New All-Stone Corner Home With Garage
One 5-Cent Fare No Change of Cars $7600 17 Minutes to City Hall
These houses were built to advertise my purchase of 10 city blocks of ground. Four sold last week and but few remain. In the opinion of transit officials and expert real estate men, no other location in Philadelphia is so convenient today—nor will it be possible in the future to give any other location in Philadelphia so many high-speed lines. Seven different high-speed lines meet here; you can go almost anywhere, any time—2 to 4 minutes' service all day—no long waiting for cars at crowded street corners. House open in front and on both sides. The rear of the house is built with a twenty-inch stone party wall between it and another house which faces on another street. Come see them—big, substantial, all-stone houses, the solidity of which means economy of upkeep—and with immense stone-and-cement porches forty-three feet long.
