Sunbury Academy.

J. P. CRONMILLER
F. WEIRICK, } Principals

THE FALL TERM of this Academy will commence on Monday, the 2d of October. The course of Instruction will embrace all the branches of a liberal English and Classical education. It is their aim to make the Academy one of the best schools in the country. To accomplish this, nothing will be wanting on their part.

Thoroughness and accuracy will be required in every recitation, and no pupil will be permitted to pass superficially over any subject. Composition and Declamation will receive particular attention. Correct reading, writing and spelling will be carefully taught to the less advanced.

Calender.—The Winter session will commence on Monday, the 2d of October, and continue twenty two weeks.

The session is divided in Two Terms of eleven weeks each.

TUITION:

Mechanics, Inventors & Manufacturers.

$570—IN CASH PRICES—$570

VOLUME X. of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN commences on the 16th of September. It is chiefly devoted to advancement of the interests of Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers, and Farmers, by the diffusion of useful knowledge upon these important branches. It is edited by men practically skilled in the arts and sciences, and widely regarded as a sound and reliable journal. Nearly all the valuable Patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office, are illustrated with Engravings, and the claims of all the Patents are published in these pages; thus making the paper a perfect Scientific and Mechanical Encyclopedia for future as well as present reference. The Scientific American is very extensively circulated—its circulation in the last volume exceeding 16,000 copies per week. It is in form for binding; each volume contains several hundred Engravings and over 400 pages of Reading Matter, with an Index. The practical results alone are worth to any family much more than subscription price.

The Publishers offer the following valuable prizes for the largest list of subscribers sent in by the 1st January next: $100 will be given for the largest list, $75 for the second, $65 for the third, $55 for the fourth, $50 for the fifth, $45 for the sixth, $40 for the seventh, $35 for the eighth, $30 for the ninth, $25 for the tenth, $20 for the eleventh, $15 for the twelfth, $10 for the thirteenth, and $5 for the fourteenth. The cash will be paid to the order of the successful competitor immediately after January 1st, 1855.

TERMS.—One copy one year $2, one copy six months $1, five copies six months $4, ten copies six months $8, ten copies twelve months $15, fifteen copies twelve months $20, twenty copies twelve months $26 in advance.

No number of subscriptions above 20 can be taken at less than $1.40 each. Names can be sent in at different times and from different Post Offices.

Southern and Western money taken for subscriptions.

Letters should be directed, (post paid,) to

MUNN & CO., 128 Fulton street, New York.

☞ Messrs. Munn & Co., are extensively engaged in procuring patents for new inventions, and will advise inventors, without charge, in regard to the novelty of their improvements.

RESOLUTION PROPOSING

Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to and the same are hereby proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in accordance with the provisions of the third article thereof, to wit:

PROPOSITION 1, TO BE ARTICLE XI.

Section 1. The aggregate amount of debts hereafter contracted by the Commonwealth shall never exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, except in case of war or repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to redeem the public debt of the Commonwealth, and the money arising shall be applied to the purpose for which the debt may be contracted, or pay such debts, and to no other purpose.

Section 2. To pay the public debt of the Commonwealth, and debts which may hereafter be contracted in case of war repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to redeem the public debt of the Commonwealth, the Legislature shall at their next session after the adoption of this amendment to the Constitution, provide for the creation of a sinking fund which shall be sufficient till the end of the next fiscal year to pay the interest then accrued and all the net annual income for the public works and works owned by the Commonwealth, and thereafter to pay the interest annually accruing under any previous law, or laws, or resolutions, and annually to raise the amount required by a sum not less than five hundred thousand dollars, to be yearly by compounding at a rate of not less than five per centum per annum, the said sinking fund shall be invested in the Stocks of the Commonwealth, which shall be created from time to time in a manner to be prescribed by law; no portion of the sinking fund shall ever be applied to the payment of the debt of the Commonwealth hereinbefore mentioned in the first section of this article, but the sinking fund shall be applied only to the purpose herein specified.

Section 3. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any way be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, company, corporation or association, nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner or stockholder in any company, association or corporation; the Commonwealth may, however, form and aid any company for the construction of roads, bridges, navigable streams, or other works of public utility, in which the Commonwealth may be interested, or which may be owned by the Commonwealth, or to which the Commonwealth may be a party, or to subscribe to the stock of any such company, association or corporation, or to aid the same by loan or otherwise, provided that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury for the purpose aforesaid, except in pursuance of a law for some work or object previously recommended by a vote of two-thirds of both Houses of the Legislature, and that the faith of the State be not pledged in any case for more than the actual cost of such work or object, as ascertained by the last preceding valuation, nor in any case for more than one million of dollars, and that all such laws shall be submitted to the people at the next general election for State officers, and be approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon, and shall be binding upon the Commonwealth only to the extent so approved; and the money so borrowed shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to pay the debt created by such loan, or to repay the money so borrowed, and to no other purpose.

PROPOSITION 2, TO BE ARTICLE XI.

Prohibiting Municipal Subscriptions.

The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, or township, by vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, association or corporation, or to place money or credit in aid of any such company, association or corporation, or to loan its credit to, or in aid of any such company or any citizen.

E. B. CHASE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
M. MCCASLIN,
Speaker of the Senate.

In Senate, April 28, 1854.

Resolved, That this resolution pass. Yeas 24, nays 5—Extract from the Journal.

T. A. MAGUIRE, Clerk.

In House of Representatives, April 21, 1854.

Resolved, That this resolution pass. Yeas 71, nays 29—Extract from the Journal.

WM. JACK, Clerk.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Filed April 29, 1854. } C. A. BLACK, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, July 1, 1854.

I do certify that the above and foregoing is true and correct copy of the original "Resolution relative to an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the Secretary's office the day and year aforesaid.

C. A. BLACK,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Journal of the Senate

"Resolution No. 262, entitled "Resolution proposing amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth," was read a third time. On the question, will the Senate agree to the first proposition, the yeas and nays were taken, agreeably to the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—Messrs Buckalew, Darlington, Dennis, Ferguson, Fleming, Fink, Fry, Graham, Hall, Hamill, R. D. Hamlin, E. W. Hamlin, Heister, Hope, James, McClure, McFarland, Platt, Quigley, Sager, Salter, and Meredith, Speaker—21.

NAYS—Messrs Crabb, Crawford, Hendricks, Rickert, Knable and Skinner—6.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question, will the Senate agree to the second proposition, the yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—Messrs Buckalew, Dennis, Ferguson, F
