A. R. Moore, Esq., temporarily in the oil regions of this State, has our thanks for several Tidioute and Warren papers.

Mr. Wm. Smith of Washington Penn'a., lately sold a young man in his employ to grease the wagon. He did grease it, and grease it effectually—tongue, axles, bed and cushions.

Our Thanks are due Henry Goehring, Esq., of New Sewickly township, for a basket of ripe apples.—They were of the "July sweets" variety, and decidedly pleasant "to take."

At a late Republican procession in Washington county, the Democrats threw stones at and otherwise harrassed the rear of the column. We are not surprised at this. It is just what they were employed in during the war.

A Straw.—A vote was taken last week on the steamer running from Baltimore to Washington, filled with the men bound for the scene of the prize fight between Collyer and Edwards. Here is the result:—Seymour 98; Grant 4. Rough, isn't it?

Dr. Johnson said, "Young Man! study while you are young." We advise all young persons to get an education. You can get more for your time and money at the State Normal School at Edinboro than at any other institution known to us.

Teacher Selected.—Miss Clara Donahoo of Beaver was selected on last Friday Evening by the school directors of this place to take charge of room No. 3 in our public school, for the remainder of the present school year. School opened on last Monday, under favorable auspices.

Crawford, the confederate nominee for Congress, went south to aid the rebels. He was an open secessionist during the war. His friends never denied it and he does not deny it now. A Knight of the Golden Circle would make a fine representative in Congress from the loyal 24th District!—Washington Reporter.

Hopewell Tp.—The Republicans of Hopewell township, this county, held a meeting at New Sheffield on last Monday night. Messrs. Eberhart and Purvis were selected as the speakers. We have not heard the particulars of the meeting but have scarcely a doubt but that it was a success, as there is no discount on the Hopewell Republicans.

Serious Accident.—On Tuesday evening last, while Mary Hopkins was crossing the race on a plank at the paper mill above Beaver Falls, she slipped, and fell the distance of 15 feet and broke her collar bone, sprained her wrist, and bruised herself considerably. A physician was called in, and she is now recovering slowly.

Our Widows and Orphans.—The incomes of the widows and orphans who are pensioned because their husbands or fathers were killed by the rebels, depend upon the credit of the Government. The Democracy advocate practical repudiation, which will destroy this credit. The rebels would rejoice to beggar the survivors of those whom they starved in prison.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

I notice improvements in the streets of Bridgewater and Rochester, which will add much to the comfort of travelers in both places. It would be pleasant should the same spirit seize our council. We are sadly in need of side walks in this borough. It would be advisable to pass an ordinance compelling people to pave their property, would it not? CITIZEN.

Personal.—Dr. F. F. Davis, of Oil City, and the genial editor of the Oil City Republican was in town last week on a visit to some relatives residing in this vicinity. He reports the Republican fires to be burning brightly in Venango county, and claims that that county will give a heavier majority for our ticket this year than it ever did before. We are glad to learn that the Dr. is doing a good business in the oil regions.—He deserves success and is receiving it.

OHIO TOWNSHIP, BEAVER CO., PA., August 28th, 1868.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

When Mr. Crawford, the Democratic candidate for Congress, and his Beaver town friends come out here again to speak to the wind, as they did on last Monday night, please tell them to keep their whisky bottle a little more private when they are about our wells.—We don't want our children to see the "critter," much less learn to imbibe the ugly stuff. So asks one, who was THERE.

Had his Jaw Broken.—On last Sunday a man named John Flannery was discovered on the outskirts of Beaver, with his under jaw broken, and a number of other severe bruises on the head and neck. He represents that in a fight the night before at Beaver Falls some one used a slung-shot on him and damaged him to the above extent. He lives in or near Industry, this county. His clothes being very bloody, a change of linen was provided, and in the evening he left for his home, at the town above named. He could not give the name of his assailant.

Chippewa Tp.—The Republicans of Chippewa township held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Dunlap's School House, on last Saturday evening.—Large delegations were in attendance from New Brighton and Beaver Falls. Wm. Thomas, Esq., presided. Messrs. Eberhart, Morlan, and Metzgar, all of New Brighton and vicinity, delivered the addresses, which were well received by those present. Chippewa is beginning to wake up to the fact that if we want peace we must elect Grant and Colfax; or, if it is another war we are after, then Seymour and Blair should be our choice.

BLACKHAWK, PA., Aug. 29th, 1868.

