FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1868.

THE RADICAL LEADERS of 1860 AND 1868 CONTRASTED.—A moment's glance at the present situation of the Radical party, will serve to show the contrast between its condition in 1860 and 1868. Among the conspicuous members of the Republican Convention of 1860 were such men as Francis P. Blair, Wm. M. Evarts, and a host of others embodying the talent and respectability of the Convention, a majority of whom are now ranked among the [illegible] opponents of the Radicals. The Chicago Convention of that year, the [illegible] prominent candidates for the President nomination—Lincoln, Seward, Chase and Bates. The last act of Lincoln's life was to originate and adopt the policy of Johnson. Bates abandoned the present Radical organization before Lincoln died; Seward is an active enemy of Radicalism, and if there is one man in the United States whom the Radicals of to-day hate more bitterly than Andrew Johnson, that man is Salmon P. Chase. Then Chase, and Trumbull, and Fessenden, and Grimes, and Doolittle, and Dixon, and Stanbery, and a host of other great names, were in the ranks of the Republicans. Now, they are either acting openly with the Democracy, or are rear out of the Radical party by the hot heads who control it. Nor is this all that is noticeable. While the statesmen of the Republican party have abandoned Radicalism, the vicious and treacherous elements of the Democratic party entered in and—The party which leading the charge for Chase and Doolittle, Bates and Evarts, has demonstrated its affinity for Butler and Logan, Stanton and Dan. Sickles. The leaders of the Radical party to-day—the men who have Grant in their keeping—were clamorous for Secession in 1860, and justified the Southern States in resorting to arms to repel the exercise of Federal power. Now, Butler, Stanton, and Dan Sickles, are blatant Radical demagogues, and are accorded the highest positions of honor in the party that so recently despised them. They, take the places once occupied by Seward, Chase, Trumbull, Stanbery, and others like them.—Albany Argus.

DISPATCHES from St. Louis on Saturday morning announce that a letter, received there from Fort Lynn, Colorado, says that the renowned Kit Karson died at that post on the 23d ult. of a rupture of an artery in the neck.

THE whistle which John A. Logan laughed was hurled at him in York, when he was on his way to Chicago, is supposed to have been merely the "brick in his hat."

THE National Intelligencer asserts by authority, that Senator Pomeroy's vote was offered to the President for a valuable consideration.

A meritorious article is Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; it is rapidly becoming known and widely and deservedly popular. It is apparently nothing in itself but an agreeably perfumed and pleasant hair dressing, but it contains the most wonderful curative properties for loss of hair, and after using it a short time, gray hair is restored to its natural color. If any of our readers doubt it, let them try a single bottle of the "Renewer," and they will add their testimonial to the truth of what we say.—"Sentinel," Burlington, Vt. 1t

Sperrie Wine is the pure, unadulterated juice of the Oporto grape, now being cultivated in this country by Mr. Speer. It is valuable for family use, and for its tonic and invigorating properties. It gives tone to the stomach, and invigorates the system. In fashionable circles it has become the favorite table wine.—Intelligencer.

Druggists are agents for this wine.

Poverty is Bad, but the worst kind of poverty is poverty of the blood; this makes a man "poor indeed," for it takes away his strength, courage, and energy; but enrich the blood with its vital element, Iron, by taking the Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron,) and you will feel rich and "as good as anybody." Try it. 4t

Radical Restoration.—Its good effects are permanent. It not only restores the color of the hair, but the quantity and natural glossiness. This is said by everyone using Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle). Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. 1m
