Easter Sunday.—Our young readers will hear with joy that Easter comes this year on the 12th of April, next Sunday, and they had better be making preparations for that important occasion. We have thought but the eggs will have to suffer terribly on that day.

A New Borough.—Baden, in this county, has been incorporated as a borough. The citizens of that place petitioned the Legislature some time ago to pass an act of incorporation for them. The request was granted, and the Governor, a few days ago, approved the bill. The new borough will be called Baden as heretofore.

Attention is directed to the law card of Messrs. Cunningham & Kuhn, in another column. They are two intelligent gentlemen, and will take pleasure in serving the public in their professional capacity.—Their office is in the room formerly occupied by the late firm of Cunningham.

An Apology.—Our readers will please bear with us a little while. We have more advertisements in hand than we should have, but the people are convinced where to advertise, and we have no alternative but to turn them away. If this condition of things should continue, we shall be obliged to buy a power-press, enlarge our paper, and extend our operations generally.

A Telling Speech.—A Bridgewater cop, a few evenings ago was descanting eloquently against negro suffrage, when a "Rad" stepped up, and retorted thus: "You talk against negro suffrage! Why, you loaf with negroes, smoke with negroes, eat with negroes, drink with negroes and play cards with them. After thus making them your equal, you have the impudence of them to say that you can't let them rote with you." After this telling shot Mr. cop subsided, and he was applauded quite heartily by the crowd that had lit the exciting debate gathered around.

The Grain Crop.—During our term of Court we conversed with quite a number of our country acquaintances in relation to the winter grain, and with only an exception, they represented the wheat and rye looking healthy, and the prospect of a fine country for rye. The deep snow of the winter served to protect it from freezing, but kept the ground in a condition to cause the grain to grow early in the whole season. If, therefore, no mishap happens the future, we look for flour to "durable prices" inside of a few months. So mote it be.

A Run Off.—A spotted mare belonging to Hart Lemon, of Sharon, this county, ran away on Monday of last week. She was hitched to a one horse spring wagon, and started on the "run" from "Mill Hill" north of Beaver. She came "pitching and kicking," and after "swinging around the circle" for some time, she was brought to a halt in front of Mr. Stoner's office. The wagon was pretty badly smashed up, a portion of it was left outside of the limits of Beaver before her entry into town.

A Hint to Parents.—A great many small boys have taken it convenient to be at the Railroad bridge at this place on the arrival and departure of trains. Many of them catch hold of and ride to the village they are in opposition. They have been in the habit of doing this for some time past, and the wonder is that some of them have not already been killed or injured in consequence of their temerity. Mr. Stoner requests us to say to the parents of these boys to make an effort to keep them away from the bridge, when not on business. By heeding this caution a life or a limb may be saved. On Saturdays, in particular, they gather there in large bodies.

Lo! The Poor Musician.—Passing down Market street last Wednesday, we noticed a specimen of the Italian street musician, with a large dilapidated old harp strapped on his back, and almost bearing him to the ground. Any persons "investing" a small amount of change in his behalf, is entitled to hear all the music he could produce, which we believe was but one tune, and that one "Lanigan's Ball" has long since been worn out by constant usage. To the Italian race we are indebted for much of our street fame, a source of annoyance under any circumstances. The production of this tune is an excellent test for patience, and those who wish to cultivate that virtue cannot better listen to "Lanigan's Ball" "thumped" on a harp. For our own part, we hope we may never be called upon to listen to such sounds again.

The Grove Murder Trial.—Mr. Milo Grove, residing in Brighton township, this county, and father of the young man who was shot some time ago on the steamer Arcadilio, lying at Cairo, by a man named Ganey, received a telegram last week, to the effect that Court would convene in that city, on the 6th of this month (last Monday). Mr. G. has secured the services of an able lawyer in that city, and all the necessary preparations were made for the trial.

Mr. Grove, we believe, has abandoned the idea of attending the trial of Swaney, as his presence would be required, and by so doing he would be incurring useless expense.

