Young Men.

Let us have your ear. You have just emerged from the vale of Childhood. You have culled the bright flowers that garnished your path-way, weaving them into chaplets which you imagined were emblems of ones more enduring; reveled in in the bowers of beauty, innocence and pleasure, and feasted the eye of hopeful imagination upon dazzling and enrapturing visions of renown and glory.

The hand of time has passed this golden period upon the dial-plate of your being. Fancy with its rainbow illusions has become solid fact, and romance, like a wave at play with the winds, has sank into the depths of stern, actual reality. Those glowing pictures of undisturbed ease, continuous prosperity, unimpeded progress, crowding friendships and thronging honors have faded into blank canvass at a single glance of your life-destiny. The rollicking youth is now the sober, earnest, thinking man. Care has placed its iron crown upon his brow. Misfortunes are beginning to test the metal of his composition. He is pressing the boundaries of the higher sphere of human action. Duty commands, trusts are to be discharged and responsibilities are to be met. The sun, that surrounded him in other days with a halo of brightness and glory, has veiled its disc, and the horizon is murky with gloom and doubt. Opposition has marshalled its fierce battalions for his overthrow and annihilation. Jealousy with venom clamors, rank suspicions and wicked vigilance; malicious Envy with a troop of green-eyed fiends, all eagerness for their prey; viperous Slander with a tongue of a thousand forks, each laden with the virus of all the worms of the Nile; and malignant Hate with passions implacable, all arts of diabolism and steel of murder are arrayed on every side. Yonder cloud and the sounds that stun the ear are the smoke and clash of battle, the mingling shout of victory and the cry of defeat. In the thickest midst of those struggling, grappling ranks he must weild his lance. Friendships, once so warmly protested and now so sorely needed, have disappeared, as snow melts from the rock and as the Iris vanishes from the firmament. Yet, young man, with a brave resolution, panoplied in honesty and justice, and your banner starred with truth, honor and integrity, you are invincible. The same Omnipotence, that mantled the forms of the three men of old form the consuming flames of the fiery furnace, will lead you unscathed and triumphant through the mad whirl of this strife.

Be manly, courageous, self-reliant. Enfilade the dark front of difficulties, rising up before you. They are cowardly foes and will flee the field before an intrepid charge. Turn them to your advantage. Make them incentives to grander achievements, nobler triumphs than you would have attained without them. Then you must conquer. It is the destiny of your creation, the irreversible mandate of your Creator.

I. O. O. F.

The commemoration medal for the 26th of the present month is described as follows: The order is represented by three female figures—Faith, Hope, and Charity. Faith, the central figure, with outstretched wings, is assisted by Hope in supporting an infirm man, who implores their help during his helplessness. On the right is Charity, upheld by Faith, and reaching forth to alleviate the suffering of the widow and her orphan. Above the figures, and in the heart-shaped panel which incloses them, is the All-seeing Eye; at their feet is a head of Time, from which spread olive branches, emblematic of peace and prosperity. Pendant from the panel is a ribbon, with the motto of the order, Friendship, Love, and Truth. The design is by Malcolm J. Donald, a young artist, and the execution of the work in metal has been entrusted to A. C. Paquet. This medal is the one outhorized by the Joint Committee of Celebration appointed by the Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania.

Wooden Car Wheels.

The directors of the New York and New Haven Railroad have decided to try an experiment in the use of wooden wheels on the cars upon their road. Quite a number of the wooden wheels have been purchased and they will be substituted for the present iron ones on some of the new cars. They are understood to cost nearly treble the price of iron wheels, but are considered quite as cheap in the end. They are made of elm or teak wood and bound with steel tires. In addition to being less liable to break by the action of frost or otherwise, they make no noise.

Our Copperhead cotemporaries are filled with articles about President Grant's blunders. It is nothing new. In the opinion of these gentlemen he never did any thing else. His greatest victories were, to their minds, his most serious mistakes. General Grant never did please the Democracy or their late allies in arms; he has beaten both, and if to grumble at his course, affords them any pleasure, it is a pastime they can indulge in to their heart's content.

