Home and Around.

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP R.R.—SPRING ARRANGEMENT.—TIME TABLE.—On and after April 29th, passenger trains will arrive and depart as follows:

Mail Train leaves Mt. Dallas at 1.00 p. m., arrives at Huntingdon at 4.20 p. m.; leaves Huntingdon at 8.40 a. m., and arrives at Mt. Dallas at 11.52 a. m.

Acommodation Train leaves Saxton 8.20 a. m., and arrives at Huntingdon, at 10.10 a. m.; leaves Huntingdon at 5.55 p. m., and arrives at Saxton at 7.41 p. m.

Exceedingly fine--the weather.

Remarkably dull—the marrying business.

Hay is selling for $20 a ton and is scarce at that.

Bonnets, this season, are reduced in size and increased in price.

Read the new advertisements in to-day's GAZETTE.

A special court will be held commencing on Monday, July 19th.

The only sure remedy for gaps in young fowls, is Heckerman's Poultry Cure.

The organ-grinder was in town the other day. His occupation's nearly gone—ausgespeilt.

A number of houses have received a new coat of paint and are looking as bright as new.

H. Heckerman & Son have a sure cure for the gaps in young fowls. 25 cts a box.

New three cent stamps after passing through post-offices, look like pugilists after a prize fight—both black and blue.

May parties are now the spring fashion among all our young folks who are fond of fields, forests, fragrance and flowers.

Ladies are to wear silver and gold dust in their hair this summer—and any one who don't get up and dust will be ruled out of fashionable circles.

Brass and Porcelain kettles, all sizes, at the new Hardware and House-furnishing Store of Jno. F. Blymyer, next door to G. R. Oster & Co.

If your young chickens have the gaps, go at once to Heckerman's drug store and buy a box of their Poultry Cure.

A convention, to be composed of delegates from the different lodges of Good Templars in the West Juniata District, will be held at Bedford on the 18th of May.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.—J. B. Holland has been elected County Superintendent in Blair county; W. H. Sanner in Somerset, and W. P. Gordon in Fulton.

A law was passed by the Legislature, requiring all persons who sell patent rights, to get a license from the Commissioners of each county. A heavy penalty is incurred by disregarding the law.

We saw the other day a car load of corn brought to this place by a train of ten wagons. It had been shipped to Mt. Dallas from Pittsburg. This is rather bad for Bedford with plenty of corn in her graneries.

If you desire to purchase a first class article of goods, at a price to suit the times, go to Hartly & Metzger's store. None but the best of goods sold, and no misrepresentations made. We know this to be so.

J. M. Cooper, Esq. of the Chambersburg Valley Sprit, dropped into our sanctum on Monday morning, looking as hale as in the days of "Auld Lang Syne." May he long live to do battle against radicalism!"

The Bedford Gazette rejoices in the occupancy of a three story brick office. The Inquirer office, immediately adjoining, has more stories in it than you can shake a stick at.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

Jes so, Bro. Traugh. Call and see us. Soda water for two.

IT FADES.—The beautiful violet ink so much in vogue at present eventually disappears entirely. Persons should be careful not to use it in writing notes, bonds, mortgages or anything that is to be preserved any great lenght of time. For these purposes good black ink is always the best.

Our readers should remember that Irvine's store, No. 2 Anderson's Row, is the place to buy good boots and shoes and buy them, too, at reasonable prices. Irvine drives his business and does not suffer his business to drive him. Call and see him.

ROBERRY.—The store room of Mr. Richard Langdon, at Riddlesburg, was robbed last week by some villian who gained entrance by breaking open the bars which secured the cellar-door. The money drawer was opened and a pocket-book containing about $56, the most of it in notes, were stolen.

LARGE TAPE WORM.—Sometime since a little girl living in the family of Mr. Hertz Keiser, manifested frequent evidence of indisposition. A few days ago Dr. Brubaker was called to see her and from the symptoms pronounced it tape-worm, and prescribed accordingly. About twelve hours after taking the medicine, she was relieved of a tape-worm 18 feet in length, and is now doing well.—Somerset Democrat.

Somerset has a sensation—nobody killed, nobody runaway—its only a Velocipede. Say, you Bedford fellows, are you ever going to get a velocipede?—Somerset Democrat.

Not if we can help it. We are too busy, just now, hunting up our spare change to build a railroad. In the meantime your folks may get astraddle, paddle and skedaddle.

Later—by Velocipedegram. The "masheen" has "arrive." The little boys "laugh to see the sport" of overgrown youths tumbling over the moon-shaped means of locomotion of the villainous velocipede. Everybody is excited, and we can't write locals.

