The Glasgow (Mo.) Times, in an article on the emigration to Kansas, says:—"Private letters state that about ten thousand people are on the move. Five hundred crossed over at Weston last Saturday, and about the same number on Sunday, while the roads are filled with people all bound for new Territories. A determined effort is to be made to introduce slavery into Kansas, while there is a general disposition to let Nebraska be free."

—The Pennsylvanian has a leader making merry over "Young Africa"—as it calls the opposition. It assures the public that "we may look for a more full development of this great party of the 19th century, made up of rams horns and goats' wool." Yes, and the Pennsylvanian may look for seven blasts on those rams horns—which will make the rotten walls of the Jericho of the democracy come tumbling down in hideous ruin.

—A glimpse of the State of feeling that exists in New Hampshire, as regards President Pierce, may be gained from the following from the Concord Reporter, (Democrat.) We learn from Sunapee that the Democrats of that town on Saturday last, fired one hundred and fifteen guns to celebrate the defeat of The New Hampshire Patriot, (Pierce's organ) as Public Printer. Sunapee is one of the staunchest Democratic towns in the state, giving a vote of about 175 to 20 Whig and Free Soil.

—A Municipal election in the borough of Chambersburg, Pa., for a member of the local council in place of one who had resigned, has resulted thus: William Heyser, regular Democratic candidate 25; Adam Vanderaw, regular Whig candidate, 25, Jacob N. Snider, a democrat, but not known as a candidate, 174! The Chambersburg Whig says that not a man could be found to acknowledge that he had voted for him, or who knew that he was running. The secret of the result was that Mr. Snider was elected by the new organization called "Know Nothing." Chambersburg it must be understood, was previously a Whig town.

—The freemen of one of the rural districts of New York State, are meditating the election of Henry Ward Beecher as their next Representative in Congress, a move which the N. Y. Tribune highly approves, for the reason that he is a searching and careful observer, an earnest and faithful republican, a fearless and effective champion of Liberty and progress, a sincere and devoted christian philanthropist; because there should be some clergymen in Congress; and because the practice so generally adopted, of restricting the choice of Representative to actual residents of the District, ought to be changed, where men can be found better able to represent it without, than within it.

—Though it was once claimed as a cardinal doctrine of the Democracy, that a Representative must be guided implicitly by the ascertained will of his constituents, and that a U. S. Senator must obey the instructions of the State Legislature, or resign, Mr. Isaac Toucey, who professes to represent the State of Connecticut in the U. S. Senate, now that it has become necessary to force through measures, over the heads of the people, openly defies and repudiates the Democratic doctrine of instruction. It will be remembered that the sham Democratic papers of Pennsylvania recently preached the same doctrine that Mr Toucy now does, in order to excuse the criminal silence of our State Legislature, when they might have aided in opposing, if not preventing the Nebraska fraud.

Southern Sentiment.

Parson Brownlow, in his Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, chronicling the late murder of a Mr. Moore, his wife and sister-in-law, by one of Mr. Moore's slaves—advises the burning of the perpetrator when caught, without trial, and goes on thus:

'We have a few remarks to make, which have been suggested by this melancholy occurrence, and then we are done; at least for the present. There is a great deal of Abolitionism in East Tennessee, and with it a fearful increase of insolence, and hellish daring on the part of negroes. Negroes take more liberties in East Tennessee, and display more insolence, in their intercourse with white people, than any where we have ever been, and we have traveled extensively. Many of the negroes can read; and they keep themselves posted up on the subject of the controversy between the North and South, touching the slavery question. They can be heard relating matters of this sort to other negroes who can't read, at any time.

To the disgrace of East Tennessee, we must admit, that white men, every where, play cards, fight chickens, drink whiskey, and sabbath-break it with negroes. Abolitionism meets with more favor in East Tennessee, than any where else in the South. The scoundrels fill our pulpits—preside in our schools—sell us goods—marry into our families—serve us as clerks and attorneys—and figure in every other way! The true hearted citizens of East Tennessee, and property holders, ought to enter into a league, and whip, black, and ride upon a rail, irrespective of any calling, or family associations, every preacher, citizen or traveler, who dares utter one word in opposition to slavery, or who is found in possession of an abolition document: These are our sentiments and we are willing and ready to help others carry them out.

