Public Sale of Real Estate.

THE undersigned, Executors of Jamison Hannon, dec'd., will offer for sale on Friday the 18th day of March, 1853, the following valuable Real Estate, consisting of a on Big Spring, ¼ of a mile north east of Newville, and half a mile north east of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, of sufficient capacity to grind and distill one hundred bushels per day, on a tract of land, of SEVEN ACRES, and having on it a large Grain House and 2 small Dwelling Houses, being on a stream of water which never fails and with water power sufficient to grind 150 or 200 bushels per day. The Distillery has been erected within the last 18 months, and all the apparatus is of the latest and most improved kind. The grinding and distilling being done in the same house, at great saving of manual labor, being one of the best locations for the business in the State, and having been in very successful operation since erected.

There is on hand a large amount of stock, viz: 400 hogs, in different stages of fattening; 3000 bushels of grain, wood, barrels, &c., which will be sold on the above day.

Five per cent. of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, and the remainder on accommodating terms to purchasers.