Editor Argus: I am informed that the Democrats of Beaver and vicinity have caused a report to be circulated to the effect that I have abandoned the Republican party, and intend supporting their ticket at the fall elections. Allow me to say that all this is false. I am as thorough a Republican now as I ever was in my life, and I never had and have not now the slightest intention of ever supporting a party that is managed and controlled by those who either fought against the country openly or secretly during the rebellion. I shall therefore vote this year as I always have voted heretofore—for the whole Republican ticket, from President down to Trustee of the Academy. ISAIAH MORGAN.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

At a Seymour and Blair meeting held not 5 miles from the Court House, on Saturday evening, after Mr. Crawford had finished his speech the venerable President arose and proposed three cheers for Seymour & Grant. A few sickly, weak cheers went up for Seymour from the aliens, women, and children and a few men, but the cheers for Grant from the hard fisted noble men, were given with a will, and were such as made the welkin ring. The Democracy felt very, very much chagrined to think the venerable Chairman, who has stood the storms of 60 years, and been true to the faith, should show such symptoms of his desire to see the great Captain elected President of the United States. FREEDOM.

The Great American Hair Preparation, valued at home and abroad, a real Hair Restorer or Dressing (in one bottle.) A great triumph of science. MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED, (new style.) Every Druggist sells it. Price, one Dollar. [aug26'68:4t.

SOLDIERS' LAMENT.

'Tis all up with me now;
My race is almost run;
My friends may shout, and curse and pout,
But a victory can't be won.
Grant will win the day,
The people are with him I know,
And all our hopes and Frank Blair's grow
Will only end in woe.

CHORUS.

Oh boys, carry me long
I'm spurned "by the boys in blue,"
They are joined in a band for Grant's the man,
And our pet nigger howl won't do.

Our country is sadly wrong,
'Tis united for Grant I'd vow,
In every place both small and great
They are bound to defeat me too;
The Soldiers are everywhere,
And they can't be gulled by lies,
They are up to snuff and will handle me rough,
So Blair it is no use to try.

CHORUS.

Oh boys, carry me long
I'm spurned "by the boys in blue,"
They are joined in a band for Grant's the man,
And our pet nigger howl won't do.

In every thing we've failed,
The people don't seem to be green,
The Greenback plan is all a sham,
And we have swallowed the scheme.
Our shrieks don't seem to take,
The masses don't mind them a bit,
And our nigger howl and traitorous scowl
Are but a dead cock in the pit.

CHORUS.

Oh boys, carry me long
I'm spurned "by the boys in blue,"
They are joined in a band for Grant's the man,
And our pet nigger howl wont do.

I am sick and sorry and sore,
My heart is bursting with pain,
And the great Grant throng, with shout and song,
Will handle me roughly again;
Oh Policy! what shall I do?
Oh Blair I fear it is so;
With all our lies and shrieks and sighs,
I to Washington never can go.

Rochester Public School.—The addition to the Public School building in Rochester is nearly complete. It consists of four rooms. The entire building as enlarged, will contain eight beautiful school rooms, four of which will be 24x44 and four 24x35 feet in size, and a hall through the house, 9x24 feet. The enlargements and improvements will cost about four thousand (4,000) dollars, and when complete will be the best public school building in the county, and the largest but one. The contractors Messrs. Miller, Dobson & Trax, are entitled to much credit for their energy and promptness in pushing the work to completion in time for the fall term, which will commence on Monday, Sept. 7th, with Prof. J. J. Rockwell principal, and Misses Reno, Tucker, Gray, Moorhead and Decker, assistants.

It is very desirable that all who expect to attend the School should be present promptly at the commencement of the term. Parents and guardians cannot fail to see the importance of this request.

Beaver.—That the Republicans of Beaver county are keenly alive to the great issues of the hour, was amply evidenced by one of the largest political gatherings that ever assembled within its limits, on Friday evening, in the town of Beaver. The people turned out en masse and the meeting grew to such massive proportions that the commodious Court House was found entirely too small for the occasion, and an adjournment to the public grounds surrounding it was rendered necessary. Messrs. Donley and Thos. M. Marshall addressed the meeting. The latter made one of the most powerful speeches of the campaign, and though his remarks filled two hours and a half and extended beyond midnight, the meeting cried, "go on!" "go on!" as he concluded his speech. The Republicans of Beaver county will do their full duty at the approaching election.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Information Wanted.—We have received the following from Hookstown, Pa.: On the 19th day of May, 1868, my husband, Daniel L. Crider, left home on business with the understanding that he would return in one week, but I have never heard of him since.—Mr. Crider's business was peddling notions and jewelry. He is thirty-six years of age, five feet ten inches high, slim and neatly formed, auburn hair, blue eyes, fair complexion and large whiskers. Three of his front teeth are out, and when he left home he wore a light gray suit. He is a fluent talker. Any person seeing this notice and can give any information in regard to my husband will confer a great favor on one that is left very destitute. MALINDA CRIDER.
Hookstown, Beaver Co., Pa., August 24, 1868.