P. S. Since writing the above, we learn the negro has been taken, and burned alive in the presence of hundreds. Served him right. He confessed his guilt in every particular.

SETTLEMENT OF KANSAS.—A letter in the St. Louis Republican, dated Whitehead, Kansas Territory June 25th, says that thousands of emigrants from Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri, have already arrived in that territory, and thousands are still pouring in, the lands from ten to twenty miles back, having been claimed by squatters.—The writer gives the proceedings of a meeting of these settlers, at which a Squatter Association was formed to make provision for deciding upon disputed claims, &c. Resolutions was adopted precisely similar to those passed at the squatter meeting held at Salt Creek trading house. Among them were resolutions to afford no protection to abolitionists as citizens of the territory, recognizing the institution of slavery as already existing in the territory, and recommending slaveholders to introduce their 'property' as quick as possible. A Vigilance Committee was appointed, and also five delegates to the General Territorial Convention, to be held at Salt Creek, on the 4th day of July. Of what character this convention is expected to be, no mention is made.

☞ Mr Francis P. Blair of Maryland—he who edited the Washington Globe when it was the thunderer for Gen. Jackson's administration—is one of the Vice Presidents of the Emigrants' Aid Society recently organized at the federal capital with the view of averting from Nebraska and Kansas the curse of slavery which is impending over them. Mr. Blair cultivates his extensive estate entirely with free labor. When he purchased it, it was worn out by slave labor and deserted. Under his management it smiles with a luxuriant fertility. It is situated on the line of the railroad leading from Baltimore to Washington, and is the only tract on the route that wears the appearance of thrift.

OFFICIAL AND IMPORTANT.
IT being manifest that the tailoring business is still carrying on John Groves in Montrose—no, John is carrying on the Tailoring business—no, they are both "carrying on" together—at a place where two ways meet, being in the very building where Sam Houston was nominated for President, to wit, in Searle's Hotel, in the Basement thereof—and the generous many-pocketed public being supposed to be interested in knowing where they can make an investment, (yea, and an in-coat-and-pantaloons—inent) most advantageously; to the appearance of the outer man in extenso; therefore John,
"Who is not, like a virtuous woman willing
To live unheard-of—just to save a shilling," hereby nominates himself as Tailor-General for this community, and requests all good citizens to call at his place of business above mentioned, to enable him to perform the duties of said office. Witness my hand at Montrose the ninth day of May A. D., 1854.

Hurrah for Freedom and Free Territory!
Nebraska and Kansas,
No fetters nor slave laws.
Young America forever and free.
TO the Hon. Judges of the Court of Susquehanna county—foreign Ambassadors, Attorneys, Grand Jurymen, Crier, and other officials—Clergymen and Churchmen, Merchants, Mechanics and Workies—young gents and Old Fogies, "citizens and strangers," "the rest of mankind," and the ladies besides—all hail! Just shut off the lightning a half a minute, if you please; I want to speak to you. You doubtless recollect what old Bullion told the House, in Committee of the Whole, that he would do, in a single hour, with the Nebraska bill and its author, the Little Giant. Well; I suppose he has done it. All right.—And let the loud cannonade of indignant Freedom thunder on against the blood-cemented breastworks of oppression and outrage the world over; shaking the empire of Tyranny with earthquakes, shattering in pieces the red altars where holy Freedom bleeds, and the red hand that holds the fetter and the scourge, and hurling Despots, toppling from their thrones, down, bellowing after Douglas to—where Bullion said.—Excuse me, fellow citizens, I did not intend to go off in this rhapsody on Liberty and human rights, when I began, but simply to lay before you a little matter of business, and as I am by profession neither orator nor statesman, but only that sort of "necessary evil," a Dentist, I will drop my patriotism for the present, which most anomalously for these days got the better, for a moment, of my interest, and conclude by saying that I have resumed my residence in Montrose, and may be found at Montavue, two doors south of Seth Mitchell's, Esq., opposite the Baptist Church. I will wait on you at your residence (in town,) if desired. Those living at a distance, desiring plate teeth, can board with me free of charge, while the work is being done. My charges are so low that I make them strictly confidential.
Yours professionally,
C. D. VIRGIL,
Montavue, April, 1854.] Resident Dentist.
