To Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Lawyers.

JUDD & MURRAY at their Cheap Book Store, opposite the Post Office, North Queen Street, Lancaster, have on hand a large variety of Blanks, Mortgages, Powers of Attorney, Declarations, Warrants, Commitments, Executions, Subpoenas, Summons, &c. &c., which they sell at very low prices. Their assortment being much the largest in the city, they invite the attention of all concerned.

J. & M. have just received Barr's Reports, 10th vol., also Dunlop's Laws of Pa.; last ed. at $6,50.

The People's Decision!

AFTER a long, patient, and careful investigation of the matter, the people have decided that

THE PEOPLE'S BOOK STORE

Is the place where good Books and Stationery can be bought to the greatest advantage. The best evidence we have of the wisdom of their decision is, that of the thousands who call at

SPANGLER AND BROTHER'S

Never went away dissatisfied. On Monday, Dec. 24th, (the day before Christmas,) the amount of Books sold was greater than ever before remembered in this city, (in one day,) and what is better, the rush continues, and the reputation which our establishment has acquired is destined to become permanent and lasting.

We therefore respectfully inform the public, that we have not only the ability and inclination, but the determination also, not to "BOOT OUT," but to sell any thing in our line of business, as low if not a little lower than our neighbors.

SPANGLER & BROTHER.

Estate of John Lyle.

☞ THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE LANCASTER HALL OF FASHION

Are profits small,
Style and Fashion
Is the ruling passion,
The Largest trade
In Ready Made
Materials, well inspected,
The very best selected,
Ho buys for CASH,
Never makes up trash,
No tender Cloth,
None eat by moth—
'Tis really true
The Stock's all new;
There's nothing old
In this house sold.
The great demand
Leaves no stale on hand;
Come when you may,
By night or day,
He will treat you well,
And bargains sell.
Come one and all
To the Lancaster Hall;
Vast is the supply

☞ FOR THE HAIR.—STORR'S CHEMICAL HAIR INVIGORATOR. This mild, yet powerful and infallible renovator, insinuates its balsamic properties into the pores of the head, nourishes the hair in its embryo state, cleanses it from scurf and dandruff, accelerates its growth, sustains it in its maturity, and continues its possession of healthy vigor, silky softness, and luxurious redundancy, to the latest period of human life. Its operation in cases of baldness is peculiarly active; so that in numerous instances where other remedies have been tried in vain, STORR'S CHEMICAL HAIR INVIGORATOR has superseded ornaments of art by reinstating, in full plentitude, the permanent gifts and graces of nature. For children it is especially recommended, as forming the basis of a beautiful head of hair. The esteem in which it is held, together with numerous testimonials constantly received of its efficacy, afford the best and surest proof of its merits. Price 25 cents, large bottles.

Interesting Examination.

The following interesting colloquy passed between a learned Schoolmaster, and a very interesting youth. As the subject is a novel, as well as an important one, your readers will pardon its insertion here.

Schoolmaster—(With a copy of the "Intelligencer.")—James, in looking over the columns of this paper, I find there are three or four "cheapest" Book Stores in our city. As this cannot possibly be, will you endeavor to give me an explanation.

James.—Nothing easier, sir. Spangler & Brother sell very cheap, while the others only feel very cheap.

Schoolmaster.—Excellent solution; your's a credit to the school. Can you now tell me the difference between the largest stock of "stationery," and the largest stationary stock?

James.—I think I can, sir. Spangler & Brother have decidedly the largest stock of stationery, such for instance, as elegant note paper, envelopes, foolscap and letter paper, blank books, quills, slates, wafers, sealing wax, and a host of elegant articles besides; whilst some bookstores I know of, have the largest amount of stationary stock, that is, Old Books that won't sell!!!

Schoolmaster.—That'll do, that'll do, James. Ha! ha!! ha!!! I shall die laughing; oh, my poor sides. You may go and play now.

Circular.