An Organ "Galloping" into Favor.—A most remarkable piece of musical mechanism, in the shape of an organ, representing the vox humana, (human voice,) is creeping, or rather galloping, into public favor. It is known as the "Burdett Organ," whose tones, not tones merely or abstractly considered as such, but whose utterances are made to excite almost every emotion of the human heart, whether of joy or of sorrow, at the will of the performer, and cause the listener to wonder how it lives without eating and drinking like human beings. Those enterprising gentlemen, H. Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburgh, have it for sale, and would be pleased to exhibit to those who desire to witness its powers, the wonderful capacity it possesses to inspire our minds, stir our hearts, and mingle its tender and touching sympathies with those of the human breast. It is said that one lady, on visiting this amazing specimen of human invention, for the second time, so far forgot herself as to actually address it—"Good morning, Sister." Eastern exchange paper. [apr 1-6t.

Complimentary.—The Pittsburgh Commercial of the 31st contains this flattering notice of the new minister in the M. E. Church of this place:

The Rev. James Hollingshead has severed his connection with the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, Fifth ward, Allegheny, (formerly Manchester). The farewell services took place on Sabbath evening. The Church was crowded in every part, even the aisles being filled with benches and chairs. The services were opened by the choir, under the leadership of the efficient chorister, Prof. Wagsta", singing the beautiful and appropriate anthem "Shall we know each other there." Mr. Hollingshead took for his text: "Finally, brethren farewell," and delivered a powerful, interesting and highly instructive sermon. His remarks showed that he leaves his congregation with reluctancy, and the reception of the discourse by the congregation indicated that he bids adieu beloved by all. He has worshiped with this congregation for two years and has been most successful. During his ministry the congregation have built the large and beautiful edifice they now occupy, and nearly doubled in membership. By appointment of the Methodist Episcopal Conference held lately at Greensburg, the Rev. Mr Hollingshead goes to Beaver, Pa., and Rev. J. J. McIlyvar takes his place in Allegheny. We hope he may find as many friends in his new appointment as he leaves behind.

Grant Club at New Brighton and Vicinity.—At a meeting of the Grant Club of New Brighton and vicinity, held at Capt. Boyle' rooms, in New Brighton on the evening of March 31, for the purpose of perfecting an organization, the following officers were elected:

PRESIDENT, ..... Dr. David Stanton.
Vice Presidents—1st Ward, Geo. S. Barker, C. K. Chamberlain.
Vice Presidents—2d Ward, John C. Boyle, J. S. Winans.
Vice Presidents—3d Ward, Chas. Merrick, John Pugh.
Vice Presidents—Fallston, E. G. Evans, Henry Lloyd.
Vice Presidents—Beaver Falls, Chamberlin White, H. C. Patterson.
SECRETARY, ..... E. A. Noble.
Assistant Secretary, John F. Price.
Corresponding Secretary, G. L. Eberhart.
Treasurer, R. E. Hoops.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We are about entering upon another Presidential campaign, Resolved,

1st. That we recognize but two parties engaged in the canvass, viz: The Republican party based upon the eternal principles of humanity, justice and equal rights, and the so called and misc-called Democratic party, the characteristic principles of which appear to be their innate craving for the pelf and plunder of office; their devoted reverence for the "Lost cause," their undying hatred of the Negro race and their new dogma of the repudiation of the national debt.

2d. That as the rebellion was a legitimate offspring of Slavery and treason, and its suppression a holy work wrought by the aid of Providence, it behooves us as conservators of the great good purchased by the blood of our country's bravest sons, to watch that it be not frittered away by corrupt or futile legislation.

3d. That as we have an abiding faith in our country's honor, we have no fear that she will ever in any manner repudiate the national debt.

4th. That as we believe in the language of Andrew Johnson, that Traitors should be punished the Senate of the United States should lose no time in deposing the man who has shown himself so base a traitor to his country and the principles upon which he was elected Vice President.

5th. That the fearless, energetic and conscientious discharge of duty manifested by Edwin M. Stanton gives evidence of a disinterested patriotism rarely shown in the annals of history.

6th. That as Gen. U. S. Grant was the great spirit in bringing the rebellion to a close he should continue to act as the leader in the work of reconstruction and he is therefore our choice for the next Presidency.

7th. That for Vice President our choice would be a man of sterling integrity and unalloyed patriotism, whose election would furnish to the assassin no inducement for the murder of the President.

E. A. NOBLE,
Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. H. M. R. LARWILL, DIED MARCH 12, 1868.

"Gone through the great gate that swings backward into Eternity."

Gone to that strange wierd land,
The silent city where all tears shall cease;
Led kindly, gently by Death's loving hand
In glad release.
To the green highlands and still waves where dwells
Eternal peace.

