RESOLUTION

PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE Constitution of the Commonwealth.—

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

FIRST AMENDMENT

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution, to be designated as article eleven, as follows

ARTICLE XI

OF PUBLIC DEBTS

Section 1 The State may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for, but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever

Section 2 In addition to the above limited power the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in War or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever

Section 3 Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on the behalf, of the State

Section 4 To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt so as aforesaid to be contracted, the legislature shall at its first session after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund which shall be sufficient to pay the interest of the public debt as it may accrue, and to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred thousand dollars annually, which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works from time to time owned by the State, of the proceeds of the sale of the same, of the tolls received from the same, of the dividends and tolls of railroad companies, of the dividends of banks, and of all other income or revenue of the State, over and above the ordinary expenses of a peaceful government, and a sum sufficient to meet the interest on the public debt as it may accrue, and such other sums as may be required by the laws of this State to be paid into said fund, from time to time, in order to pay the principal of the public debt within the time and in the manner hereinafter provided

Section 5 The credit of the Commonwealth shall not be pledged or loaned to any person or corporation, or association, or to any city, county, or borough, or to any other State, or to the United States, or to any other country, except that the Commonwealth may hold such securities as may be received by her in the payment of debts or taxes, and may make such loans as may be authorized by the sinking fund, or by the sinking fund of any other State, or of the United States, or of any other country, which shall be held by the Commonwealth, or by any person in her behalf, without the pledge of her credit

Section 6 The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt or any part thereof of any county, city, borough, township or any other corporation or association, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or assist the State in the discharge of any power or duty thereof, nor shall the credit of the Commonwealth be thus given or loaned to any such county, city, borough, township or other corporation or association, or any person or persons, or to any company, association or corporation, or to any man or men, or any company, association or corporation, in which the Commonwealth may be interested or about to become interested, or which may be formed to aid or assist any person or persons, or company, association or corporation, or to any other State, or to the United States, or to any other country, or to any city, county, township or borough, or other corporation or association, or to any person or persons, company, association or corporation, in any other manner than as a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain money for or loan its credit to any corporation, association or institution, or party

SECOND AMENDMENT

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as article XII as follows

ARTICLE XII

OF NEW COUNTIES

No county shall be divided, nor shall any line cutting off over one-tenth of the population or territory of any county be run, nor shall any county be established so as to reduce any county to less than one hundred square miles, nor shall any new county be established containing less than four hundred square miles

THIRD AMENDMENT

From section two of the first article of the Constitution strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively" from section seven same article strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any" and insert in lieu thereof the words "and no" and strike out section four same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following

Section 4 In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State by districts in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing one-thirty thousand and three hundred taxables may be taken to a separate representation but no more than three counties shall be joined and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district. Any contiguous territory in any county which may be detached from a district composed of a portion of one county, shall be added to a district composed of a portion of another county, and such districts shall be composed of contiguous territory as nearly square as practicable. Any territory which may be detached from a county in the formation of a district, shall not be added to another county.

Section 5 The Commonwealth shall be a common debtor for any part thereof of any county, city, borough, township or any other corporation or association, and such debt shall have to be paid before the State to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in time of war or assist the State in the discharge of any power or duty thereof, notwithstanding.

Section 7 The Legislature shall not authorize any city, borough, township or other corporation to take more than two per centum upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the corporate limits, nor shall any city, borough, township or other corporation be allowed to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain money for or loan its credit to any corporation, association or institution, or party

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as article XII as follows

OF NEW COUNTIES

No county shall be divided, nor shall any line cutting off over one-tenth of the population or territory of any county be run, nor shall any county be established so as to reduce any county to less than one hundred square miles, nor shall any new county be established containing less than four hundred square miles

THIRD AMENDMENT

From section two of the first article of the Constitution strike out the words "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively" from section seven same article strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any" and insert in lieu thereof the words "and no" and strike out section four same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following

Section 4 In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State by districts in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing one-thirty thousand and three hundred taxables may be taken to a separate representation but no more than three counties shall be joined and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district. Any contiguous territory in any county which may be detached from a district composed of a portion of one county, shall be added to a district composed of a portion of another county, and such districts shall be composed of contiguous territory as nearly square as practicable. Any territory which may be detached from a county in the formation of a district, shall not be added to another county.

Section 5 The Commonwealth shall be a common debtor for any part thereof of any county, city, borough, township or any other corporation or association, and such debt shall have to be paid before the State to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in time of war or assist the State in the discharge of any power or duty thereof, notwithstanding.

Section 7 The Legislature shall not authorize any city, borough, township or other corporation to take more than two per centum upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the corporate limits, nor shall any city, borough, township or other corporation be allowed to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain money for or loan its credit to any corporation, association or institution, or party

There shall be an additional section to the first article of said Constitution which shall be numbered and read as follows,

Sec 26 The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke or annul any charter of any corporation heretofore granted by, or under any special or general law whenever in the opinion of it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth in such manner however that no injustice shall be done to the corporators."

TO THOSE WHO WANT FARMS. A farm within the reach of every man. The Ridgway farm company has made arrangements by which all who desire to settle or purchase a home can do so

The Farms consist of the best limestone soil of the most superior quality for farming, in a rapidly improving place, into which an extensive emigration is now pouring The property is located in Elk County, Pennsylvania, in the midst of a, thriving population of some 10,000. The climate is perfectly healthy, and the terrible plague of the west fever is unknown It also has an abundance of the best quality of Coal and Iron The price to buy it out is from $3 to $20 per acre, payable by instalments, to be located at the time of purchasing or a share of 25 acres entitling to locate the same for $300, payable $6 per month or 12½ acres payable $1 per month Discount for every sum of $100 and under, paid in advance, a discount of 5 per cent will be allowed and for over $100 a discount of 10 per cent.

In considering the advantages of, emigrating to this locality the following are presented

First—The soil is a rich limestone, capable of raising the heaviest crops, owing to which this settlement has attained its present great prosperity

Second—It is the centre of the great North West Coal Basin, and is destined soon to become one of the greatest business places in the State. It will supply the great Lake market, (according to population and travel the greatest in the Union) It has five workable veines of the best Bituminous Coal, amounting in the aggregate to over 22 feet, which make 22,000 tons of Coal under each acre This will make the land of inestimable value

The eminent state geologist Dr Chas T, Jackson of Boston, has made a geological survey of the land, and analyzed the coal, the iron ore and the limestone This report together with maps will be furnished to inquirers

Fourth—Three railroads are laid out through the property The Sunbury and Erie Railroad gives us a market for our coal to the lakes at Erie to Philadelphia A large part of the road has been finished and is now in running order A branch is now a-going from Erie to connect with the Ohio and Pittsburg The Allegheny Valley Railroad connects with New York, Boston and Pittsburg The Venango and Lake Erie connects us with the West

There are allready good Turnpike Roads running through the property, various other roads have been opened to facilitate the conveyance and settlement which have already taken place

There is no other equal tract now offered on the market which can compare in all the essentials of a good home for the settler, and where the purchaser can be sure of a home PERFECT TITLE GUARANTEED
