COUNTY FAIR.—We learn that it was determined, at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Clearfield county Agricultural Society, held on Saturday last, to hold a Fair the coming autumn. This is a matter in which every citizen of the county ought to feel interested, and each ought to take such part as would make it, not only interesting, but profitable to all.

THE NEWS.

It is now announced that all the rebels east of the Mississippi, have surrendered; and that negotiations are in progress with Kirby Smith, commanding west of the Mississippi.

Jeff. Davi's whereabouts is not known. The last heard of him was at Yorkville, S. C. This was about three weeks ago. He had with him about 2,000 cavalry, and it is said Stoneman was one day behind him.

It is announced that President Johnson has ordered the release of all the political prisoners confined at Washington and Baltimore. It is hoped and believed that he will do likewise with all this class of prisoners, as soon as he learns that there are other victims elsewhere.

Tucker and Saunders—two of the gentlemen for whom President Johnson offers a reward for supposed complicity with the late assassination—are out in a manifesto in Canada, accusing President Johnson of a hellish plot to murder their Christian President, but give no particulars. They offer to go to Rouse's Point, or some other place, and be tried on the charge made in the President's proclamation, if the United States will pay for their defence and guarantee their protection.

The trial of the persons connected with the late assassination is now progressing before a military Commission at the Arsenal in Washington. The prisoners are guarded by a regiment of soldiers.

A band of some 20 guerrillas stopped and robbed a train of cars on the Ohio & Miss. railroad about 14 miles south of Cincinnati, on last Friday night—blowing open the safes of Adam's Express Company with gunpowder, and escaping across the river in skiffs.

Gov. Curtin has also changed the day to be observed by humiliation and mourning for the death of the late President, from Thursday the 25th of May, to Thursday the 1st of June.

MAJOR WILHELM.—We are pleased to state that the authorities at Washington have granted permission to Major Jacob Wilhelm, of Clearfield county, who has been held as a political prisoner for some time past, to return to his home, under parole, until his health is restored.

Maj. Wilhelm left the city yesterday.

☞ We cut the above from the Harrisburg Patriot & Union of Friday last. We have since heard that this victim of the heartless cruelty of the vampyres who assume to dispense life and death to their fellow citizens in this region, reached his home on Saturday last. At the time of his arrest last fall, for his years, Mr. Wilhelm was as hale and hearty a man as you would find in a day's travel; but his long confinement in the foul and stinking prisons of his persecutors, seems to have totally destroyed his constitution. We hear it said—but are not positive as to the fact—that Gov. Curtin secured him the permission to come home—perhaps to die!

NOTICE.—The subscriber intends publishing, so soon as the necessary information can be obtained, a Pennsylvania State Business Directory, and he has now a corps of respectable Canvassers in the different parts of the State for that purpose. The Directory will contain the names of every individual or firm doing business on his or their account. Every business man knows the value of a reliable directory, and to make it such the subscriber would ask the aid of all those who value such a work. Besides the names of business men, the book will contain all (or as near as can be collected) the farmers in the State, and much public information.

As a medium of advertising so rare an opportunity is seldom offered to the public generally, the terms of which will be made known by the canvassers. The price of the Directory is Six dollars.

The Canvassers will show their authority to any person who may desire to see it, and grant a printed receipt with name for any money paid them, without which I will not hold myself responsible, and parties will refuse to pay any money without such receipt.

JAMES GOSSILL,
By his agent, ISAAC COSTA.

THE RADICALS AND THE PRESIDENT'S RECONSTRUCTION POLICY.—A number of radical Republican Senators and members of Congress are here, endeavoring to shape or control the policy of President Johnson in regard to reconstruction. They are anxious that they may have some hand in the re-organization of the Southern States. They contend that if the right of suffrage is to be extended to all the white population there the pro-slavery influence will prevail, and the effect of the emancipation proclamations be nullified, and the abolition of slavery indefinitely retarded, unless the negroes also shall be allowed to vote. A desperate effort will be made to impress this idea upon the President's policy: but he has conned over this whole subject of reconstruction quite as carefully as any of these volunteer advisers, and, with the Jacksonian firmness for which he is winning a reputation, he will do what he deems right and best for the whole country.—Washington Correspondent of the New York Herald.

