THE BEAVER ARGUS

October 8th, 1866.

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

Wm. Brannan, Jan. 54 Fifth st., Pittsburg is the authorized agent for the Argus in that city.

Shawls—a large assortment at Fortune's Red Front, in Rochester.

In Advance.—We this week issue our paper on Monday—two days in advance of our regular publication day. Several reasons combine to urge us to do so.

Blankets, grey and white, cheap, at Fortune's.

Mr. Editor:—I see by the last Local that "Captain" D. M. Donahoo has become disgusted with the Secesterial business, and has taken to exhibiting curious eggs. This is clever, and we wish him all the success imaginable. I think he will get along well in his new vocation.

Go early and secure your fall and winter goods, and save money, at Fortune's cheap store, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Agricultural.

The Board of Managers of the Beaver County Agricultural Society will meet at the Court House, on Wednesday, Oct. 10th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is requested, for the purpose of settling all accounts pertaining to the Fair. By order,

WM. S. BARCLAY, Sec'y.

Balmoral & hoop skirts, great bargains at Fortune's, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Excellent Apples.—Mr. John Hultz, of Brighton township, presented us last week with a basket of most excellent apples. There were some eight or ten different varieties of them, and all grafted fruit. Mr. H. informs us that his apple crop this year will amount to about five hundred baskets. He will please accept our thanks for the favor.

See Fortune's new advertisement in another column.

Meeting at Darlington.—The Union meeting at Darlington on Wednesday last, although but little preparation was made, was well attended. The delegations from this place, Sharon, &c., numbered about one hundred.—Speeches were made in the afternoon by Col. A. W. Taylor, Rev. A. B. Bradford, and Ross Forward, Esq. At night the audience was addressed by J. S. Rutan, Esq., and Rev. A. Taylor. Our friends in that county will poll an increased vote on to-morrow.

Hosiery and gloves, cheaper than ever, at Fortune's.

Cabinet Organs.—We know that we are doing schools a good service by calling attention to the Cabinet Organ manufactured by Messrs. Mason & Hamlin. The versatility of music in the school room is established beyond dispute. Into many schools instruments have already been introduced, and have carried with them great pleasure and profit. An effective and durable instrument has long been a desideratum. The very thing wanted is now supplied by Messrs. Mason & Hamlin. We have carefully examined the Cabinet Organ, and are delighted with it. It has a powerful yet sweet tone, an excellent swell, a bellows that works with great ease, and a case which is very neat and strong. The small price at which it is offered for sale, puts it within the reach of almost every school. Teachers who desire to obtain an instrument for their private use, and cannot afford to purchase a good piano, will find in the Cabinet Organ an admirable substitute.—Massachusetts Teacher.

Dry Goods, cheaper than ever, at Fortune's, in the Diamond, Rochester.

Mr. Editor: My profession is not politics, and I pay but little attention to political affairs. But I was a not uninterested spectator of the two political mass meetings held in Beaver recently, and I could not but remark the contrast in point of morals between that of the 11th of September and that of the 2d of October. The first under all the discouraging circumstances of the weather, was enthusiastic but quiet and orderly. I saw no rioting, no fighting, no evidence of the influence of whisky there.

The latter was large and equally enthusiastic, but any one solicitous for the good name of the county must have been mortified by the conduct of many of the participants. As the procession defiled along the streets, "King Alcohol seemed to reign supreme." Drunken men rode wildly hither and thither, and the grossest profanity greeted the ear upon every hand. Ladies standing upon the sidewalk were rudely insulted, and the baldest rowdyism was indulged in by persons in the garb of gentlemen. Even the women in some of the wagons could not refrain from scurility, and when the meeting adjourned, for lack of other diversion, the Democracy took to breaking each others heads, and bloody noses were frequent.

I asked myself why is this? Why should a political gathering of one party differ from one of another in its moral aspect? Can you answer the question, Mr. Editor? To my mind there was but one answer—that the religion, virtue and intelligence of the county were represented on the 11th, its impiety, licentiousness and ignorance on the 2d.

J. M. L.

Boots and Shoes, cheaper than the cheapest, at Fortune's, in Rochester.

Hats and caps, cheaper than ever, at Fortune's Red Front, Rochester.

THE BATTLE AT THE BALLOT-BOX.

The time is approaching and soon will decide,
Whether free born shall triumph o'er treason and pride.
Crushed to the dust, our banners shall be
Perhaps the hope of the loyal and free.

Rouse up every patriot, stand firm to the last,
March forth in stern columns, defying the blast
Of foul-mouthed aspersion and high handed wrong,
With Union your watchword and Freedom your song.

Come forth in your manhood and dignified might,
Give your vote for your country! for truth and the right!
Let the "copperheads" know, when a freeman decides,
That Hessen approves and the Union abides.

Let the foe feel the vengeance of each blow you deal;
The ballot is strong as the bright burnished steel,
And traitors shall cower as they read in each eye
The thrilling decision, "We conquer or die!"

That Flag Affair.—The Local puts out blowers a great deal about an affair that occurred between Capt. Gillis and Rev. J. M. Smith's lady on the day of the coppery demonstration in this place, in relation to his tying a rope to one of the trees in front of her dwelling.

If what occurred or was said on that day between Mrs. Smith and Capt. Gillis redounds any to his own honor or to the advantage of the party that he showed such willingness to serve at that time, we are sure they are welcome to all the glory and profit which the enterprise naturally brings; but as Capt. Gillis is a comparative stranger here, and as he is moreover a church member and attached to one of the religous bodies of Beaver, we wish to say very quietly to him that five-sixths of the church members and church patrons of all the denominations in Beaver and vicinity, believe that Mrs. Smith was right in what she insisted upon that day, and that he was wrong; and that five-sixths of those who applaud his conduct in that particular are neither church members nor recognize gospel claims.

