Funeral of Gen. Pierce's Son.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—The funeral services over the remains of the son of Gen. Pierce took place this morning at Andover, in the presence of a very large assemblage. The Rev. Mr. Parker, of Concord, officiated. After the services had been concluded, the remains were conveyed to Concord, in a special train, burial.

Gen. Pierce is recovering rapidly from the indisposition, induced by the sad accident; and Mrs. Pierce has been restored to a degree of calmness and resignation. She will remain with her sister, Mrs. Aiken, until sufficiently recovered to return to New Hampshire.

CONCORD, Jan. 10.—The funeral cortege, with the remains of the youthful Benjamin Pierce, passed through the city, at half past 3 o'clock, on its way to the North Church Cemetery, for interment. The procession was simple and unostentatious. The bereaved father occupied the first coach, as chief mourner. Mrs. Pierce remains at Andover.

Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator

ARE YOU BALD? Is your hair falling off? Or is your head covered with Dandruff or Scruff? If so, then make a fair trial of Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator. Hundreds of persons in all parts of the country whose heads were entirely bald, have had their hair fully restored to its original perfection by the use of this valuable article.—Read the testimony.

New York, Jan. 1, 1851.

Mr. STORRS.—Dear Sir: Mr. Smith, of Newton, L. I., obtained a bottle of your excellent Hair Invigorator for his little girl, about four years old, her head being entirely bald; no hair of any consequence having grown on her head from birth, and surprising as it may appear, after having used but one bottle, a complete head of hair was produced nearly two inches long of a fine healthy growth.

A. DOOLITTLE, M. C. No. 141, Grand St.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10, 1850.

Mr. STORRS—Sir: After being bald for a number of years, and having used numerous preparations to no effect, your Chemical Hair Invigorator has produced a fine head of new hair, and I hardly know how to express my gratitude for the benefit I have received from your valuable article.

J. WADSWORTH, No. 10, Orchard st.

The following testimony is from Mr. McMakin, editor of the "Saturday Courier:"

"STORRS' HAIR INVIGORATOR.—It gives us much pleasure, unsolicited, to record our testimony in favor of the great pleasantness and entire efficacy of Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator. On recovering from the recent severe attack of illness, we discovered that our usual healthy and abundant crop of hair was rapidly falling off, and chancing to have on hand a sample of the above article furnished by the manufacturer many months previously, we used but a single bottle, as directed, and found it to operate like a charm, in entirely checking the fall and creating a new and healthy action of the scalp."

We could give many other references to some of our most respectable citizens, but would ask all who are troubled with Dandruff, are bald, or are losing their hair, to give Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator a trial, and one trial will do more to convince you of our claims for it than all the testimony of others that we might produce.

CAUTION.—Ask for "Storr's Chemical Hair Invigorator," and never let dealers persuade you to use any other article as a substitute. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Plainfield Classical Academy,

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. The Thirteenth Session commences on Monday, Nov. 3, 1852.

This Institution has been in successful operation 7 years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State.

In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional man or collegian. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

It is the determination of the Proprietor that he Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the mins of the youth submitted to his charge.

Terms (per session of five months) $50 00.
