The Millheim Journal.

THURSDAY, DEC. 23RD, 1886.

Published by R. A. BUMILLER.

AFTER January first free passes on the railroads will be a thing of the past. Members of the state legislature who wish to go home before the end of the session will have to foot it, or else stay where they are until dismissed.

PENNSYLVANIA's state debt is annually being decreased by $100,000 and it is done with a surplus in the treasury equivalent to the amount of that debt. The bonds purchased and canceled during the fiscal year which has just ended amount to $713,701.

EX-ALDERMAN McQuade, of boodle fame, was brought to general sessions in New York on Monday morning, where a great crowd was assembled. When Recorder Smyth opened court, motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment were denied. Recorder Smyth sentenced the prisoner to seven years in Sing Sing and a fine of $5,000. McQuade took his doom with his customary coolness. This sentence shows that the fraudulant aldermen can expect very little mercy at the hands of the courts.

NO JOURNAL NEXT WEEK.—According to a prevailing custom in this county to let the printers off on a week's vacation during the holidays we will not issue a paper from this office next week. We therefore ask the indulgence of our readers until the first week of the New Year when we expect to give them as good if not a better paper than we have been getting out in the past year. We have endeavored to give the JOURNAL readers the worth of their money in news given in a readable shape and have the satisfaction to know that the paper still stands in good favor with its patrons and is gaining ground. Thanking you kindly for your past patronage we wish you all a joyful holiday season, at the same time requesting your good will in the future.

CONGRESS is about ready to adjourn for the holidays and by mutual agreement it was determined not to introduce any measures for revenue reduction until after the holiday season. Morrison's tariff bill, it is thought, has now ceased to be a stumbling block since the Republicans and high protection Democrats have repelled the same and Morrison will step down and out on the 4th of March. The bill of representative Buck, of Connecticut, providing for a duty of 75 cents a pound on unstemmed and $1.50 on stemmed tobacco will receive recognition before adjournment and generally meets with the approval of tobacco growers in the United States.

With the re-assemblage of congress on the first Tuesday in the new year the country looks for the tax reduction which both parties have promised in their platforms and the work of removing oppressive taxes is expected to stand a better show.

His Farewell to Politics.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21.—Grand Master Workman Powderly has addressed a letter to committee of the United Labor party of this city in reply to an invitation to address the convention of that party this evening, in which he says: "While I am general master workman I will never again occupy a place either as speaker or officer on a political platform. I would advise you not to take any action as a party. It seems to me that it becomes the duty of all interested to endeavor to educate the masses to free the ballot box from the degrading influences of the bribe giver and taker, as well as from that tool of monopoly—whiskey."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20, 1886.

The last session of the Forty-ninth Congress is shaming its predecessor by industry. There has been a good deal less talk and a good deal more work than usual so far. The passage of such bill as that to give the Indians land in severalty, that to redeem trade dollars, that to repeal the Tenure of office act, Postal bills and appropriations, reflects high credit on Congress as a part of its second week's work.

Besides this legislation, various subjects have been briefly discussed, such as Interstate commerce, the Fisheries, and the Beck Railroad Attorney bill. The latter measure of the Kentucky Senator strikes at the railroad Senators and Members, and its aim is to prevent them from acting as attorneys for subsidized railroad corporations while receiving salaries from the Government.

When Col. Morrison called up the Tariff, a hush instantly fell over the House and noise in the galleries ceased. All eyes were turned upon him as he arose to say: "Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into a committee of the whole for the purpose of considering revenue bills." The yeas and nays were then demanded, and during the roll call absolute silence reigned in the Hall, and many members with pencil in hand were figuring up the vote. Messrs. Morrison and Randall were apparently the calmest men on the floor, each leaning back in his chair within a few feet of each other, while now and then a remark was exchanged between them. When it was announced that the motion was lost, there was applause on the Republican side. Mr. Morrison's proposition was voted down by the small majority of five this time, while last June it was defeated by seventeen.

Miscellaneous News.

