REPORT OF SPECIAL AUDITORS.

To the Honorable Alexander Jordan and his Associate Judges, of the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Northumberland.

The undersigned appointed auditors, to open, re-audit, settle, and adjust the accounts of J. M. Simpson, Jacob Young and Francis Bucher, late Treasurers, and of George Bright the present Treasurer of said County, and ascertain if any, and what mistakes have been made in the settlement of said Treasurers' accounts with the county of Northumberland, and also with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, from the date of the Report by the late special auditors, appointed under and by virtue of an act of Assembly, of 4th of May, A. D. 1852, respectfully report.

That pursuant to their appointment they met in the borough of Sunbury, on the 10th day of November, A. D., 1857, and having been first duly sworn and affirmed, and having subscribed the oath so taken, proceeded to perform the duties of said appointment, and continued in session from day to day until the 5th day of December next ensuing, inclusive, and then adjourned, to meet on Monday the 4th day of January, then next ensuing. That the said Treasurers appeared before said auditors during their session.

The report of the late special auditors, states that though the sum of $5,949 78 of State Tax, on Real and Personal, remained outstanding on the 1st of January, 1852, when Young became Treasurer, yet that the whole of that sum was not payable to the Commonwealth because during the term of Gulick, Treasurer, a large sum of County money had been used in paying said State Tax in advance of its collection, and during the terms of Simpson and Youngman, Treasurers, the County Commissioners had borrowed from the Bank of Northumberland a considerable amount, which was used for the same purpose. The Commonwealth having then received in advance of its collection, part of the tax levied on real and personal, was not entitled to the whole of the outstanding tax amounting (as reported) 1st of January, 1852, to $5,949 78. The amount the Commonwealth was entitled to receive, from these outstanding taxes or balances in the hands of the Treasurers, (subject, however, to deductions for exonerations percentages to collectors) is exhibited in the accounts stated by said special auditors, for the years '48 and '49, and '50 and '51. And as all the State tax on real and personal for previous years, had been fully settled during the terms of Simpson and Youngman, the balances of these accounts represent the whole amount the Commonwealth was entitled to receive. The balance for the years '48 and '49 being $1,268 42, and for the years '50 and '51 the sum of $3,262 43, the Commonwealth was entitled 1st of Jan. 1852 to the sum of $4,530 85, (subject as aforesaid, to exonerations and percentages) and to no more, although at that time a larger amount of tax on real and personal remained outstanding, and cash balances remained in the hands of the Treasurer. And it was further reported by said special auditors, that Youngman and Simpson held cash balances arising from said State tax, and that if these sums were paid to County, towards refunding what she had advanced, then the County would receive the whole of said sum of $4,530 85 (subject as aforesaid) from the then outstanding taxes; but, that if these balances were paid to the Com'th, then she would be entitled to so much less from the outstanding taxes, subject to exonerations, &c. Youngman has since paid the Com'th per receipt the sum of $921 19. The Com'th is entitled therefore as follows:—

Com'th entitled as above stated, to,	4,530 85
Paid by Youngman,	921 19
Amount Com'th entitled to from taxes outstanding, 1st of January, 1852,	$3,609 66

The tax on real and personal outstanding, 1st of January 1852, is reported by said special auditors at $5,949 78. Owing to errors in duplicate cause that time corrected, we report the balance then outstanding to have been the sum of $5,911 33, of which sum the Com'th was entitled to receive, as above stated the sum of $3,609 66, and in repayment of previous advances, the county was entitled to the balance, as follows:—

Outstanding, 1st of January, 1852, real and personal,	5,911 33
Com'th entitled to,	3,329 66
County entitled to,	$2,581 67

In the account here before annexed of Young, for 1852, with the Com'th of Penn'a, respecting tax on real and personal, we charge him with the whole of the outstanding tax aforesaid, viz: $5,911 33, and give him credit for the sum [part thereof] of $2,581 67 as belonging to the county, and in his account with the County, we charge him with the same sum with which he is there credited.

The accounts stated by the County auditors, for the said several Treasurers with the Com'th, respecting Licenses to Retailers, &c., are not charged except in giving Young credit for his commission thereon in 1852, and with that exception, we adopt the balances reported by said county auditors.

Accounts are hereto annexed between said several Treasurers and the County, exhibiting the balances due at the expiration of their terms respectively. And like accounts are hereto annexed between said Treasurers and the County, respecting tax on real and personal, and militia fines, and recapitulations of the balances of said accounts with the Com'th, are hereto annexed, including the balances for licenses to retailers, &c., and including credits for payments made since the expiration of said Treasurers' terms of office. There exhibiting the present aggregate balance of these accounts.

The accounts between Young and the County exhibit a balance due him of $2,[illegible] 12 at the end of his term. But since then the Commissioners erroneously paid him $1,[illegible] 58 07, so that he was over-paid [illegible] the sum of $1,133 49, we therefore report that there is due from him to the County, the said sum of eleven hundred and thirty-three dollars and forty-nine cents.

The accounts between Bucher and the County, exhibit a balance in his hands, of four hundred dollars and fifty cents, which sum we, therefore, report is due from him to the County.

And we report, that the sum of one hundred and forty-three dollars and sixty-seven cents, was due from Bright to the County, at the end of his first year [1856] as per the annexed account.

We report that there is due from Young to the Com'th, the sum of twelve hundred and one dollars and sixty-three cents, being the aggregate of all the balances of the annexed accounts between him and the Com'th, and for licenses to retailers, &c., after deducting the payments made by him to the State Treasurer, since the expiration of his term, as for the annexed accounts and recapitulation for the years 1852 and 1853.

The accounts and recapitulation for 1854 and 1855 hereto annexed between Bucher and the Com'th, exhibit a balance due the Treasurer, at the end of his term, of two hundred and twenty-three dollars and thirty cents. But the State Treasurer subsequently refunded to Bucher by an order upon Bright, the present Treasurer, the sum of $176 91, being an over payment of fifty-two dollars and ninety-four cents, which sum we report is in Bucher's hands, and due from him to the Com'th.

We report a balance in the hands of Bright, from militia fines, of one hundred and eighty dollars and seventy-one cents, for the annexed account for 1856. And we report a balance in the hands of Bright from tax on real and personal, of one thousand and ninety-eight dollars and twenty-six cents, per the annexed account for 1856. We make no change in the accounts between him and the Com'th, respecting licenses to retailers, &c., stated by the County auditors for that year, all which is respectfully submitted.
