POOR BEDFORD!—All our hopes of a speedy completion of "the railroad to Bedford," have vanished into thin air. It is really too bad. Not only are Republics ungrateful, but "Republicans" won't care anything about railroads or railroad candidates. Hadn't we better sell out and leave?" Who would spend a life among such a people, even if they be "loyal" and hate Andy Johnson? We had fondly hoped that a candidate standing on a railroad platform would certainly do some fast running, especially when he engineered the locomotive himself and had a cow-catcher on the engine that was big enough to pick up and carry all the calves in the community. But we have been disappointed. All the railroad men are cruelly disappointed. Tom. Scott will have things his own way one year longer, and Diehl and Dibert will still carry the mail to and from Mt. Dallas. And all this because the "Republican" party has refused to get upon the railroad platform with the railroad candidate, par excellence, for the Legislature. That party is too slow; it can't come to time; it doesn't believe in cars and T rail; it prefers the howl of Wendell Phillips to the roar of the locomotive; it thinks its editors ought to stay upon the platform of the State Convention, instead of trying to ride into office on a railroad platform; it believes, too, "when the cars are in motion passengers must get off the platform." And hence, our railroad candidate has been slaughtered in the house of his friends. Ungrateful Republicans!" Short-sighted Convention! Where is your blush?

BASE BALL MATCH.—The Juniata Base Ball Club of this place, having divided its players into two nines, for the purpose of practice, several very interesting games have lately been played. Some time ago the first nine thrashed the second most unmercifully, making a score of nearly two to one. This defeat aroused the second nine to the necessity of better playing, and accordingly, on Tuesday last, they played another match with the first nine, beating them by one point. The score stood as follows:

FIRST NINE.	O.	R.	SECOND NINE.	O.	R.
Alsip, 1b.	0	9	King, 1b.	2	9
Lewis, 2b.	1	9	Meyers 2b.	1	9
Egan, 3b.	3	8	Anderson, 3b.	2	6

Stivers, l. f.	2	8	W. Schell, l. f.	4	7

FESTIVAL OF THE M. E. MITE SOCIETY.—The festival of the M. E. Mite Society, held in the Court House, last week, was quite a success. The Democratic and "Republican" brass bands discoursed most eloquent music, whilst the visitors refreshed themselves with ice-cream, lemonade, cake, &c., &c.

FOURTH OF JULY AT THE CHALYBEATE TROTTING PARK.—Independence day will be celebrated in grand style at Col. Hafer's Chalybeate Trotting Park (called "race course," in mistake, in our last.) A dinner will be served up at the house of W. Chenoweth, Esq., and that it will be perfectly au fait, we have no hesitation to prophesy. The Declaration of Independence will be read and Prof. Heffley's band will be in attendance and enliven the occasion with their best pieces. In the evening there will be dancing, and, we doubt not, every thing will go merry as a marriage bell.

"THE CLIMBER."—The "Campaign Climber," is now ready for distribution. We print a large edition this week for distribution, in order to give our friends an idea of what the paper will be. Let every one who receives a copy interest himself in getting up a club. The "Climber" will have some of the best humorous illustrations ever given in any paper, and will also contain portraits of President Johnson and Hon. Hiester Clymer.

MENGEL HOUSE.—The gentlemen of the Mengel House have made great improvements in their hotel. The bar-room has been newly papered, the parlors re-carpeted, and other important renovations made. The bar is said to be filled with choice liquors, but as ye Local never drinks, he can't say, except that he has seen some very inviting cobblers, juleps, et id omne genus, disposed of under the supervision of Col. Edsall, the attentive and gentlemanly barkeeper.

When you put away your cloth,
Then begins the little moth.
His work of great destruction.
There is a way to kill the pest,
And entirely destroy his nest,
So take this instruction:

Go to Lewis' Drug Store, purchase a package of Cedar Camphor, which is certain death to the insect. Those wishing Mishler's Bitters, can now find them at Lewis' Drug Store.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—In accordance with the almost universal custom of newspaper publishers, and in order to give our employees a "Fourth of July," there will be no paper issued from this office next week.

FIRE.—A fire occurred in the rooms of Mrs. H. Ogle, at the Washington House, one night last week, by which the unfortunate lady lost a great deal of clothing and was, herself, severely burnt about the hands.

STEAM MILL.—The Messrs. Hartley have put up the frame of their new Steam Mill, in the eastern part of town, and will proceed to the completion of the building as rapidly as possible. The Mill will add considerable to the business and activity of our ancient borough.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.—T. H. & N. J. Lyons have sold one of their farms in St. Clair township, to Jacob Beckley, Esq., for three thousand dollars. They offer for sale a number of farms near and adjoining it. See advertisement.

STORES CLOSED ON THE FOURTH.—We have been requested to state that the stores in this place will be closed on the Fourth of July.

FESTIVAL.—A Festival will be held in the Court House, on the evening of July 4th, by the ladies, for the benefit of the Presbyterian church.

"Night-Blooming Cereus"—like the Bard sublime,
Not for a day, but for all coming time."

Horrible Butchery.

YORK, Pa., June 19—A horrible tragedy was enacted on last Sunday evening near Rossville, fifteen miles from this place, in which a family were hurried into eternity by the fell assassin's hand. The occurrence took place at the house of Mr. George Squibbs; which is situated in a secluded spot in Warrington township, and resulted in the death of Mr. Squibbs, aged 72 years, and his grand daughter, Emma Jane Selfirt, aged 11 years. Mrs. Squibbs being left in a dying condition. From an examination of the wounds inflicted it is supposed that the weapon used was a hatchet, or some similar instrument. Money is believed to have been the object of the murder. An Irishman named Donovan, living in the vicinity, has been arrested, and the circumstances point strongly toward him as the perpetrator of the foul deed.

The community are intensely excited over the horrible affair, which resembles closely in many of its features the Dearing murder which took place so recently in Philadelphia.

HOME AGAIN!!!!!

BY THE BARD OF LIPPEL'S HALL.

Home again! Home again!
From a foreign shore;
And now I'll get some handsome clothes
From LIPPEL'S Clothing Store.

For I have roamed the world around,
But none like their's can find;
To such as I could get abroad,
I had to be resigned.

But oh, it caused my heart to ache,
My countenance to fall,
To buy such clothes from others,
When I thought of LIPPEL'S Hall.

Oh, you are highly favored,
Who live on Juniata shore,
For you can always get your clothes
At LIPPEL'S Clothing Store.

And all who have to travel,
Will these my words recall;
For none make clothes as good and cheap
As those at LIPPEL'S Hall.

Where you can always find the largest stock of MEN and BOY'S CLOTHING, together with PIECE GOODS for Custom order. Also a lot of DRY GOODS and GROCERIES. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods.