A CARD.—To the Democratic Voters of Bedford County. Gentlemen:—I hereby respectfully withdraw my name as a candidate for nomination for County Tresurer. To my friends who have seen proper to urge my claims for that office, I am very thankful; and if at some future time I shall offer myself as a candidate, I trust to merit their support. H. F. IRVINE.

BEDFORD May 14.

SPRING ELECTIONS ABOLISHED.—The 15th section of the Registry Act, published on the first page of to-day's paper, changes the time of electing city, ward, borough, township and election officers; and hereafter, those officers will be ballotted for on the same day in October on which the general election is held. No election, however, will be held for assessor and assistant assessors until the October election, in 1870.

HORSES Stolen.—Two horses, belonging to Mr. Neff and Mr. Hugh Johnston, of Greentree, this county, were stolen on Saturday night, the 24th ult. The thieves were pursued and overtaken on Monday night near Coplin's hotel, about ten miles from Philipsburg. The thieves made good their escape by jumping from the horses and taking to the woods.—Huntingdon Globe.

CASH OR PRODUCE.—H. F. Irvine, of the Regulator, has determined to sell for cash or produce only, after the 1st day of June, next. In other words, he has adopted the Cash System. Irvine is an enterprising merchant and deserves to be sustained in this new enterprise, especially as he promises to sell goods from 10 to 15 per cent cheaper than he could do under the credit system. See his advertisement under head of "New Advertisements."

VELOCIPEDES.—Bedford has been relieved from the dignity of dullness.

She has a velocipede—a real genuine Yankee velocipede—in fact, four of them!

Think of it! Four velocipedes in Bedford, the town ablaze with amaze, and the reservoir only half full of water.

"Can these things be and overcome us?"

Yea, they can; for the velocipede overcometh muchly.

We saw it overcome a young friend of ours, greatly to the disparagement of his trowserloons.

"See what a rent the envious Casca made!"

The velocipede has come; it has been seen by a curious throng, but at the present writing it has not been conquered by any yeoman, or any other man, in this bailiwick. Not by a big jug full.

This is a progressive age but a velocipede takes up a progressive iedea and scatters it all over the floor. It won't entertain a notion adverse to its idea of locomotion.

Velocipedes are not to be trifled with. They knock the pins out from under you while you are trying to coax them into go-ahead-itiveness.

Cruel, inanimate animule!

Snooks, who has been to see it, says the velocipede is too juvenile to travel. It can't stand alone. Snooks is disgusted.

Hezekiar's experience with his famous floppin' machine was not more disastrous to that ambitious individual, than the repeated attempts of some fellows we wot of, to ride the vicious velocipede.

They flopped. And great was the bone-aching thereof.

We hear strange tales about velocipedism. A velocipede is to be purchased for the use of candidates. They expect to go it faster.

"Our" member is to get on it, and hopes to secure a re-nomination to Congress in that way.

He is going around by the post office. It is a near cut—a cut off your nose.

Velocipedes and skating are too many for us. We tried the latter once, and in a second we were on our back studying astronomy.

We saw more stars in five minutes than we ever beheld with the naked eye before. It was a glorious sight, but we never felt inclined to repeat.

Velocipedes are a big thing on ice—Skating is ditto.

THE POST OFFICE AGAIN.—To show what John Cessna's conduct in the post office embroglio, in this place, is thougt of by our neighbors, we clip the following from our exchanges:

We cannot understand how a man can ask the people to be allowed to represent them, and promise to represent them, and then turn around and misrepresent them. It has become too common within the last few years, for our Senators and Representatives after election, to entirely ignore their constituents, and engineer in their own interests, for a renomination. In fact it is becoming unbearable and the only way to put an end to the evil, is, for the organs of the party, to denounce such outrages. This matter has been brought home to us in our own district. In the town of BEDFORD, the citizens ballotted for the postmastership of that place, and decided in favor of Mr. Russell. We know nothing personally of Mr. Russell, but take it for granted, that he is a gentleman well qualified for the position, or the citizens would not have selected him; but what was the result of the peoples' expression. In place of carrying out the will of the citizens of Bedford, our Representative, Hon. John Cessna, had MAJOR WASHABAUGH, appointed postmaster, and Mr. Russell, set aside. This we deem an outrage, that admits of no palliation. Who is Major Washabaugh, that he must be thrust upon the citizens of Bedford, to the exclusion of Mr. Russell? Why, sir, he is a worn out politician, who has had an eye open for office ever since he came to Majority, and who has never had sufficiently the confidence of the people but once, to secure their support. What was the object of Mr. Cessna, in misrepresenting, the people of Bedford, by the appointment of Washabaugh? It is well known that Major Washabaugh heretofore has been the inveterate political enemy of John Cessna. Mr. Washabaugh therefore became Mr. Cessna's supporter last fall because he thought he might be fed from the crumbs that fell from the "rich man's table." Major Washabaugh no doubt was promised Mr. Cessna's support for the State Senate, but not succeeding it became necessary for John Cessna to give him this office to keep him in trim for 1870. If Hon. John Cessna expects to pave the way for his renomination and election, by putting men in positions against the will of the people,—men who do not retain the confidence of the Republican party, he will find that he has made a great mistake.

