SALESMAN—Experienced man to sell stock of long-established Philadelphia manufacturing concern; must give references; commission basis. F 223, Ledger Office.

SALESMEN WANTED

We are large manufacturers of asphalt shingles and prepared roofings.

The average earnings of our salesmen for the year 1920 exceeded $10,000; straight commission basis, with consistent drawing accounts; your earning power limited only by your ability to sell and our ability to ship.

If you have demonstrated your ability to sell roofings or building materials to dealers in sizable volume, if you possess initiative, are aggressive and resourceful and have more than ordinary ambition and can meet our requirements, you will find a REAL opportunity with us.

These requirements naturally limit the number who may properly apply for positions.

If you are one of the few who do meet them, write us, giving full particulars about yourself; all applications treated in strictest confidence, and an early interview will be arranged for interesting applicants.

We have territories available in western New York, eastern Pennsylvania and western Pennsylvania.
