The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, MAY 1, '68.

EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE.—Good potatoes, and the few in the market bring enormous prices. It is time an ark load came along.

NEXT week is Court, call and see us and subscribe for the "COLUMBIAN," the best, neatest, largest, and consequently cheapest paper in the County.

THE Rosemont Cemetery Company have purchased additional grounds which will be laid out in lots, during the coming season, and offered for sale.

OUR friends attending Court are requested to call at the attractive Drug Store of N. J. Hendershott. They will find prices much lower than elsewhere.

OUR friend John R. Moyer, Druggist on Market St. has caught the spirit of improvement, and is engaged in "reconstructing" his establishment on a modern basis.

OUR thanks are again due our active Beaver Valley correspondent for additional subscriptions. Why cannot our friends in different parts of the County "go and do likewise."

ON Friday night last the cellar of Joseph Walter in Light Street was entered, and the most of his provisions taken therefrom. He had moved there only the day previous.

WE are to be favored on the 8th of May next with a visit from "Breban's Swiss Bell Ringers." Our readers should not miss the opportunity of enjoying this musical treat.

THE call for a meeting of the Stockholders of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute, was accidentally omitted last week. It is in this issue and we call special attention to it.

MRS. MERCY BROTHWELL, relict of of Dr. E. Brothwell late of this county, died in Danville last week, and was buried in the Cemetery, last Friday. Revs. Cullen and Lightner officiating.

AN acquaintance from Salem says that on Saturday morning last, several inches of snow fell in his vicinity. This all comes of buying Russian America. As a remedy we would suggest the purchase of Cuba.

WE have heard it whispered that Mr. A. F. Yost, whilom partner of P. John, intends to remove his printing establishment from Tunkhannock to this place and establish here a neutral paper, together with a Job Office. The more the merrier.

THE Normal School grounds have been purchased, by the Trustees of the Institute, adjoining the present beautiful location, and including a part of the grove for play ground. Immediate arrangements will be made to put up the necessary buildings.

THE officers of Van Camp Lodge I. O. O. F. for the current term are Noble Grand, Joseph Shannon; Vice Grand, Wm. E. Coffman; Secretary, C. F. Knapp; Asst. Secretary, M. Appleman Treasurer, James K. Eyer. The time of meeting is now 8 P. M. of Saturday evening.

A FINE assortment of ladies' cloaks, dress patterns, trimmings, children's patterns etc., is now to be found at Mrs. Julia & Sade Barkley's store. A new and complete collection of Spring goods just received. We would call the attention of our lady readers to this, in order that they may get the latest and best styles.

WE are glad to learn that the surviving friends and relatives have already begun to remove bodies from St. Paul's Burying Ground, to the Cemetery. We trust the good work will go steadily forward, till not only the plot for the new church is cleared, but the entire burying ground restored to its original condition.

WE publish this week the late act of assembly regulating the fees of Justices of the Peace and Constables. It is a very important matter, and concerns every citizen in the County. We have also on hand, the fee bill properly made up for posting in offices, as required by law, for sale. Every body should call and get one.

THE many storms and backward season have much retarded improvements in Bloomsburg, but now that fair weather has at last set in, we may expect to see them pushed forward with unusual energy. Our town has awakened as if from a Rip Van Winkle sleep, and now bids fair to excel her neighbors in the march of improvement.

PECULIAR.—Some of the men who persistently fought Capt. Chalfant two years ago, and who insisted that Monroe County was not entitled to a Representative, are now sounding his praises, and insisting on his renomination, when Columbia county is undoubtedly entitled to the Representative. We are curious to learn the cause of this sudden conversion.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the Normal School Buildings are progressing finely. Another year will see it in successful operation, and the two or three men who oppose will be ashamed of their course. The improvement and prosperity of this town and county are not in their hands. The location of the State Normal School will give, not only to the town but to the county, position in fluence and character abroad.