This is the verdict of the people of this locality on the flag affair of Tuesday last, in this place, and the fact that Capt. Gillis and his friends were the first to give publicity to the matter is proof that neither himself nor they understand the character of the people among whom they reside.

Let Capt. Gillis judge his own case, and he can perhaps easily see whether this opinion of the better class of our people is a proper or an improper one; suppose the Union men of Beaver on Saturday next make up their minds to have a demonstration in honor of their victory on the preceding Tuesday; and suppose too that Mrs Smith would feel like taking part in the proceedings, and would accordingly propose to swing a flag across the street by tying one end of the line to the tree by her house and the other end to the tree by Capt. Gillis' door. The Capt. would of course object; Mrs. Smith would insist; and we fancy that the dispute would come to an end by Capt. Gillis declaring that the line could only go up over his dead body.

Or, suppose again, that our friend Henry Hice, Esq., should feel a little jubilant over the result of the election and manifest his delight by proposing to stretch a flag from one of the trees in front of his house to another by the dwelling of Sam B. Wilson, Esq. Mr. Wilson would undoubtedly object, and there is no intelligent man or woman in Beaver that would condemn him for so doing.

We repeat then that if Capt. Gillis and his friends are satisfied with the position this social impropriety, and, perhaps, legal misdemeanor, has placed him in, we are content also. If it suits him to have his conduct here approved by the irreverent and irreligious portion of the community, and disapproved by those who wish to deal justly and labor to do right, it will also suit us and the party with which we act.

A Prompt and Honorable Transaction.—The Niagara Fire Insurance Company, of the city of New York, paid their losses, $70,000 and upward, within one week after the great fire in Portland, besides paying $1000 toward the relief of uninsured sufferers.—Such promptness will increase confidence in an excellent company. Mr. J. M'Clure, of Beaver, is the agent of the Niagara for this locality.

Lost.—On the 6th inst., between Rochester and Beaver, a lady lost a port-monie, containing $4 in bills and $1,50 in silver. Any person finding said port-monie and leaving it at this office will be liberally rewarded.

A Warning to Young Men

You are just starting in life, with the world all before you, and when and how to chose. Beware how you connect your fortunes with a decayed and dishonored party, indelibly stained with treason, and upon whose tombstone the historian will write: "False to liberty, false to its country, and false to the age in which it lived." The Democratic party has committed a crime for which history has no pardon, and the memories of men no forgetfulness; whose colors grow darker from age to age, and for which the execrations of mankind become more bitter from generation to generation.—[Governor Morton.

THE SOLDIERS' LEAGUE.

The undersigned, being honorably discharged Soldiers of Beaver county, and having formed ourselves into a League, do hereby declare our purpose to vote for no man at the approaching election, who was not with us either in person or spirit while at the front, and having so declared, we further agree to support our comrade in battle," Gen. Geary, for Governor of Pennsylvania, and to do all that is legitimate and honorable to secure his election.

The deceased was one of that numerous body of patriotic men who contracted disease in the prison pen at Andersonville, and which eventually cost him his life.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

WHERE TO BUY THE

CABINET ORGAN

It is a general feeling among those about to purchase musical instruments, that were they in direct communication with the factory they would have a greater opportunity for selecting a fresh and perfect instrument, than it would be possible to obtain from any agency. The subscriber would say, that to obviate this difficulty, and afford persons at a distance the same privileges secured to those near the factory, messrs. Mason & Hamlin have established a number of Wholesale Agencies at important points, where a full supply of all the various styles of Cabinet Organs is constantly kept on hand. This agency in Pittsburgh is a Wholesale one, and purchasers may rely on being served here, as advantageously as at the factory. A competent player and musician is always in attendance at the warerooms of the subscriber to perform on the instruments, exhibit their various powers and qualities, show the different stops and their combinations, and explain their internal construction. All instruments sold in the city are sent to the residence of the purchaser without charge, and those sold out of the city are securely boxed and delivered at the railroad stations or landings in the city, free of expense.

Persons ordering an organ by letter, are assured that as good an instrument will be sent, as if they were here to select it personally; the subscribers considering themselves bound by honor and interest to select and forward none other than the very best of the style ordered.

Caution to Purchasers.—The high reputation of the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, and the extensive demand for them, has frequently induced dealers to represent that other instruments are the same thing, that there is no essential difference between the Cabinet Organs and the organs with various other names made by other makers. This is not true. Several inventions, from which arise the chief excellences of the instrument, are peculiar to the Cabinet Organ; for, being patented and controlled by Mason & Ham lin, they cannot be used by other makers. It is therefore not merely from more thorough workmanship and better material, that the Cabinet Organ derives its superiority (though much is derived from these) but there are essential differences of construction, the right to employ which is the property of its manufacturers.

Purchasers should be careful to observe that the words Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ are on the name board of each instrument in full.

When a dealer represents any other instrument as a Cabinet Organ, or as "the same thing," it is almost always an attempt to sell an inferior instrument on which he can make a larger profit.

The subscribers will be happy to receive communications from any one that desires further information about the Cabinet Organ, and are anxious to put into the hands of everybody, whether intending to purchase an instrument or not, a copy of the circular, which contains a vast amount of interesting musical information. Copies mailed free to any address.