Letter List.—The following letters have remained in the Beaver Post office for one month, uncalled for:

Mrs. Zilla A. Burn, C. S. Buckler, Mr. James Buff (care of Jas. Lenherst), J. M. Burns, Esq.
Mrs. Mary A. Coon.
Mr. Presly Dunlap, Mr. A. A. Davidson.

Republican Rally at Freedom.—The Republicans of Freedom Boro., met on Tuesday evening, Aug. 25th, and were organized by calling Mr. W. W. Kerr to the chair, who introduced J. F. Dravo, Esq., of Beaver. Mr. D. spoke for ¾ of an hour in a clear, concise, and vigorous manner. Compared the Chicago with the Tammany platform, and Grant and Colfax with Seymour and Blair. The Democrats who were present gave him credit, for at least being honest.—Mr. D. is a very argumentative speaker. Prof. G. L. Eberhart of New Brighton was next introduced, who spoke for 50 minutes, scathing cops—many of them went away sore, and didn't like the Prof. After a vote of thanks to the speakers, the meeting adjourned with cheers for Grant and Colfax. The only interruption was some copperhead boys with fife and drums from Rochester, who no doubt were sent here by older cops.

We met again on Friday evening Aug. 28th in the School Hall, and organized a Grant Club by the election of the following officers: President, T. G. Kerr, Esq.; Vice-Presidents, Jno. Paul, Esq.; Jas. Reed, Esq., David Jenkins and Capt. Jas. Bevington; Secretary, Chas. H. Bentel; Corresponding Sec'y., W. W. Kerr; Treasurer, P. Bentel; Executive committee, T. J. Thompson, Capt. A. McDonald, Alf. McCaskey, S. S. Morrison and Esq. Reed. For officers of the company: Capt., Alfred McCaskey; Lieut., Geo. McCaskey; Orderly Seargent, Jas. B. Cole; Ensign, Jno. Biggs. It was then resolved that we hold meetings on Friday evenings of every week. After the transaction of other business the club adjourned with three rousing cheers for the ticket. Expect a good account from Freedom and St. Clair when election days roll around. FREEDOM.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

The Grant and Colfax club of Big Beaver Tp., meets every Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, at Homewood.—The officers are as follows: President, C. P. Wallace; Vice-Presidents, A. Hunter, R. S. Foster and F. F. Smith; Recording Secretary, J. W. Clabaugh; Corresponding Secretary, J. H. Wetherspoon; Treasurer, Frederick Graham; Vigilant Committee, J. C. Chapman, W. H. Wallace and Samuel C. Graham; Committee on arrangements to attend the Mass Meeting in Beaver, Robert Blair, S. M. Andrews, Charles Chapman, James Patterson, H. J. Marshall and John Aley. I think that we have the honor of raising the first Grant and Colfax Pole in the County, if not in the State.

Our Tp. has had the Boro. of New Galilee struck off since our last election, but we will still have 40 of a majority for our State & County ticket, and 50 for Grant & Colfax in November. Our soldiers are nearly all Republicans. Nine out of every ten will vote for Grant and Colfax. We have widows and orphans in our Tp., that are looking to the loyal people to see whether their claims will be turned over to Forest the Butcher or Wade Hampton.

Mr. Editor there was a solemn pledge given by the people when our soldiers left their families that if they fell in battle that their widows and children should be kindly cared for the question is shall we, as a loyal people, remain true to our promise by electing Grant and Colfax or shall we turn the reins of Government over to Forest, Hampton, Vallandigham and the pirate Semmes, as these Rebel gentlemen have been named as a Seymour cabinet.

There is certainly too much patriotism in our beloved country to suffer such a dreadful calamity to befall our Nation.

