"BLACK LOYALTY."

Let the Truth of History be Preserved.

Nigh a million of lives we have spent
And three billions of dollars or more,
That each fetter in twain should be rent
And the slave horn be heard never more;
Full six years we have given to the black,
And the thing was undoubtedly right—
Now suppose, just to alter the tack,
We devote half an hour to the white.

When the South in its hour of mad pride
At Fort Sumter let drive the first shot,
Neck and heels one poor Sambo was tied,
And the North held one end of the knot;
But our boys, we be got at the sound,
For both hands we required in the fight—
And the war for the black was then found
Quite a tough job of work for the white.

Well, we fought—aye, for four years we fought,
Pouring out lavish treasure and life—
Did the black then arise as he ought,
Cleaving northward with torch and with knife?
All his masters were far from his track
Under Johnson and Lee in the fight;
There was nothing to hold the black back
From assisting his champion, the white.

Did he aid us when bleeding we stood
To chase from him slavery's screams,
Or, to use some he clothing, and food,
Harness, powder, equipments and teams?
Well I know that in one single State
A regiment would have ended the fight;
Who more of their "loyalty" prate,
For the black traitors were worse than the white.

The white rebels came with a cheer,
Their bayonets aslant and aglow,
While the black rebels stunk in the rear,
Assisting (and freely) our foe;
Phillips, Sumner, and men of that school,
May click-clatter from morning till night—
But if black or white rebels must rule,
Then, by Heaven! count me in for the white.

It would sicken a dog, this vile cant
That we hear of "black loyalty" now—
And notice the twaddlers, who rant
On the subject, were far from the row;
But since cold has been Lee's latest gun,
And since Johnson stacked arms after fight,
We are told "by black valor we won"—
Its all humbug to Laurel the white!

To the black rebel glory and power,
To white rebel chains and disgrace!
Oh, madness, and worse, rules the hour,
We are false to faith, wisdom and race!
To my heart with you Longstreet and Hill,
Johnson, Lee—every man in the fight—
You were rebels, and bad ones, but still,
You share my misfortune—you're white!

MILES O'REILLY.
Late Private 47th Reg't N. Y. Vol. Infantry.

ELECTION, NEXT TUESDAY

DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE BY A NEGRO.

On last Friday evening a negro, named John Brown, made an assault upon Miss Nora Feller, daughter of Capt. Jos. Feller, of Bedford. It was just dusk, and Miss Feller was returning from a visit to the country. The negro seized her, at an unfrequented spot, threw her to the ground, tried to gag her, drew a knife and swore he would cut her heart out unless she submitted, and that he would shoot her if she said a word about the matter.—Though terribly alarmed, she managed to keep her assailant at bay for a short time, when the unexpected appearance of a couple of white men caused him to flee. Miss Feller was much bruised and was cut and scratched about the face and neck. The negro has not been arrested, and a reward is offered for him. These outrages are becoming alarmingly frequent in this State, and we have no doubt they are partly owing to the advocacy of negro equality.

NEGROES IN SCHOOLS.

We learn that negro children are now admitted into the public schools of Middletown, and enjoy equal privileges with white pupils. This will soon be the case everywhere if the negro-loving Radicals are not checked in their fanatical career. Negroes will be thrust into the public schools, into the jury boxes, into the halls of legislation, and upon the benches of our courts, as is now the case in some of the Southern States. If the people want such a state of affairs here, they can accomplish it by voting to retain the Radical revolutionists in power.—Patriot & Union.

In the Radical stronghold of Allegheny county, the Republicans are as badly divided as in Lancaster county. The Pittsburg Post says:

"Many Republicans in this county will vote the Democratic ticket in its entirety. Others will vote for a ticket made up of names on both the Radical and Democratic tickets. The Democratic candidates, especially for Assembly, are so manifestly superior to their opponents, that we cannot see how any good citizen, in view of past occurrences at Harrisburg, can be prevailed on to vote against them. The Ledger, which occupies an independent position in politics, strongly advises Republicans to vote for Messrs. Sellers and McKee, in place of Smith and Beckert, whom it denounces as unfit for legislative position. We find this feeling so extensively prevalent with the moderate men of the Republican party."

A CALL UPON RESPECTABLE REPUBLICANS.—Now is the time for respectable Republicans to come out and proclaim their opposition to the radical party that is ruining the country.—N. Y. Herald.

A BALLOT cast for Judge Williams will be a vote for a partisan judiciary, for military despotism, for high taxes, for negro suffrage, for low wages, for high prices, for stagnation in business, for diminished production, for disunion, for ruin.—Patriot & Union.

GEN. Grant's father addressed an immense Democratic meeting at Cincinnati the other day.

Oporto Grape Culture.—This country is becoming noted for the enterprise of wine growers. New Jersey particularly, where the celebrated Port Grape Wine is made purely from the grape juice. The following letter from an eminent physician who lives in sight of Speer's vineyard, will be of interest to our readers:

Passaic, Oct. 20th, 1865.

I hereby certify that Mr. A. Speer of this village has a large vineyard of choice grape vines, which are looking very fine. He also purchases a great many grapes, not as yet producing as many himself as is required to keep his stock of wine full. He has the Port Grape, the wine of which is held in high estimation and of which he has a large quantity on hand lying in his cellars, requiring age before he disposes of it.

R. A. TERHUNE, M. D.

The above wine can be procured of our druggists.

MARRIED.

AGENTS WANTED.

NO SOAP—NO WATER—NO SLOP.

GLASS CLEANING POLISH.—This is a new and unprecedented article patented by Mr. Chas. M. Brown, No. 74 Bleecker street, New York. It will be universally used, for it is more effectual than the old system of cleaning Windows, Mirrors, Gold, Silver, Plated Ware, Tin, Copper, &c. Purchasers must be careful, as a spurious article has much its appearance.

JONES' MILL FOR SALE.

THIS is a large FRAME MILL on the Turnpike, 3 miles below Leesburg, in Loudon county, Va. The works in the Mill are in pretty good repair, as a Saw and Grist Mill. There is a Miller's house and 2 acres of land with the Mill. The mill race is not over three hundred yards long from the dam to the mill; would take but little expense to make it a very valuable property, as there is no mill for 5 miles. The other mills were all burned during the war.

The Mill would be sold very cheap for cash. Apply to MARY A. JONES.