A Home for Gen. Hancock's Widow.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The friends of the late Gen. W. S. Hancock have, as a tribute to his memory, raised a sum of money to purchase a home for his widow. The committee having the matter in charge has decided, after consultation with Mrs. Hancock, to purchase a house in this city, where, therefore, she will hereafter make her home.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the past few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years Doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure now on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucus surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address,

It is said that dull times are not known by the agents for the great publishing house of George Stinson & Co., of Portland, Maine. The reason of this exceptional success is found in the fact that they always give the public that which is keenly appreciated and at prices that all can afford. At present we understand, their agents are doing wonderfully well on several new lines. They need many more agents in all parts of the country. Those who need profitable work should apply at once. Women do as well as men. Experience is not necessary, for Messrs. Stinson & Co. undertake to show all who are willing to work, not hard but earnestly, the path to large success. It should be remembered that an agent can do a handsome business without being away from home over night. Another advantage—it costs nothing to give the business a trial, and an agent can devote all his time, or only his spare moments to it. Stinson & Co. guarantee grand success to all who engage and follow simple and plain directions that they give. We have not space to explain all here, but full particulars will be sent free to those who address the firm; their full address is given above.

AFTER DIPTHERIA.—Diptheria is a terrible disease, requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a complete cure. Even when its power is broken, it clings to the patient with great persistency, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sarsaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the blood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strengthens the system.

A Brave Man Meets His Death.

Attempting to Save a Boy's Life He Loses His Own—The Boy Also Killed.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Dec. 17.—New Jersey furnishes another railway horror to-day, in which two lives were sacrificed through the negligence of an employe. The Cincinnati express which was half an hour behind time, while running at the rate of forty miles an hour through New Brunswick at 6 o'clock Friday morning, struck a wagon driven by Terrence Hickey, 14 years old, at the George street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad. Moses Ryno, aged 60, saw the danger and went to the boy's assistance, but was too late to save him.

The train rushed round the curve, struck Ryno and threw him off the embankment, instantly killing him. It then crashed into the wagon, part of which was deposited in front of the ladies' waiting-room at the depot. The boy was found dead, wrapped in a blanket, firmly fastened on the cowcatcher. His skull was fractured, and brains were oozing from the wound. Ryno was the father of a large family. He was formerly a policeman. The gateman at the crossing was not on duty, and to this fact the double tragedy is due.

One Hundred and Thirty-Six Years Old.

ST. LOUIS, December 19.—A letter from Sassakawa, Seminole Nation, Indian Territory, gives an account of the death there on the 5th instant of Mrs. Susanna Warren, perhaps the oldest person in the United States, if not the world. She was born in the old town of St. Augustine, Florida, in 1750. She was a slave and was the property of Spanish masters until 1818, when she with other Spanish slaves, fled from the town of Pensacola when it was taken by General Jackson. She lived in the Seminole country from then until the second treaty of peace with the Seminoles, when she was regarded as their common property and was removed with them to the Indian Territory. She leaves one daughter living, who resides in Austin, Texas, and is in her 97th year. She leaves many grandchildren here, some of them nearly 70 years of age.

—IT IS in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it, then take the empty bottle back to your dealer and get your money.

Shocking Death of an Engineer.

A Train Breaks in Two and a Frightful Wreck is the Result.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 20.—A frightful wreck occurred at Woodyard station, about four miles north of this place, on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad Sunday morning, which resulted in the killing of Engineer Daniel Heaphy. Two sections of train No. 33, south bound, had arrived at the woodyard, the first pulling into the switch, followed by the second, which did not clear the main track. Train No. 34 broke in two about two miles south of the woodyard, and the engineer was trying to keep out of the way of the tail end. He came into the station at a lively speed and crashed into the second section, smashing his engine to pieces and demolishing ten cars.

Heaphy jumped from his engine, but as he did so, struck a switch stand, which cut his head open. He was thrown back under the cars and had both legs cut off. He resided here and had a wife and three children. His remains arrived here early Monday morning. The wreck is one of the worst ever seen on the road. Fireman Mitchell jumped from the engine, but was not seriously injured.

