Wayne DHIA To Meet

HONESDALE (Wayne Co.)—The annual meeting and dinner of the Wayne County affiliate of Pennsylvania DHIA will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 6, starting at 7:45 p.m. at the Bethany Methodist Church Hall.

A roast beef and ham dinner will be served at a cost of $8 per person.

The program will feature Dean Amick from the Pennsylvania DHIA staff. Dean will discuss and explain the use of milk urea nitrogen (MUN) analysis currently being offered and tested at the Pennsylvania DHIA lab. He will also update all dairymen with current trends and other news from Pennsylvania DHIA.

John Castrogiovanni, Montrose, district DHIA director for Wayne-Susquehanna-Wyoming and Lackawanna counties, will also have a report from the state directors' meetings. He will also answer any questions pertaining to the Pa. DHIA organization and represent area members at these state meetings with their ideas and concerns.

Other business will include the presentation and recognition of area dairy herds for herd management awards, lifetime production awards, herd milk, butterfat and protein production awards and individual cow production awards.

Tickets for this DHIA meeting/dinner are available from area herd technicians, from Marilyn Johnson, secretary-treasurer, by calling 253-4728 or from the Wayne County Cooperative Extension office by dialing 253-5970 extension 239.
