PITTSBURGH FEMALE INSTITUTE.
THIS Institution, under the care of Rev. J. M GEDDES AND LADY, in which all the solid and ornamental branches of a finished education are taught is now open for the reception of pupils at
No. 58, Irwins Row, Liberty Street, between 3d and 4th streets. The Second Session will commence on Monday the 20th of August, and it is important that any who may design entering should be present as far as practicable by that time.
They have secured the services of Professor RHOCK as teacher of Music on the Piano and Guitar, who is too well known to need recommendation. A competent French teacher will be employed Prof. BINGHAM will have charge of the Department of Vocal Music.
Prof SUMINSKI will have direction of the Artistic Department, and will give lessons, in drawing, sketching, and painting, both in oil and water colors. Prof. S is a competent teacher, and has recommendations from the first men in Europe and the United States. He has also been a teacher in the first institutions of the country.
For terms apply to the Principal. ap11f

MRS. LAMB'S BOARDING SCHOOL.
(No. 186 Arch Street, above Thirteenth, South side, Philadelphia.
THE plan pursued in this Institution, embraces all the higher branches of an English Education, with instruction in the French, Italian and Latin Languages. The services of the most eminent Professors are permanently secured, and every facility given pupils for acquiring the different Languages, together with other accomplishments.
The year is divided into two terms of five months each, commencing on the 1st of September, and ending on the 30th of June.
The charge for the Scholastic Year of ten months, is $250, payable half yearly in advance; without extras, except Music and Dancing, which are at Professor's prices. Those commencing any time within the term, will be charged accordingly.
