SHIPPENSBURG (Cumberland Co.) — The competition was tough during the Cumberland County 4-H Dairy Roundup held at the Shippensburg Fairgrounds.

More than 80 county 4-H members and their animals competed at the roundup, which was judged by Terry Rawn of Charlestown, W. Va.

The big winner in the competition for Ayrshires was Heath A. Ocker of Shippensburg, who won the grand champion and senior champion titles with his senior three-year-old Ockerdale Champ Jaime Joyce. He also won the reserve grand champion award with his summer yearling Ockerdale Milk Machine Julie.

Michelle E. Ocker of Shippensburg won the Ayrshire reserve senior champion honor with her junior two-year-old Masonic-Homes Jade Megan.

For the Guernseys, the grand champion was Michael Hensel of Newburg and his spring junior calf Hensel-Hill Star Wars Stormy. Hensel took the reserve grand champion award also with his fall senior calf Hensel-Hill Billy Pebbles.

The Holstein senior champion and grand champion was Bradley L. Varner of Carlisle and his senior three-year-old Le-Ida Marvel Ideal. The reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion honors went to Julie Ann Dyarman and her five-year-old Dyar-Acres Naketa Valiant.

During the Jersey competition, the grand champion and senior champion awards went to Rebecca A. Cornman of Boiling Springs and her senior three-year-old Red Hills Bradford Gwen. Carrock Sooner B Frosty, a four-year-old shown by Emily Dietrich of Newburg, won the reserve grand champion and the senior champion honors.

Rebecca Cornman also won the grand champion and senior champion awards in the Milking Shorthorn event with her junior two-year-old Three Springs Courtney.

Many of the same winners also won awards in the junior segment of the roundup.

Michael Hensel won the Guernsey junior champion award with his Hensel-Hill Star Wars Stormy. He then won the reserve junior champion honor with Hensel-Hill Billy Pebbles.

Emily Dietrich won the Jersey junior champion honor with her spring junior calf Carrock Hermitage Flurrie. The reserve junior champion award went to Tiffany Allen of Newburg and her spring junior yearling Pleasant Valley Logan Susie.
