Joseph White's Carriage Repository.

JOSEPH WHITE, now carrying on business in his commodious premises, now lately enlarged, on the Pittsburgh and Greensburg Turnpike, near the Two Mile Run, between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c. And he particularly informs gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made.

Fourteen years' experience in the business enables him to place before his patrons the same choice collection of Carriages which, for many years past, it has been his particular department to select, from the various and most noted Eastern manufacturers. The success of his new system is complete—the economy of his arrangements will supply the best and most fashionable manufacture at moderate prices.

Unencumbered by those heavy expenses, which the want for decorating houses of business has heaped upon the price of goods, owing to large rents, JOSEPH WHITE will sell, on ready money only, at much less than the usual prices.

Carriages repaired in the best manner with despatch. may12daw

As he gives his personal attention to the business, a continuance of the patronage which he has hitherto received from the public is solicited. JACOB GARDNER, St. Charles Livery Stables.

HOTELS & RESTAURANTS.

JONES HOUSE.

WELLS COVERLY, PROPRIETOR. Corner of Market Street and Market Square, HARRISBURG, PA.

THIS NEW AND ELEGANT HOTEL, recently erected by the Messrs. JONES in Harrisburg, Pa., having been leased for a term of years by the undersigned, he takes this method of calling the attention of his former patrons, friends, and the traveling community, thereto.

Having a front of one hundred and forty five feet on the plain principal street of the city, and fifty two feet front on Market Square, it cannot fail to prove attractive as well as inviting to strangers.

The CHAMBERS are of fine size, well ventilated, and lighted with gas—a number with connecting doors—making them very desirable for families.

The HALLS are warmed throughout by heaters, and every modern improvement, in fact, has been added, that may conduce to the safety, comfort and happiness of the guests.

Visitors may, therefore, rest assured that the "JONES HOUSE" has been made perfect in all its appointments—that each department has been placed in charge of EXPERIENCED AND COMPETENT PERSONS—that in every particular the system which has been adopted by the Proprietor, will afford to those who may make it their home, as great a degree of comfort as may be obtained at any similar establishment in the State.

To secure this desirable result, he has furnished the Public and Private Parlors, Chambers, Dining Room, &c., with entirely NEW FURNITURE, and also arranged within the building, a fine BARBER SALOON, OYSTER SALOON, Dressing Room, Hot and Cold Baths, &c.

The CULINARY DEPARTMENT AND DINING ROOM will receive the especial attention of the Proprietor, which, he trusts, will be a sufficient guarantee that all tastes will be suited.

After returning his heartfelt thanks to his old friends and patrons, for the generous and long-standing extended to him at the "COVERLY HOUSE," and also to his numerous patrons at the [illegible] House, experienced during the season of 1856, he respectfully asks for a continuance of it at the "JONES HOUSE."

THE EYE.

I DO HEREBY CERTIFY THAT MY LITTLE daughter has been seriously affected with disease of the eye, which resulted in opacity and ulceration of the Cornea, that produced such a high grade of inflammation and pain, that she was pronounced incurable, and when I called to see Dr. Smith at the St. Charles Hotel, I had but little faith in his curing her. She can now see as perfectly as any one, her eye being clear of all the opacity and inflammation. I consider her perfectly cured, and believe Dr. Smith's remedies for disease of eye unparalleled in medical science. Very cheerfully, THOMAS SAULS, Tunnel street, Pittsburgh.

THE EYE.—A few weeks since, I was led into the office of Dr. Smith, at the St. Charles Hotel, perfectly blind, and although I have been under the treatment only a short time, I can now go without a guide, and find my sight rapidly improving. I believe Dr. Smith will cure me perfectly. NICHOLAS GROUTT.

"HE THAT HATH EARS TO HEAR, LET HIM HEAR."—This is to certify that I have been laboring under deafness for four years, so much so that at times I was nearly entirely deaf, and continually troubled with a disagreeable noise and ringing in my ears that completely disqualified me for the enjoyment of society. Having been under the treatment of Dr. J. L. Smith, who is stopping at the St. Charles Hotel, for about one month I find my hearing perfectly restored, and can cheerfully recommend Dr. Smith to the public as a successful Aurist. SHINGLE MILL.

THE SHINGLE MILL SPOKEN OF IN the "Chronicle," of yesterday, is still on exhibition at APPLEGATE'S GREAT WESTERN PLANING MILLS, corner of Marbury and Penn streets, and is said by the many persons who visit it, to be the very best machine of the kind yet exhibited in the city. It is also, claimed, by the Proprietors, 1st, it is, first, the cheapest Mill, by one-half, ever offered in this country. 2d, That from 20 to 30 shingles per minute can be made by it. 3d, That the shingles are more perfect, and will bring a better price than others in the market. 4th, That they can make Shingles out of any and all kinds of timber. 5th, That they can make as good, if not a better Shingle out of timber that cannot be used by other machines, as they can out of clear stuff. 6th, Any person can make a perfect shingle on it the first trial. 7th, That they can furnish the Mill, with the right to use it, for about the prime cost of other Mills. All they ask to prove the above facts, call at the place above named, or at the ST.