TO Clergymen, Postmasters, Teachers of Sabbath Schools, Book Agents, Students and Heads of Families,

Sears Pictorial Family Annual,

An illustrated work, comprising a fine series of embellishments, with interesting descriptions, in one handsome large octavo of about 400 pages, elegantly bound in gilt, and lettered in the most finished style of modern book-making. Price only Two Dollars.

This splendid volume comprises within itself a complete Library of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge, condensed in form, familiar in style, and copious in information, embracing an extensive range of subjects. The engravings over two hundred in number, are strictly illustrative, being representations of actual Scenery, Costumes, Manners, Monuments, &c.

On examination the above work will be pronounced by every intelligent person, under whose observation it may come, as one of the most suitable presents for a father to present to his family, as regards both the quality and number of its embellishments and the pure character of its contents. In preparing every article for its pages, the greatest caution has been used, to admit nothing but of an improving and instructing character.

To men of enterprise and tact, this work alone offers an opportunity for profitable employment seldom to be met with. There is not a town in the Union, where a right, honest, and well disposed person can fail selling from 50 to 200 volumes, according to the population.

All persons wishing sample copies, to examine or procure subscribers with, can receive one or more substantially bound in paper covers*—the postage not exceeding 30 cents on each volume so forwarded—on the receipt of One Dollar. In this way, no matter where a person resides, if within the reach of a Post Office, he can obtain a copy of the Family Annual.

Persons in the country wishing to act as agents may obtain all the requisite information, by adressing the subscriber. To secure attention to any communications, they must be post paid. In writing, let each person mention his Post Office, County and State.

Agents wanted in every section of the United States. ROBERT SEARS, Publisher.

No. 118 Nassau street, New York.

*The only kind we are allowed to forward under the Post Office Law.

To Publishers of Newspapers throughout the United States. Newspapers copying this advertisement, entire, well displayed as above, without any alteration or abridgment, (including this notice,) and giving it four inside insertions, shall receive a copy of the Annual, (subject to their order) by sending direct to the publisher, New York.

County Court Proclamation.

WHEREAS, the Hon. ELLIS LEWIS, President, and JACOB GROSH and EM'L SCHAFFER, Esq'rs., Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the county of Lancaster, and Assistant Justices of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the said County of Lancaster, have issued their precept to me directed, requiring me, among other things, to make Public Proclamation throughout my Bailiwick, that the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery:—Also, a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery, will commence in the city of Lancaster, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the THIRD MONDAY of JANUARY next, 1850, in pursuance of which precept

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the city of Lancaster, in the said county, and all the Justices of the Peace, the Coroner, Constables, of the city and county of Lancaster, that they be then and there, in their own proper persons, with their rolls, records and examinations, and inquisitions, and their other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain in that behalf to be done; and also, all those who will prosecute against the prisoners who are, or then shall be in the Jail of the said county of Lancaster, are to be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Dated at Lancaster, the 21st day of Nov., 1849. JACOB HUBER, Sheriff.

N. B.—Punctual attendance of Jurors and Witnesses will hereafter be expected and required on the first day of the Sessions. Aldermen and Justices of the Peace are required by an order of Court, dated November 21st, 1848, to return their recognizances to David M. Martin, Clerk of Quarter Sessions, within one week from the day of final action in each case, and in default thereof the Migistrate's costs will not be allowed.

Trustee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

WATER POWER, COTTON AND WOOLLEN

FACTORY,

GRIST AND SAW MILLS.

BY virtue of a decree and order of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned, as Trustee, will sell at public auction from the Court House door in Elkton, on SATURDAY the 26th of January next, all that very valuable Cotton and Woollen Factory, Grist and Saw Mills, together with 89 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, of arable and woodland, being part of the Real Estate whereof the late Col. Wm. Garrett, died seized.

This property lies 7 miles north of the town of Elkton, in Cecil county, Maryland, and about the same distance from the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, and other public conveyances to the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore, and is commonly known by the name of

GARRETT'S FACTORIES.

