Local Affairs.

THE GROVER & BAKER and the SINGER SEWING MACHINES are acknowledged superior to any other now manufactured. Miss C. Dallas, Market street, this place, is the agent for the sale of them in this and adjoining counties. Instructions in sewing given free of charge to all purchasers. A lot always on hand. Call and examine them.

PYROXYLINE is a beautiful transparent base for artificial teeth—is tasteless in the mouth, acids will not affect it, and is stronger and lighter than all other basis. To be had in this county only at Dr. Cressinger's Dental rooms, Sunbury, Pa. Call and see specimen.

A HANDSOME base burning stove, (nearly new) suitable for parlor or hall, for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.

SOME of the finest York State apples are being imported to this place by J. B. Haas, who is now in that region procuring a large supply.

Two neat frame dwelling houses are being erected on Front street, below Spruce, by J. W. Bucher and David Clement.

A MEETING of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Court House tomorrow (Sunday,) afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested.

THE fall and winter millinery goods just opening at Miss M. L. Gossler's millinery store, on Fourth street, are of a style that will be very attractive. They are gay, and will, no doubt, please her customers better than ever.

THE upper part of Fourth street has been greatly improved in appearance, by the erection of two fine looking dwelling houses, lately erected by Mark Sempham, Esq.,

THE brick work of the new fire engine house has been completed, and since the scaffolding has been removed, the building makes quite a fine appearance.

THE brick work of Mr. David Fry's building, side of the Post Office, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be a handsome improvement. Mr. Fry intends to occupy it as a Bakery and Ladies' Ice Cream and Oyster saloon.

C. B. WEITZEL, of the New York store, has added an additional room to his store, to be occupied exclusively as a carpet department. He has now a general assortment of carpets and other dry goods in his store which are sold at city prices.

A NEW Grocery is now opened on Third street, next door to the Junction Hotel, where goods are offered cheap for cash. See advertisement in another column.

THE foundation of the Moore & Dissinger block, on the burnt district is nearly completed. The brick work is to be commenced at once. They intend to have the buildings under roof before cold weather sets in, and the houses finished ready to be occupied at the opening of spring.

A WELCOME VISITOR TO OUR SANCTUM.—On last week the senior editor of this paper, who had been confined to his room with serious illness, paid us a visit for the first time in about three months. We are happy to state that his health has improved sufficiently so he can again walk out. We hope he may continue to improve and soon be entirely convalescent, and that his visits may be more frequent.

NEW Millinery goods are just being opened at Miss L. Shindle's store, on Market Square. Miss Shindle has selected some of the handsomest goods in the Philadelphia market, which are now offered to the citizens of this vicinity at very low prices.

PETER W. ROCKEFELLER, son of Sol. Rockefeller, of this place, was seriously injured in the new saw mill, by a log becoming detached from one of the saws and striking him on the breast with great force. He had no insurance against accidents, which would have entitled him to $25 per week had he been insured by J. Shipman, agent.

LADIES' and Children's Fancy Furs, at John Parvin's popular Fur Emporium, 718 Arch street, Philadelphia. He has enlarged, remodeled and much improved his store for the convenience of customers. Read his advertisement and give him a call.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Sunday evening last, Mrs. Hall of this place, widow of John Hall, died suddenly with dropsy of the heart. On Monday, Mr. Isaac Boger, an aged citizen of Freeburg, and long a partner of Mr. Edward Bessler in the merchandise business, died suddenly on the street.—Selinsgrove Times.

THE Hoover House has been greatly improved in appearance by its new proprietor, Lieutenant Hoover, and is doing a rushing business. Everybody tells of the splendid oysters kept at this house, and the manner they are gotten up. The lieutenant knows how to keep a hotel and how to make the guests of the house feel satisfied.

IMPROVEMENTS.—We learn that workmen are engaged in grading a branch railroad from the P. & E. road to the Lime Stone Run Mills at the town of Monroe, I. T. Clement, and the saw mill owned by J. W. Filing & Co. The branch will connect with the P. & E. road above Cameron's Flouring Mill. The road will be built by the owners of the mills for the purpose of shipping lumber, with iron rails sufficiently heavy to run a locomotive over.

