Joy at Wilkes-Barre.

Wilkes-Barre, May 8.—The news that an agreement had been reached in New York between the anthracite coal operators and miners committee was received here with the utmost satisfaction. Large groups of miners scanned the bulletins and all gave expression of their pleasure that the dispute had been settled amicably through the influence of their leader, John Mitchell, in whom they expressed themselves as having the fullest confidence.

Building operations and other business in this vicinity that have been at a standstill ever since the mines closed down have already experienced a boom because of the prospects of an early resumption of work.

PRICE OF COAL REDUCED

All Except Steam Sizes Down Forty Cents a Ton.

New York, May 8.—A reduction of 40 cents a ton in all except the steam sizes of anthracite coal was announced by the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. This announcement followed the news that the committees representing the operators and the miners had reached an agreement. The reduction is customary at this time of the year and it is understood that the Reading company will make a similar decrease in price.

CHICAGO GROGGERIES CLOSED

High License Drives Out 1354 and Swells City Revenues $3,000,000.

Chicago, May 7.—The effect of the $1000 saloon license is seen in the police reports showing that 1354 saloons have gone out of business since April 30. Of these 38 are in the First ward, while the largest number is in the Maxwell street police station district, where 112 are reported closed, and in the new city police district, where 107 went out of business.

There are 600 applications for new saloons. Even if all these are granted it will make a net decrease of 700 saloons. Since May 1 2000 licenses have been issued. The revenues will be increased more than $3,000,000. The retiring saloons are of the "groggery" variety.

HELD FOR ELECTION FRAUDS

Prominent Republican Politician of Delaware Arrested.

Wilmington, Del., May 4.—Abraham R. Tyre, former member of the legislature and prominent Republican politician of Brandywine hundred, was arrested here on a charge of being connected with the frauds at the Republican primary election in that district two years ago. Albert S. Matlack and James Watson, two of the election officers, are now serving a sentence, and Matlack made a statement to Attorney General Richards implicating Tyre. Tyre will be given a hearing before a magistrate on Saturday.
