PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

There is very little export demand for FLOUR to-day, out holders, if anything, are rather firmer in their views. Sales include about 500 bbls. standard superfine, at $5; 500 bbls. city mills extra, at $5 50 a $5 75, the latter price for a selected brand; 150 bbls. extra family, at $6 per bbl., and 700 half bbls superfine, at $5 37½ a $5 50 the pair. The retailers and bakers are buying moderately at the above rates, for common to choice brands and extras, and $6 25 a $6 50 per bbl. for fancy brands as in quality. CORN MEAL is steady and a sale of Penna. Meal is reported at $4 per bbl. RYE FLOUR is held at $4 25 per bbl., but we hear of no sales.

The market is poorly supplied with WHEAT and prime lots are scarce and wanted at full prices, but the sales are limited to some 1500 bushels, at 115 a 120c for fair reds, and 127 a 130c for white, as in quality. RYE is steady, with further sales of 1000 bushels Pennsylvania at 75c. CORN is not much inquired for, but the receipts are light, and 2000 bushels sold at 70 a 78c for fair, and 80c for good old Pennsylvania yellow, in store; new is worth 60 a 67c, as to dryness, and but little offering. OATS are wanted at full prices, and good Southern are worth 34c and but few offering, a small sale of Penna. was made at 32c. Barley—A sale of 2000 bushels prime New York was made at 80c, and 4500 bushels Pennsylvania at 67c.

In seeds there is not much doing, but sales of 120 to 500 bushels Cloverseed are reported at $5 75 a 6 per bushel, chiefly at the latter rate for recleaned seed. Timothy is in steady demand at $2 12½ per bushel for prime.

Whiskey is without much alteration. Bbls are selling at 21 a 21½c for Pennsylvania, and 22 a 22½c for Ohio, the latter in small lots. hhds. are selling at 21c and drudge at 20c.

MARKET Street, above Eighth, PHILADA.—Importers, Manufacturers and Dealers in FANCY FURS, for Ladies and Children; also, Gent's Furs, Fur Collars, and Gloves—The number of years that we have been engaged in the Fur business and the general character of our Furs, both for quality and price, is so generally known throughout the Country, that we think it is not necessary for us to say anything more than that we have now opened our assortment of FURS for the Fall and Winter Sales, of the largest and most beautiful assortment that we have ever offered before to the public. Our Furs have all been imported during the present season when import was scarce and Furs much lower than at the present time, and have been manufactured by the most competent workmen; we are therefore determined to sell them at such prices as will continue to give us the reputation we have borne for years, that is to sell a good article for a very SMALL PROFIT.