Gone where the wise and great
And loved of old are thy companions now;
In God's bright mea low-lands forevermore!
Learning strange wisdom with untroubled brow;
The weary, throbbing, suffering restless heart
Is quiet now.

Fearless wert thou, and bold;
Didst thou shrink backward from the River's roar?
Oh, sister, were the billows icy cold?
And was it long till thou hadst gained the shore?
Vain questioning, dear dumb lips, ye'll answer me,
Ah, nevermore.

Gone! every wandering wind,
Mournfully sighing round the homestead eaves,
Whispereth thee will come again no more;
And softly sobbing rain of spring-time grieves,
And moist with dewy freshness, morn awakes
The budding leaves.

Earth's weary ones may throng,
And sorrowfully tread life's wine-press deep,
Yet never while the countless years rollon
Thine eyes shall weep;
Beautiful eyes, before me ye have won
Death's blessed sleep.

LYDIA M. RENO, Rochester, Pa.

A Great Change.—Women in the South, who, six years ago, were not compelled to lace their own shoes, are now forced to do washing and cooking for entire families.

Committed Suicide.—Martin Murray, a day laborer, on the C. & P. Railroad, and a resident of Industry, this county, committed suicide on last Monday one week ago, by shooting himself through the bowels with a pistol. He was upwards of fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and three children. He was laboring under temporary insanity when he committed the rash act.

Another Run Off.—A horse belonging to Mr. John Border, of this place, ran away on last Monday evening, while passing down Seminary street. He was hitched to a one horse wagon at the time, and was driven by Mr. B. After going a short distance, the wagon broke, Mr. Border was "spilled out," and the animal took the nearest route to his stable. Very little damage done.

A Freak of nature occurred in our neighborhood a day or two since which is not seen more than once in a lifetime. A farmer in the vicinity of town lately bought a mare which he understood would foal in June. A few days since she was delivered of a colt AND A MULE! Of course, all three died after that.—This is a case that happens not more than once in a hundred years.—Lawrence Journal.

Free Masonry.—From the report of the proceedings of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, we learn that the order now numbers 215 lodges, with 22,105 members in this State, and that the Grand Lodge numbers 2,000 members. During the past ten years, the Masonic fraternity in Pennsylvania has doubled its strength, and is now in a most flourishing condition, the Grand Master in office being the Hon. Richard Vaux, who is said to be one of the most capable and efficient directors of its affairs that the Masonic body in this State has had for many years. The assets of the Grand Lodge are valued at $601,012, and the new temple, about to be constructed on Broad street, is to be built at an estimated cost of $750,000.

More than Thirteen.—"More than thirteen negro" soldiers deserted to one killed in battle.—Indianapolis Herald.

"More than thirteen" Democrats sneaked to Canada, "to one" killed in the Union army.

"More than thirteen" Democrats rejoiced at a rebel victory "to one" who regretted a Union defeat.

"More than thirteen" Democrats secreted and aided deserters from the Union army "to one" who delivered them over to the lawful authorities.

"More than thirteen," Democrats approved of the starvation of Union Prisoners "to one" who denounced it.

"More than thirteen" Democrats rejoiced at the assassination of President Lincoln "to one" who mourned it.

"More than thirteen" Democrats applaud President Johnson as a patriot "to one" who denounces him as an unprincipled renegade.

"More than thirteen" Democrats would to-day vote for Jeff Davis for President of the United States "to one" who would vote for Gen. Grant.—Peru Republican.

A Drunkard Struck Dumb.—The Augusta (Ga.) Banner says: A gentleman who resides in Wilkes county, and was returning home from Augusta, recently, entirely lost the power of speech soon after the train left Augusta. We heard him attempting to talk soon after he got on the train, and in a few minutes he could not articulate a word. He was in the possession of all other facilities, but his lips were literally sealed. His distress was very touching and he wrote replies to questions addressed him by the passengers, and tried to bear up under the terrible visitation. He said that he had been on a spree. He hoped it was only a species of delirium and would wear off with rest and sleep. He said he had once been partially deprived of his speech before, for a short time, in Virginia. His case attracted much attention among the passengers, several of whom knew him and were satisfied that he was not using deception.—His case was a most forcible illustration of the summary and terrible manner in which nature sometimes punishes a violation of her laws.