WE want the tax-payers to remember that all the agitation which now exists in the country, the commercial depression, and the rise in prices are attributable to the criminal legislation of Congress to retain power. They are absolutely doing nothing for the country, but are spending millions in trying to convict President Johnson, for the mere purpose of getting a few offices he has at his disposal.

ON Sunday night last the Institute at this place was again entered by burglars. They effected their entrance through the window, as before, by bursting open the shutter. No depredations were committed as the alarm was given at once, when they became frightened and fled. This style of outrage is becoming too frequent, and the captive and conviction of some of the parties engaged, is the only way to teach them that the laws cannot be broken with impurity.

NOTICE.—A meeting of the Democratic Standing Committee of Columbia County will be held at the Register's Office in Bloomsburg on Saturday, May 2nd, at one o'clock P. M. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

JOHN G. FREEZE, Chairman.

WHY don't the Republican give us credit for the news we furnish it weekly? Be fair now.

THE Commission of J. R. Jameson, a newly elected Justice of the Peace, is in the hands of the Recorder.

ON Sunday last the house of Jonas Doty in Fishingcreek Township was burned down. We have not learned the origin of the fire, or the amount of the loss.

WE are informed that Judge Ryan of Schuylkill, rejected one hundred and seventy-four Applications for License at the last Quarter Sessions in Schuylkill county, because they were not represented by an Attorney.

OUR friends in the country who desire to know where to purchase the cheapest and best goods should always consult the columns of the COLUMBIAN. Men who are willing to endorse their goods through the news papers always sell on honor.

ON Wednesday last, about noon, the barn of John Harter, in Nescopec twp., Luzerne county, was discovered to be on fire. It was entirely consumed, together with the hay, grain, buggy etc. Loss about $2,000, insurance $600. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE Episcopal Diocese Convention meets in Philadelphia, at St. Andrew's Church on Tuesday May 12th. Charles R. Paxton, Jeremiah J. Brower and John G. Freeze are the Lay Delegates. Several important questions will be discussed, among them the Division of the Diocese.

HISTORY OF THE WAR.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Alexander H. Stephens, late Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, has published a history of the War from the Southern stand point of view. Mr. Stephens threw the whole weight of his influence against secession, but the current was too strong and carried him with it. It will be widely read.

NEVER SAY DYE.—But buy clothes which will not fade, and there will be no necessity for dying. Chemberlin keeps a class of goods which look well, fit well, wear well, and which do not fade. His stock is worth looking at, it is so complete and of such good styles. He has everything in the way of gentlemen's wearing apparel, under as well as outer garments. Don't forget that he cuts his clothes by machinery and that they always give satisfaction. His suits suit!

WE had the pleasure of a visit from Captain Brockway, of the COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg Pa. the Democratic journal which was started in 1865, as a political necessity; the old organ having broke over the traces, in order to aid a volunteer for political position in place of the regular nominee. The paper is one of the best country journals in the State, and is fast becoming the leading organ of the Democracy of that section. General Ent is also in town, looking after personal interests of a financial character.—Lycoming Gazette.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—The collector of taxes of Hollenback township, Mr. John Whitebread, was robbed of nearly four hundred dollars last Friday, in broad noon, and in sight of carpenters at work in a house a quarter of a mile off. He stopped at Mr. Spooneberger's, where money was paid him, and was invited to dine, but started on, and soon met a young man who presented a pistol, and demanded his money. Mr. Whitebread has but one arm and was defenceless. He was knocked down and his money taken. The thief had dark hair, red face, was dressed in dark cassimere suit. Half an hour before, two neighbors passed along and noticed this young man sitting on a chestnut stump no doubt waiting for his victim. Search was made, but the rascal may have reached the Lehigh valley station, six miles distant, in time for the afternoon train, or, if he is one of a gang, is lingering about that region, and knowing all the money transactions going on and the horses worth stealing.—Record of the Times.

A FRIEND IN NEED. Grace's Celebrated Salve is a friend indeed. Who has not found it such in curing cuts, burns, bruises, scalds, felons, boils, and even the most obstinate old ulcers and other sores. It is a wonderful compound suited alike to the skin of the child and of the adult.