SCHOOL.—A meeting of the citizens of Sunbury will be held in the Court House on this evening, for the purpose of ascertaining the sentiment in relation to building an academy. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. S. J. Meminger, Hon. Hill Rupp and Prof. Brown. The citizens are earnestly requested to attend.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday morning last Mr. Edward Johnson of Northumberland county was killed by accident on the railroad at Milton. He was employed as a brakeman on a freight train on the P. & E. R. R., and was coupling cars when he accidently fell between the cars, and his right leg ran over, breaking and mangling it in a terrible manner. He was brought to his home the same evening where death ended his sufferings on the following morning. Mr. Johnson was a very highly respected young man, and leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

PRESENTATION OF A CANE.—On Tuesday evening last, the members of the Sunbury Orchestra were the recipients of a delicious cake presented to them by Mrs. Dr. McCay, of Northumberland. A note accompanied the cake, stating that as they were not prepared to extend that hospitality they desired, on their visit to Northumberland on the 10th inst., they asked them to receive the cake as a token of their high esteem in which they held the members of the Sunbury Orchestra. The cake was cut by Dr. Cressinger, the leader, in the presence of the members and several invited guests, and after disposing of it, the members were called to order, when on motion, the following resolution passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the Sunbury Orchestra tender their gratitude and hearty thanks to Mrs. Dr. McCay, of Northumberland, for the excellent cake presented to us, and that the "Orchestra" highly appreciates the kindness which we know was gladly extended to us. If the enjoyment of the music on their part was equal to the enjoyment of the cake on the part of the Orchestra, we are satisfied with our efforts to please.

A RUNNAWAY.—On Tuesday afternoon last a span of horses belonging to J. M. Bartholomew, attached to a wagon, came through Market Square at full speed, without a driver, turning up Third street, and running over the pavement, they were only prevented of going into the cellar of the Central Hotel by the covering of the cellar-way, which checked their further progress. The horses were considerably cut and bruised about the legs, by coming in contact with the iron railing at the cellarway. No other damage was done that we have learned, except the frightening of several persons on the sidewalks along the streets.

ANOTHER.—In the afternoon of Tuesday, a horse of Maj. Jas. Malone, ran away, and demolished a buggy, to which he had been hitched.

DANCING SCHOOL.—Mr. Geo. Eckert, who is organizing a dancing class at this place, gave his introductory lesson on Tuesday evening last, at the Masonic Hall. By appearance he will have a large class at the commencement. Mr. Eckert will give his first lesson on Tuesday next, at the Masonic Call. The juvenile class will meet at 4 o'clock, and adults at 7 o'clock, P. M. Those who wish to enter the class are requested to be present at the opening.

D. H. & W. R. R.—S. P. Kase, Superintendent Danville, Hazleton & Wilkesbarre Railroad, announces that on and after the 17th inst., the morning train from Sunbury, reaching Danville at 6:30, will leave for Catawissa, at 7, arrive there at 7:30; returning arrive at Danville at 8:20 A. M. This train will make very close connections with the Erie Express for Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Washington City.—Danville American.

WE place at the head of our columns to-day, the names of S. M. Pettengill & Co., and G. P. Rowell & Co., of New York city, as sole agents to procure advertising in that city for the AMERICAN. They are reliable gentlemen and have the most complete establishments in the United States.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Peter Cooper, while walking on the L. & B. R. R., near Seebler's woods, on Wednesday evening last, was run over by the 6 o'clock passenger train. He was brought to the depot, where he lay till near morning when he expired. His legs were crushed and his head was considerably bruised.—Danville American.

Business Notices.

WHIL wonders never cease, and improvement appears to be the order of the day, m n studying to excell, we find J. E. Smick always alive and studying to keep up with the times, in which he is always successful. John makes up splendid suits as all who get their work there will testify.

THE many customers of J. F. Schaeffer are rejoiced at the splendid goods kept at his establishment, and are now procuring their winter garments and overflowing his shop with work. Mr. Schaeffer is not excelled in making up a neat job, and his work is admired by every one.

THE great rush to T. G. Nott's merchant tailor shop still continues. His late cut of pantaloons is admired by everybody, and as wonders never cease, he continues to improve and is getting new customers daily.

Everybody supposed that W. H. Miller, of the Excelsior boot and shoe store, procured enough boots and shoes a few weeks ago, to supply this vicinity for a whole year, but we again find him receiving large lots nearly every day to supply the demand. He keeps a general assortment, and it is known for that he keeps none but the best in market.

THE life like Photographs taken by J. B. Bergstresser, on Market street, east of Fourth street, are attracting attention wherever exhibited. Mr. Bergstresser is a first class artist and is doing a handsome business in the picture line. Those who desire a picture for a keep sake, should not fail to call. Particular attention paid to taking pictures of children.

