SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE CAPTURE OF JEFF DAVIS.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

'Tis last act of the drama now
Making place, as all allow;
The great Rebellion's done,
And the who was its head and front
Captured, and must bear the brunt
Of his by-him begun.

Detected by his warlike bands,
Who cared no more for his commands,
As he saw our soldiers nigh,
All laughter could not but arise
When they beheld the odd disguise
In which he strove to fly.

Lady's dress his form arrayed,
But his long boots the chent betrayed,
Appearing 'neath the skirt.
Mrs. D., with kind intent,
Now, don't provoke this President,
Or else you may get hurt!"

But this terrific prophecy
Proved a fallacious one to be,
They were not hurt at all;
And those who need no strange disguise
To hide them, still get their supplies
Of clothes from Tower Hall.

Hands, styles, and sizes of clothing, men's, youths' and boys', all grades, from medium to superfine. At our sales are large and rapid, we have a full complete assortment, new and fashionable, which is kept replenished daily. Our prices, being based on the lowest market rates of the season, are lower than those of all others. An examination is invited.

HINT TO BOTH SEXES—HOW TO GAIN AFFECTION.—It has frequently been suggested that PLANTATION BITTERS are, in another form, the Elixir of Love" of the Ancients. That they do tend to quiet "family jars," and reconcile fretful husbands to cross husbands, we verily believe. When the stomach is restored, and consequent felicity reigns at home,

How great the charm, how sweet the bliss,
Great mess expressive of a life!"

Pure and proper use of PLANTATION BITTERS will infuse the souls of both sexes with pure and high-toned sentiments of affection, and a capacity for rare and exquisite enjoyment in each other's society. Remember there is no place like home and no passion like love—Nothing to link the two together and you to both the great family blessing, PLANTATION BITTERS. my20-6t

JEFF DAVIS IN HIS WIFE'S CLOTHES.—Jefferson Davis took to the woods,
With his wife, and his children, and portable goods,
Intending, as soon as he could, to go,
By hook or by crook, to Mexico.

The boys of the valiant Fourth Michigan,
All of a sudden, softly began,
In the early morning, dark and damp,
To surround the fugitive traitor's camp.
Jeff scratched his head, and rubbed his eyes,
And looked uncommonly grave and wise—
And listened a moment—"Oho!" says he,
"What's the party of men I see?
"The Yankees are on us! come! hurry, my wife!
"Get up this moment, and run for your life!
"No time to be lost! Be smart, my dear,
"For, the way things look, its terribly clear
"The Yankees will presently run us down!
"Come, give me your bonnet, and shawl, and gown!
"You may stay here, behind this tree,
"While I put on your garments, and flee."

Jefferson D. didn't look very neat;
His boots stuck out about "a foot,"
And the hooks of the garment wouldn't meet;
But the writer of the piggy old song
Caught him in his lean, and trotted in the dirt.

The hoops flew up, and the bonnet hung down
On the back of his neck, and the back of his gown;
And the men of the brave Fourth Michigan,
When they saw this singular female man,
Had noticed the manner in which she ran,
Rushed on to the capture with glorious shout,
While Mrs. D. in a rage cried out,
"Don't hit the President, nasty men,
"For he'll certainly hit you back again;
"Who' he's clad in my bonnet, and gown, and skirt,
"He's got a knife, and he'll surely hurt
"Ton fellows, and knock you flat in the dirt!"
And "the President" bravely brandished a knife,
While clad in the feminine clothes of his wife;
But it didn't do: and that is the end
Of the traitor's fighting, you may depend.

So we sing of the petticoat traitor's fall;
But we mustn't forget the great OAK HALL,
Where we purchase every conceivable thing
We can possibly want, to wear in the spring.

The good time to buy clothing has come at last, and people from all quarters are improving it by making their purchases. We still have a good assortment, and the prices are so low that all can easily count the difference between war and peace.

Come and examine for yourself.

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 16th of May, 1865, Elizabeth Coonis Brister, aged 65 years. One of the excellent of the earth has passed from it, one whose presence gave happiness to many in all conditions of life. Elizabeth Coonis Brister was a colored woman of respectable parentage, partly of Indian descent, whose life has been one of great usefulness. Her good judgment, her strict integrity, her patience and cheerfulness, fitted her in an uncommon degree to minister in the chamber of sickness. The term "right minded" eminently applied to her. Those whom she has cherished will ever tenderly cherish her memory. To her family the loss is irreparable, and she will be sincerely mourned by her many friends, both among the aged and the young, who felt that she was one to be honored and loved. That she was prepared for the heavenly mansion she has so peacefully entered, her walk and conversation attested, and an expression used by her in a previous illness, is remembered with much satisfaction: "I am hidden in Christ, in the shelter of a great rock."

NOTICE TO ALL DELINQUENT CORPORATIONS ORGANIZED UNDER ANY LAW OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Notice is hereby given to all companies incorporated by or under any law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and organized at any time prior to the first Monday of November, 1864, that have failed to make report to the Auditor General under the Act approved April 21, 1858, and the Act approved April 30, 1864, that they are required to report to the Auditor General forthwith, as follows, viz.:

In case a dividend has been declared, the Treasurer will report, under oath, the amount of capital paid in, the date, amount, and rate per cent. of each dividend during the year ending the first Monday of November, 1864, and any previous year or years in which the Company may have had a existence; and in case no dividend has been declared during the year or years ending as aforesaid, then a supplementary of the cash value of the capital stock, as it existed between the first and fifteenth days of November, must be made by the President or Treasurer, and a majority of the Directors, under oath. When an appraisement is made, the report should also state the time the Company was organized.

In addition to the above report, under the act of April 21, 1858, companies not paying a tax on tonnage are required to make a separate report, under oath, of the Treasurer, of the amount of net earnings or income received during the period from April 30 to November 1, 1864, in accordance with the second section of the Act, approved April 30, 1864.

COMPANIES INCORPORATED BY OTHER STATES and "doing business in this Commonwealth," are notified that they are made subject to the tax on net earnings or income under the 2d section of the act of April 30, 1864, and are required to report to the Auditor General the amount of such net earnings or income received between the 30th of April and the 1st of November, 1864.

All delinquent Companies incorporated by or under any law of the State of Pennsylvania, will be allowed a reasonable time in which to make the several reports required by law and above enumerated; but continued neglect or refusal will subject them to forfeiture of charter, under the 2d proviso of the 2d section of the act of April 30, 1864, which is in the following words:

"Provided further, That any corporation which has failed to make returns to the Commonwealth, as required by the act of April 21, A. D. 1858, entitled "An act for the better securing to the Commonwealth the payment of tax on loans incorporated companies," may make such return within sixty days after the passage of this act, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and all delinquent companies failing or refusing to make full returns and payment to the State, as required by the general laws of this Commonwealth in relation thereto, shall have all their rights and privileges declared forfeited by proclamation from the Governor."

ISAAC SLENKER,
Auditor General.
W. S. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.