☞ The Siberian plague is reported to be raging in St. Petersburg and various other parts of Russia. It is now more than a century since this fearful disease desolated Eastern countries. It is said to begin with a fever, and the body soon becomes covered with boils. Death occurs from three days to one week after the attack. No remedy has yet been found, though English and French physicians are now studying the disease, and may discover some method of successful treatment. The Russian Government have made repeated denials of the existence of this plague in that country, but there now seems to be no doubt of the fact. The modern facilities for travel and intercourse may bring the scourge to our Western shores.

☞ The Freeman's Journal says of President JOHNSON;

We feel, at all events that those who have been faithful Democrats, should now stand ready to encourage and to sustain President Johnson in every wise and liberal measure he may take. He must understand that the New England Puritans are his enemies, no matter how they may fawn on him for a moment. He has it in his power, by a generous policy, to tie the Southern States to him by the bonds of affection and of interest. He had no connection with the black republican party; he did nothing to bring on the bloody war; he did all he could to prevent it. There is no sentiment connected with the late troubles that can in a general way be turned against him. The road to an immense popularity is open before him; he has but to watch the New Englanders, who are whatching him, and to throw himself on the broad Democratic sentiment of the rest of the country—to sacrifice everything to the restoration of a contented and occupied peace among all the States, in order to be what no President has been since Andrew Jackson.

THE HISTORY OF
IN Europe & America,

IS NOW BEING PUBLISHED IN CONSECutive numbers of the Banner of Light, (an independent weekly newspaper, published by G. J. Beebe, at Middletown, Orange county, N. Y., at $2 per year, payable in advance). Back numbers, or supplements, containing the chapters already published, will be furnished to subscribers. This History contains a full exposure of Popular Delusions relative to the pretended "Reformations" under Calvin and Luther, Henry VIII., Cranmer and Cromwell, by a truthful history of their rise, progress and persecutions in Europe, down to the emigration of the Pharisaic Puritans to America—An account of their persecutions of Baptists, Quakers, Catholics, and other Dissenters in New England, the Blue Laws and Witchcraft—Persecutions of Dissenters from the State Religion in Virginia prior to the Revolution of 1776—The severance of Church and State at the formation of the United States Government, opposed by the popular clergy of that day—Their efforts and those of their progeny, to restore political power to the clergy by an attempted union of Church and State—the Constitution of the United States, and most of the States, in the way, and the consequent conspiracy of the clergy to overthrow our former happy system of free government—the various means employed from the first perversion of Sunday schools, and the Anti-Sunday Mail movement, down to the seizure and subversion of the common schools, academies and colleges, from institutions of learning to engines of ignorance for the enslavement of the minds of the rising generations to the degrading bigotry of the clergy—the rise and results of Native Americanism, Maine-Lawism, Know Nothingism, Abolitionism, and the various other iniquities of Priestcraft.

All should subscribe, who wish to acquaint themselves with historical facts of the greatest value at the present time, or to arm themselves with arguments to oppose Puritanic Priestcraft, which, in addition to all other curses it has inflicted upon our country, has now involved us in the most terrible sectional war, and threatens to follow it with a sectarian crusade far more awful, unless arrested by the dissemination of documents exposing its character and objects, such as the author has sought to make this history useful in accomplishing. Priestcraft is therein proved to be alike antagonistic to the true Christian religion, popular liberty, and the public peace and prosperity; and the political clergy are also proven to be servants of Satan, instead of ministers of the Prince of Peace, and their influence "evil, and only evil continually." Patriots will find a perusal of its pages of great advantage in enabling them to fight the hydra-headed monster that must be slain before we can hope for peace and a restoration of civil and religious liberty in our country.

This History will also soon be published in book form, with paper covers at $1, and in good cloth or skin covers at $1 50 to $2. Authors prices it will be sent to any address in the United States, postage free. Every intelligent patriot should have a copy, and after reading lend it to his friends and neighbor.