Mr. Cessna should remember that he was barely elected after great efforts by those who were his first supporters, and that he was expected to make a faithful representative and would carry out the will of his constituents.—Thus far he has entirely failed, and unless his conduct hereafter comports more with the will of the people, those who were his strongest supporters, will entirely ignore him. One of the strongest supporters Mr. Cessna had last fall was Jere Cook of the 'Repository' and his strongest foe previous to the nomination was Ed Scull of Somerset. Yet the other day, Ed Scull, was supplied with a good fat office, if he would support him in 1870, we suppose, and Mr. Cook was left out in the "cold." We do not know that Mr. Cook was an applicant, but he should have received the appointment without asking for it.

If Mr. Cessna desires a re-nomination we know of no better way of getting it than carrying out the expressed will of the people, but if he thinks he can do it by any other course he is perfectly welcome to try it.—Fulton Republican.

The town of Bedford affords a striking example of the manner in which the radical office-holders regard the will of the people, even the radical people. The people of Bedford held an election for postmaster at that place, and the choice resulted in a Mr. Russell, former clerk in the office, by nearly two hundred majority. It was therefore considered by all parties that Mr. Russell's appointment was a foregone conclusion. But John Cessna, disregarding the expressed will of his own party friends, had a Mr. Washabaugh appointed. Cessna's record is known to all, and the people who voted for him should not complain if he ignores them in the distribution of his official patronage.—Somerset Democrat.

The Bedford Gazette charges that somebody else than the Postmaster at Bedford, outside of the Post Office altogether, is to receive three hundred dollars per annum out of the proceeds of the office. Who is the lucky fellow? Is it some vigorous rival of the winning man? Or have the Post Offices in the District been farmed out?" It cannot be the latter, for our Congressman is too pure for that. At any rate, twelve hundred dollars for the term on one Post Office, is a sum "not to be sneezed at."—Valley Spirit.

THE NEW NICKEL COINS.—The denomination of the new coins are to be one, three and five cents, and they are to be composed of one-fourth nickel and three fourths copper. The one cent coin is to weigh a grain and a half, and will be about the size of the five cent silver coin, which some of the existing inhabitants of the United States will recollect to have seen. The three and five cent pieces are to be about the size of the one and two cent coppers now in use, and will weigh respectively three and five grains. The new coin is to be legal tender for a dollar, except for duties on imports, and all the existing nickel and copper coins will be withdrawn.

WHO CAN CAST THE FIRST STONE?—It is a great misfortune to have a disposition that carries cold and dampness wherever you go; but unless some-body tells you of it, and you are put upon an examination of yourself, and led to say, "is my taste so exacting, is my pride so exacting, that when I go where people are it is as if a frost had fallen on them?" you will never suspect it, nor take steps to remedy it.

MARRIED.

BROWN—BROWN—On the 29th of April, by W. B. Lambright, Esq., Mr. David L. Brown and Miss Nancy Brown, both of this county.

ICKES—BLACKBURN.—On the 4th inst., at the Lutheran parsonage, in Schellsburg, by the Rev. J. H. A. Kitzmiller, Mr. Conrad Ickes to Miss Mary Blackburn, both of this county.

DIED.

LET EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD READ THIS!

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.

On and after the first day of June, 1869, I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect present accounts.

All goods will be sold at about one-half the profit now pa'd by consumers. The people often complain of Bedford prices being higher than elsewhere, and it is doubtless true, to some extent, for the reason that good customers have had to pay for others' goods with an additional profit on their own.

Let an intelligent community sustain me in this enterprise and they WILL SAVE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. ON EVERYTHING THEY CONSUME.

may14m3 H. F. IRVINE.

NOTICE.—All accounts not settled by the first day of June, 1869, either by cash or note, will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Friends will please take notice, and by so doing will save trouble and costs.

COLBURN'S PATENT

RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one-third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.