Land Sales at the South.

There is quite an active business in real estate at the South, this Spring. Farms in Virginia are changing hands constantly, the purchasers generally being men who propose to cultivate for themselves. The same is true in South Carolina, and other States at the South, and very good prices are realized by the sellers.

The inauguration of Gen. Grant was celebrated at between 80 and 90 different places in Germany. The best poets of the Fatherland recited poems on the occasion.

FOR SALE.

VALUABLE FARM AND MILL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE.

The subscriber being about to remove from the neighborhood, would offer his FARM and FLOURING MILL at PRIVATE SALE.

The property is located in West Hempfield township, Lancaster county, in one of the richest agricultural districts in the State; one mile out-a-half from Columbia.

The Mill is in good order, and is kept running constantly on customer work. It has two run of French burrs, with all the necessary improved machinery for doing merchant and country work. It has lately been put in complete order.

The Farm contains a little over one hundred acres, is in a high state of cultivation, and produces abundant crops. It is especially adapted to the growing of cattle. The buildings are good and substantial, and the location admirable.

A rare opportunity is here offered for any one who wishes to invest in property that will pay, or to purchase a good home in one of the best localities in the State.

Persons wishing to view the property can call on the subscriber on the premises, or make inquiries of Mr. Martin Erwin, Franklin House, Columbia.

☞ The terms of sale will be made reasonable.

MYERS & RATHFON, Southeast Corner of Center Square, [oct3-w] Lancaster, Pa.

IT IS A FACT!

Capable of ocular demonstration, that the prices of Cloths, Cassimeres, Ready-Made Clothing and Furnishing Goods, are less than one-half what they were during the war, at the Merchant Tailoring establishment of

S. S. RATHVON,

Corner North Queen and Orange Streets, opposite Shober's Hotel, Lancaster, Pa.

This is the oldest establishment in this line of trade in Lancaster county, and is selling, at this time, fine Moscow, Esquimaux, and common Beaver Overcoats from $15 to $20; Common Union Beavers from $10 to $15; Common Union Beaver Business Suits from $12 to $15; Good Cassimere Suits from $16 to $20, and fine qualities from $25 to $30. A few suits on hand as low as $10. Cloths, Cassimeres and Trimmings as low as they can be obtained anywhere else, and sold by the yard to those who may wish to have them made at home, or elsewhere.

Overcoats, Dress Coats and Business Suits made to order with dispatch, and in the best and most fashionable manner, as the customer may desire. All kinds of cutting and repairing done at reasonable prices. An entire new stock got up for the Fall and Winter trade of 1868 and 1869, and manufactured in the city of Lancaster. It would be to the interest of the public to call and realize that "IT IS A FACT."

SPECTACLES.

EASE AND COMFORT.

THE BLESSING OF PERFECT SIGHT.

There is nothing so valuable as perfect sight, and perfect sight can only be obtained by using PERFECT SPECTACLES, the difficulty of procuring which is well known.

Messrs. LAZARUS & MORRIS,

OCCULISTS AND OPTICIANS,

Hartford, Conn., manufacturers of the celebrated PERFECTED SPECTACLES, have, after years of experience, experiment, and the erection of costly machinery, been enabled to produce that grand desideratum, PERFECT SPECTACLES, which have been sold with unlimited satisfaction to the wearers in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, during the past nine years.

Those celebrated Perfected Spectacles never tire the eye, and last many years without change!

Messrs. LAZARUS & MORRIS, have appointed MR. CHAS. P. SHREINER, Watchmaker and Jeweler, their sole agent for this place.

L. & M. would caution the public against unprincipled persons, who represent that they have our Perfected Lenses for sale, as neither here or elsewhere do we employ peddlers, or supply any but our duly appointed agents.