THE supply of hats at Forst's store next door to this office, are inexhaustible, and for beauty are not excelled. Gentlemen are also invited to call and examine the fine assortment of buckskin gloves just opened at the same place.

J. H. ESHER has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, with a new stock of fall and winter goods, which he offers for sale at very low prices for cash, among the goods are some very handsome dress goods for ladies, brown and beaver cloth for ladies cloaks, and the handsomest shawls to be found, with other nice goods. A good assortment of ladies furs.

Marriages.

In Danville, on the 3d inst., by Rev. A. R. Jack, L. D. Rogers, M. D. of Lycoming, and Miss Martha E., daughter of S. P. Kase Esq., of Danville.

In Danville on the 9th inst., by Rev. Mr. Angspach, Mr. M. K. Hoffman's, of Selinsgrove, and Miss Louisa Hartman, of Sunbury.

At the residence of the bride parents, on the 13th inst., by the Rev. G. W. Rompert, Mr. B. M. Auchenbach, of Philadelphia, and Miss Catharine J. Neff, daughter of Co. C. Neff, of Sunbury.

In Baltimore by the Rev. Dr. Corbit, of Baltimore A. Rockefeller Esq., of this place, now clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C., and Miss Jennie Jones. No cards.

We congratulate our friend Adolphe upon this happy occasion, and to his successful efforts in securing so worthy and accomplished a companion, to share with him the ills of life. As the congenial spirit of his bride will lighten continued load for the mind through many of the paths of life for him, so her choice now offers the assurance to make the future home with them happy. May their path be as free of troubles and vexations as can be expected for mortals to hope for. May their way be strewed with flowers and no impediment be thrown in their way to bar a good over their feelings.

J. W. WASHINGTON'S GRAND BARBER SHOP.

The old permanent shop of the town.

We decline the boast, but at the same time consider that the mighty truth may be seasonably spoken without manifesting an uncomfortable amount of vanity and ambition.

Just twenty years ago I began my business career in this place—half my lifetime thus far spent, have I stood upon the floor of our shop—day after day, and night after night, and applied the sharp blue gleaming steel, and within that elapse of time embraced by the mighty folds of that eventful period have I shaved nearly everybody in the country (in common parlance) and to oblige the public interest we herein publicly announce to our patrons old and new that we are ready to shave them all again three hundred thousand times or more.

Come when you please, just in time is the maxim—we are always ready to work, forenoon or afternoon, to shave you, hair cut you, shampoo you, whisker dye you, or perfume, comb and arrange the hair with artistic skill, in the "water fall" or water raise style to suit the customer. We work to please, not please to work.

Stop, don't go just our shop to get shaved on the blade of ability—because we do it as well as it can be done or ever could be.

A chance is all that we demand
To give the proof we hold in hand.

THIS PARAGRAPH ALONE

FOR A WHOLE YEAR.

TEN years of hard work and hard knocks have organized in Philadelphia the largest and most complete Clothing House in America, if not in the WHOLE WORLD.

By constant endeavors, we have avoided all the old rats and antiquated methods of the trade, until now Oak Hall is universally acknowledged to be

AN EXCEPTION.

The Reasons are:

1. We have built a house for our business covering nearly half an acre.

2. Instead of wedging it in between other buildings, making it dark, and obscuring the goods, it is built on a corner of three streets, and any one may count in it 251 windows.

3. We employ skilled workmen. One Hundred and Fifty of whom may be seen under our roof by any one having time and curiosity to visit our Establishment, and besides these, 1400 to 1800 sewers are employed at their own home.

4. We make up no imperfect goods.

5. We thoroughly sponge and shrink all our Goods.

6. We purchase our goods at first hands, in large lots, sometimes in bills of over $100,000 at one time.

7. We set our faces against every species of unfair dealing, and will dismiss any employee in any way guilty of it.

8. We have such enormous sales that we are content with a profit far below the trade margin.

9. We warrant all our goods, and will give every guarantee to purchasers at Oak Hall.

The above are facts that no one can truthfully dispute, as the examination we so cordially invite, will fully prove.

We ask the encouragement and support of all classes of people, feeling sure that in establishing in Philadelphia the LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA.

We enlist the patronage of all who are interested in the prosperity of our Commonwealth.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a Sealed Envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. CULVERWELL'S "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