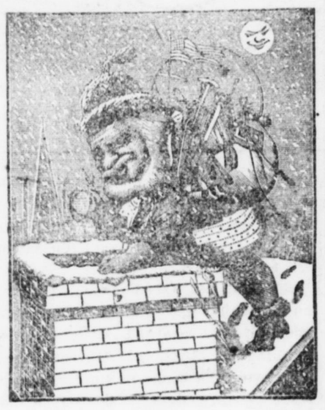
JOURNAL STORE



Santa Claus

ABC

It affords me much pleasure again to invite my friends and patrons, as well as the public generally, to visit my store and see my stock of goods, all selected with much care, and most admirably adapted to the festive Holiday Season, when every one has a noble desire to spread happiness and joy even to the humblest home. Whoever can not find something at the Journal Store as an appropriate present for father or mother, husband or wife, brother or sister, son or daughter, sweetheart or lover, cousin or friend—is indeed hard to suit. But come and see for yourself, my

ALBUMS, both Photo and Auto, from the rich Silk Plush at $5, that would adorn any parlor table, down to the 5 center for boys and girls.

BIBLES, from the elaborate Family Bible at $7, down to the more common at $3, $2, $1, 75cts., 60cts. and 40 cents.

CALL BELL, for Sunday or Public Schools, fine and very cheap.

DOLLS, of every kind and price. Fine Bisque, Patent, Wax, China and Penny Dolls.

EASELS, Silver Wire, Fine Brass, Ebony, Gilt and Silvered—all exceedingly low.

FUNNY TOYS, for Boys and Girls, for example, "The Five Jolly Niggers" is a gem toy.

GUM BALLS AND BALLOONS. These are any boy's delight.

HUMMING TOPS, a delightful toy. Hair Brushes, a most excellent article, and the price is the very lowest.

INKSTANDS in great variety. The little Cut Glass is a beauty and the No. 686 a daisy, for a Christmas present.

JEWS' HARPS, a drove of them, real good and just as cheap. You can play 99 "chunes" on each—if you know how.

KNIVES—i. e. most beautiful Pocket Knives for ladies or gentlemen, boys or girls. 10 cents up.

LADIE'S SATCHELS, newest styles, very fine, and as cheap as fine.

MOUTH ORGANS, lots of them, $1.00 down to 5 cents. Mony Books, Marbles with Figures, Mugs most beautiful, Menageries very interesting.

NOVELTIES, very many, can not posibly destinate them all by names. Just come and see for yourself.

ODDS AND ENDS on the new Bargain Table are really worth looking at, and worth buying too, for that matter. These I sell at about half what they cost.

PAPER Boxes, Puff Boxes, Pens and Pencils. Their names is legion.

Queen's English is the prevailing language at the Journal Store. High German and Pennsylvanish Deutsch also available if required.

RAINBOW spray is out of season. The last of it faded out of sight months ago. Rattles for babies however—as well as the babies themselves—are always in season. Lots of them at the Journal Store—Rattles I mean.

SCRAP BOOKS and Scrap Pictures, whew! what a lot! The dear ladies go absolutely wild over them "Just too lovely for anything."

TOYS and Toy Books. Little bronzed animals for a penny. A favorite for little folks.

USEFUL articles have by no means been forgotten at the Journal Store, but it is positively "too tedious to mention" even the one tenth of them. For example I keep a variety of little papers on hand, commonly called "notes," absolutely worth thousands of dollars, if properly filled out and signed.

VELVET Frames are not quite as rich as silk plush or even the new style hammered brass, but they are much cheaper. All must be suited.

WATCHES for the boys—only a penny, think of that—and I guarantee them more regular than the expensive Millheim Town Clock.

XMAS cards, a great assortment, as well as Birthday and Sunday School cards. I bought a very large lot of these latter, because I had the chance to select them myself.

YOU are again and again most cordially invited to call at the Journal Store, but don't forget to bring your purse along.

ZERO, on the Thremometer sold at the Journal Store, indicates cold. Better buy one and regulate the temperature of your sitting room at about 65 to 70° above zero. That's what the doctors say it should be, and surely they ought to know.

& now I am through with the alphabet, but could not name nearly all my goods even by general kinds and classes. The better way for you now to do is to come and see, for to see is to buy.

Most Respectfully,

B. O. Deininger.