Big Beaver township was among the first to raise a Company for the three years service, Co. K. 10th Reserves, with the brave Capt. Miller at their head, who fell at the head of his company in the seven days fight before Richmond, where to-day his bones lay bleaching on that memorable battle-field. I could mention a score of incidents that would bring tears from many dear eyes in our township, but one more and I am done for the present. When the call was for nine months men we had a young man, the youngest son of one of our most respected citizens, who was too young to be mustered into the service without the consent of his parents. I, remember of, that noble young man pleading with his mother for her to intercede with his aged father to let him go; and when the father looked at his darling young boy and then at his bleeding country, he gave his consent. At the battle of Fredericksburg he was wounded in the right arm and returned with his company in the following May. Oh! how these aged parents rejoiced that their dear boy had returned to cheer them in their declining days. But when the next call came for more troops William said to his dear parents, "I must leave you again for a short time, my country calls me and I must go;" but at the battle of Coal Harbor he fell mortally wounded, and to-day fills a soldiers grave.

When I think of the Rebel that shot that young man, who to day is a warm supporter of Seymour, I can scarcely realize that any one claiming to be a lover of our Brave Soldiers could vote for Seymour and Blair. P.

THE CAMPAIGN.

A NEW Radical paper, called The Weekly Times has been started in Petersburg, Va.

THE Union boys of St. Paul, Minn., had a glorious meeting on the 18th. Senator Ramsey and others made telling speeches.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard says that the Hon. Nat Boyden, Democratic Congressman from that State, will not support Seymour and Blair.

A GRANT and Colfax pole, 160 feet high, has been raised in Evansville, Ind. The Grant Guards held a grand jollification in honor of the event.

THE Republican State Central Committee of Iowa are making arrangements for two grand barbacues in each Congressional District in the State.

GEN. John M. Palmer addressed a tremendous Republican mass meeting at Terre Haute, Ind., on the 21st inst. A dispatch from there says that his speech will have great effect.

FIFTEEN hundred Republican voters raised a Grant and Colfax pole over 150 feet high, in Elizabeth, Harrison County, Ind., on the 20th inst. The boys out that way mean business.

KITTERY, Me., was alive with Republican enthusiasm on the 21st inst. The Hon. John Lynch spoke for an hour, and was followed by the Hon. R. A. Storrs of Chicago in an eloquent and powerful speech.

A GRAND Republican mass meeting was held at Skowhegan, Me., on the 20th inst. The Hon. James G. Blaine, ex-Senator Creswell of Md., Judge Kelly of Penn., and the Hon. Lot M. Morrell were the speakers.

A LARGE and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at Janesville, Wis., on the 21st inst. Addresses were made by the Hon. C. G. Williams, and Col. McHenry. The campaign in Wisconsin is opened vigorously.

THE Republicans of New-Albany, Ind., had an old-fashioned "Tippecanoe" rally on the 20th inst. Col. Wilson and others addressed an immense crowd.—The boys are making a square stand-up fight, and mean to rescue the city from Democratic misrule.

THE Hon. George W. Woodward was in Susquehanna County, the other day. On the train to Scranton a vote was taken, resulting in 43 for Grant, to 21 for Seymour. Judge Woodward was not satisfied, when some one suggested to him "to try the gravel train."

THE Tanners of Omaha, Neb., carry the old battle-flag of the First Nebraska Cavalry, which bears the following honors: "Milford," "Donelson," "Shiloh," "Corinth," "Cape Girardeau," "Chalk Bluff," "Sylamore," "Redbank," "Jacksonport," and "Clarendon." It is riddled with bullet-holes.

FIVE thousand freemen held a glorious Republican ratification meeting on the bluffs at Memphis, Tenn., on the 20th inst. Intense enthusiasm was manifested. The colored voters were present in force. Speeches were made by Gen. W. J. Smith, Col. W. H. Wood, Col. H. E. Hudson, and the Hon. Barbour Lewis.

AN immense Republican mass meeting was held at Allentown, Pa., on the afternoon and evening of the 22d. Cols. John W. Forney and James Worrell gave the Copperheads a lively turning, to the intense delight of loyal thousands. The whole population seemed to be out, men, women and children. It is conceded that no more effective meeting was ever held in Allentown.

THE Hon. John A. Kasson has consented to take the stump for the campaign in Iowa, and a list of appointments has been announced for him, beginning at Mount Pleasant on the 28th. From there he will work toward Northern Iowa, speaking at Dubuque, Nashua, McGregor, Cedar Falls, and other points. Mr. Kasson has no superior as a speaker in the State, and will do brilliant service for the ticket.