The buildings consist of a Cotton and Woollen Factory, nearly new—85 feet long by 35 feet wide, and 3 stories high; a Grist and Saw Mill in good repair; 7 Tenant Houses, to be occupied by the operatives in the Factory: a MANSION HOUSE for the proprietor, together with a good and substantial Farm House; also a large and commodious Barn with Stabling beneath, Granary, Corn-crib, and other convenient and necessary out-buildings, all in good repair. There is also a good Apple Orchard on the farm. The arable land is in a high state of cultivation, and all under good fencing. There is sufficient wood upon this property to supply necessary fuel.

The Cotton and Woollen Factory has been in constant and successful operation for nearly 30 years past, with the exception of a few months in the year 1840, when it was re-built upon an improved plan. Its connections are extensive, and it is well known as one of the very best establishments of the kind in the State. It is situated on the Big Elk, a copious and powerful stream of water at all seasons of the year. The neighborhood is remarkably healthy, and noted for the purity of its air and water. There are several places of worship of various denominations within a convenient distance, together with well conducted schools. Delaware College is located in the town of Newark, about 4 miles distant, and affords an excellent opportunity for the attainment of the higher branches of education.

There are no other Cotton and Woollen Factories within many miles, it will therefore be seen that this property presents many inducements to persons desirous of engaging in the business.

Further description is deemed unnecessary, as those who think of purchasing can view the premises for themselves. Any other information will be willingly given upon application to Mrs. Sarah Ann Garrett, residing on the premises, or to the subscriber.

Letters on the subject addressed to the subscriber at Elkton will meet with prompt attention.

THE TERMS OF SALE, as prescribed by the decree are, one-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, another third in the six months, and the remaining third in twelve months from the day of sale. The credit payments to be secured by bond with approved security to the Trustee. HIRAM M'CULLOUGH,

Trustee.

N. B. In obedience to the provisions of the decree, I hereby give notice to the creditors of Wm. Garrett, late of Cecil county, deceased, to file their claims with the vouchers thereof properly authenticated in the Chancery Office at Annapolis, within 4 months from the said 26th day of January next.

H. M'CULLOUGH, Trustee.

A Thrilling Incident

AT THE CHEAP BOOKSTORE.—A few days since, while gazing at the eager crowd hurrying into, and congregating around Spangler's Cheap Bookstore, our attention was drawn to a young gentleman whose noble appearance soon made him the "observed of all observers." After looking for a few moments upon the busy scene with cordent admiration, he suddenly gave expression to his feeling in the following exquisite parody:

I knew by the crowd that so hurriedly rushed
To the door and the window that a Bookstore was near,
And I said, if CHEAP Books in the world can be found,
The eager crowd seeking will sure find them here.

'Tis noon; and in Book Stores that once flourished LARGE,
On the counter sits snoozing the once active clerk,
Every LEAF is at rest, and I hear not a sound;
While at Spangler & Brother's all hands are at work.

"Ah, here in this Bookstore, (he gently exclaimed,)
With a maid who was lovely to soul and to eye,
Who would blush when I praised her and weep when I blamed,
What a stock of FINE ANNUALS I surely would buy."

Notice.

THE Members of the Southern Mutual Insurance Company of Lancaster County, are hereby notified, that the annual meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year, will be held at the public house of Joseph Long, (Spring Grove,) in Drumore township, on Saturday, the 29th day of December next, at 10 o'clock A. M. A punctual attendance of the members is requested.

By order of the Board of Directors.

GEO. W. HENSEL, Secretary.

Elegant Books for the Hollidays

NOW OPENING AT

JUDD & MURRAY'S CHEAP BOOK STORE,
OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE, NORTH QUEEN ST., LANCASTER

WE have the largest variety and the most elegant assortment of

ANNUALS, ALBUMS, POETS AND CHOICE RELIGIOUS BOOKS,

in fine bindings, ever brought to this market. A large portion of these Books can be found no where else in this city. Having purchased these Books in very large quantities we can afford to sell them at VERY LOW PRICES—lower than our neighbors. To prove this, we respectfully invite a comparison of Books and Prices.

WOMEN OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT—imperial 8vo. a very elegant volume, containing 18 exquisitely finished engravings of Female Characters of the Old and New Testament, with Biographies of Descriptions by 17 eminent American clergymen.