Brady & Co., Bankers, corner of Fourth and Wood Sts., Pittsburgh, Pa., have placed in our hands the following circular, which shows the character of all loans made to the Government during and since the war.—As a reference it will be valuable, and should be preserved by all who choose to see it:

The Free Railroad Law.—The following reasons were filed with the clerk of the House when the vote on the Free Railroad Conference Committee report was taken:

We voted for the report of the committee for the reason, 1. It has been clearly established by the Senate refusing to increase its committee of conference, as requested by the House, that this is the best compromise we can make with the Senate; and 2. Believing the bill as reported to be better than no bill—or, in other words, if it does no good, it will do no harm; and 3. It is one step in advance of former legislation; and as all concede we can do no better, we vote "aye."

(Signed,) E. W. DAVIS.
THOS. NICHOLSON.

The bill here referred to was vetoed by the Governor, returned to the Legislature, amended, passed by both Houses, then approved by Governor Geary, and is now a law. Of the amended bill the Pittsburgh Commercial says:

"The Free Railroad bill having been amended to obviate the objections of the Governor, and it having been passed by both branches of the Legislature, the question is disposed of for the present session. Though not what was desired the bill is a great step forward."

Straws!—They show the way of the wind. The following proves something at least, if true. It indicates that the wind is blowing, if not the direction of the wind. The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Evening Chronicle says:

A few days ago, a lady teacher in the city here, who has among her pupils two little daughters of Mrs. Stover, who, it will be remembered, is a daughter of President Johnson, requested each of her pupils to ascertain at home whether they would continue in her school the next quarter, which commences again within a couple of weeks. The little Misses Stover returned the next day and promptly told the lady that they were not coming to school any more. When questioned as to the reason, with child-like simplicity, said:

"Grandpa says we are going to move back to Tennessee in April!"

Yesterday, on the river bank, in the upper portion of Tionesta, was seen a white man lying on the ground, drunk and helpless and attended and taken care of by a sober black man. Now! suppose that some "mongrel," some "Rump Congressman" should attempt to make these men equal in respectability, how much would the negro gain by being made equal to the white man? how much would the white man lose by being made equal to the negro?—Tionesta (Pa.) Bee.

March Snows.—It is said that if the snows of March cling to the boughs of trees, there will be a plentiful supply of fruit. If this be true, we ought to rejoice in the prospect for the coming season, for the snow of March did cling to the boughs.

Died.

OBITUARY.

FISHER—March 20th, 1868, after a short but painful illness, Miss Mahala Fisher, in the 18th year of her age.

We have again seen the young and beautiful laid in the silent tomb. And our hearts were filled with sorrow, while we looked on the face of the dead, and remembered how recently she had been the light of our social circle, and her happy voice had been heard among us. But that voice is now hushed in death and the form upon which we looked with admiration, is laid in the grave. And while these sad thoughts fill our hearts with sorrow, we cannot but realize the truth, that "there is an end of all earthly perfection." We cannot but mourn when called to part with one so lovely. But our sorrow for her is made lighter while we think of her calm and peaceful death. We have before stood by the bedside of the dying; but we never before witnessed a scene so impressive, nor such manifestations of the Savior's presence. When the hour of death was fast approaching, her spirit seemed lifted above her sorrow and suffering here; and her face, beautiful, even in death, was radiant with smiles that were not of earth, as she sung the Redeemer's praise and spoke of his love. Angels seemed hovering around her, presenting bright visions of the world to come; and waiting to guide her through the valley of the shadow of death, which seemed but a bright pathway leading to Heaven, "Where sorrow and pain never enter, and the weary are at rest."

Alas, her life on earth is o'er,
And we will see her here no more,
But how could we wish to retain
Her spirit from its endless gain?

God who called her in his love,
To his heavenly home above;
Kindly released her from all pain,
And could we wish her to remain?

Ah no, the voice of love replies,
And bids us look beyond the skies;
Where Angels guard with watchful care,
The lov'd who dwell with Jesus there. H.

HEALTH GIVING WINE.

Some time since Mr. A. Speer of Passaic, N. J., presented us with a bottle of his Port Grape Wine. In our turn we presented it to a friend whose health is feeble. After giving the wine a few trials, our friend assures us he derived marked benefit from its use. We find that many invalids in this city are using Speer's Port Grape Wine with the same beneficial results.

Druggists keep it. [2t.