The Providence Press says: Mr David Makepeace of Norton, Mass., will be 101 years old in the month of September next. He still does work on his farm, and last July mowed on a wager against a gentleman of 87 years of age, beating him about a rod. He has voted for every President of the United States, and intends to vote for Grant and Colfax at the coming election.—He voted for Gen. Washington at his second term of office, and remembers many incidents connected with our war of independence.

SATURDAY, the 15th, was a gala day for the Republicans of Brownstown, Ind. The whole country there abouts was emptied into Brownstown. Gen. Kimbal and Will. Cumback walked into the Rebel Democracy in a style that excited the utmost enthusiasm. The procession was led by 120 young ladies and gentlemen in uniform of red, white, and blue, and following them the several township delegations, making a procession of more than one-half mile long with banners flying, music, song and shouting along the line. The Democrats looked as if they had lost their mothers.

A GENTLEMAN who went over the Erie Road to New York a few days since relates the following: "In the smoking car a political discussion arose. Among those present were some 12 or 15 Jewish merchants from Cincinnati. All of these but a single one pronounced themselves strongly for Grant, and one proposed taking a vote in the car, which was done, and resulted, thirty for Grant and seven for Seymour.—He and the Seymour man, with a third to see fair play on both sides, then proceeded through the entire train and polled the passengers. The vote stood 27 for Seymour against 70 for Grant. The Republican Jews were immensely delighted and enthusiastic over the result.

AT the Democratic Convention at Lagrange, Kentucky, after several speeches, on attempting the organization, the Confederates were persistent in attempting to exclude certain Federal officers from taking part in the proceedings. Gen. Walter Whittaker, late of the Union army, made a vigorous protest, and on his claims being treated with contempt, made the following energetic speech:

"I here and now denounce and desert your party.—I cannot do justice to myself and the country and stay with such a corrupt party as you have become here to-day. You men who have fought in the Southern army come back here to-day with the blood boiling in your veins to exclude from your councils, me, who fought, and have the character of some bravery, to protect your homes and firesides, and who exerted himself in defense of the families of those who had left their homes. I am here and intend to be heard.

GEN. Carl Schurz has finished his tour in Indiana.—The Missouri Democrat says: "He gives a very encouraging account of things there. In the close and Democratic Counties and Districts, our friends are thoroughly alive and hard at work, and are everywhere gaining. The strong Republican Counties and Districts are less fully aroused, and, assured of success in their local tickets, they do not yet feel the importance of swelling the majority for the State ticket as far as possible, but he believes that this over-confidence will be supplanted by thorough and determined zeal as the last month of the canvass opens. The large gains, already apparent, give strong ground for belief that the State can be carried by faithful effort. From the Indiana papers we have learned that Gen. Schurz has been very warmly received, that the Germans have gathered in great numbers to hear him, and that his speeches have given very great aid to the cause."

A Hint to Ladies.—It is a distinguished characteristic of a cultivated woman to adorn and beautify her person. In proportion as she becomes refined or debased, she pays more or less regard to her personal appearance. The love of admiration is, as it ought to be, strong in every woman's nature, and hence it is that the decoration of her person is always regarded as of paramount importance. The three most beautiful things on earth are women, children and flowers—each equally by nature pure and attractive. Woman knows she is beautiful, she loves to be admired by man; endeavors to render herself as attractive as possible to man's eyes, and therefore it is that she avails herself of all the benefits of dress and ornaments. Woman is gifted by nature with great natural attractions. Her complexion is, if not ruined by paint and powder, fair and delicate, her hair abundant and lustrous, and her form the very perfection of grace and loveliness. Woman's chief ornament is her hair. No matter how regular the contour of the features may be—how lustrous the eye—how sweet the voice or graceful the form, if the hair be not soft, glossy and beautiful, the chief attraction is wanting. A lady remarkable for the beauty of her hair, remarked in our hearing, the other day, that she owed to the moderate and constant use of "Barrett's Hair Restorative" a deep obligation, for by it she had become locally famous for the abundance and lustre of her hair.—Using it constantly ourselves we can add our testimony that as a dressing and restorative combined Barrett's is superior to any Hair Preparation we have ever used. It is reasonable in price, too, costing only one dollar for a large bottle full of the mixture.—Cincinnati Sunday Globe.

Laying A Corner Stone.—We are requested to state that the corner stone of the German Evangelical Luthern St. Paul's Church, of Rochester, this county, will be laid on the 10th of September, at 3 P. M.

All friends of christianity are respectfully invited to be present on the occasion.