WOMEN OF THE BIBLE—18 engravings, same size and style of book with the above, but with entirely different plates and matter.

READ'S FAMALE POETS OF AMERICA—with Portraits, Biographical Notices and Specimens of writings, a sumptuous volume. We have this work in Turkey morocco and in red cloth.

LEAFLETS OF MEMORY—an illuminated annual for 1850—edited by Reynell Coates, M. D. royal octavo, printed in the best manner, on snow white paper, illustrated with 12 Mezzotinto engravings and illuminations, and bound in the best style. The Leaflets for 1850, is superior to those of former years.

THE ROSARY OF ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE BIBLE—8vo. containing 6 fine Mezzotinto engravings of subjects from celebrated scripture paintings, edited by Rev. Edward Everett Hall. This is an entirely new book, in both matter and engravings.

THE SOUVINER GALLERY—an illustrated Gift Book for all seasons, edited by Emily Percival, quarto, a superb book.

THE POET'S OFFERING FOR 1850—edited by Mrs. Hale, 8vo., best binding, 14 plates—not only an exceedingly beautiful, but a very valuable book.

YOUNG LADY'S OFFERING, Or, Gems of Prose and Poetry, by Mrs. Sigourney and others, with 4 steel illustrations, 1 vol. 12mo.

YOUNG MAN'S OFFERING, Or, Prose and Poetical Writings of the most eminent authors, illustrated with 6 engravings, 1 vol, 12mo.

ARTHUR'S ADVICE TO YOUNG LADIES—12 mo. with fine steel engravings.

THE GARLAND, OR TOKEN OF FRIENDSHIP—a Christmas and New Year's Gift for 1850, edited by Emily Percival, and illustrated with six fine steel engravings and illuminations, 12mo. elegantly bound, gilt edges and sides.

THE OFFERING OF BEAUTY—with 10 female portraits (colored,) and a highly colored frontispiece, 1 vol, 8vo. extra gilt edges.

THE SNOW FLAKE—a Christmas and New Year's gift for 1850, small octavo, printed in the best style on fine white paper, and embellished with nine Mezzotinto engravings, by Welch, and a splendid illuminated presentation plate, drawn by Dresser, and bound in the best style.

THE HYACINTH, OR AFFECTIONS GIFT—a Juvenile Annual for 1850, five fine steel plates, fancy cloth, gilt edges and sides.

THE GIFT OF FRIENDSHIP, Or, Token of Remembrance for 1850—six fine steel plates, morocco, extra richly gilt.

Scenes in the Lives of the Patriarchs and Prophets 8vo. 8 plates.

Lancaster Emporium of Taste!

CHARLES B. WILLIAMS, Professor of the Tonsorial Institute and Physiognomical HAIR CUTTER and extatic SHAVER, respectfully informs the citizens of Lancaster, and strangers who may tarry here until their beards grow, that he still continues to carry on his business in where he intends prosecuting the Tonsorial business in all its varied branches.

He will shave you as clean as a City Broker, and cut your hair to suit the shape of your head and the cut of your chin, well knowing that the whole object and desire is to improve the appearance of the outer man. From long experience he flatters himself that he can go through all the ramifications of the art, with so much skill, as to meet the entire approbation of all those who submit their chins to the keen ordeal of his Razor.

SHAMPOONING done in the most improved style, and Razors sharpened in the very best manner.

DR. J. WAYLAN,

DENTIST,

Opposite Vankanan's (formerly Scholfield's) Hotel,

North Queen St., Lancaster, Pa.

I heartily recommend to the people of Lancaster, all others to whom this may come, Dr. Waylan, Grndute of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, as a gentleman eminently qualified to practice his profession in a skillful and scientific manner, and of moral character that entitles him to all confidence.

I do also certify, that Dr. Waylan did obtain, as the award of a Committee, consisting of Dr. Parmly of New York, Dr. Roper of Philadelphia, and Dr. Noyes of Baltimore, a Case of Instruments, offered by the College as
