DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE AT SCHELLSBURG! DINNER, SPEECHES, MUSIC, AND TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION!—Pursuant to previous notice the Democrats of Schellsburg and surrounding districts, celebraed the recent Democratic victories by a mass meeting in front of the Exchange Hotel, which was organized by the appointment of the following named officers: President, JOHN SILL; Vice Presidents, Wm. Rock, A. E. Schell, Hugh Kinton, John Kemerer and John Rininger; Secretaries, John Otto, Jere. Black, James Statler. Mr. John S. Schell then stated the object of the meeting, after which speeches were made by O. E. Shannon, B. F. Meyers and Col. John H. Filler. The meeting was large and very enthusiastic. An elegant dinner was served up by mine host of the Exchange, Mr. Burton Edsall, which was greatly enjoyed by those who partook of it. At night there was a torch-light procession, which paraded the streets of the town, with pine lights and transparencies, making quite a brilliant display. Some of the transparencies were decided hits, and all of them were well executed. Our young friend John A. Snively is credited with the painting of the transparencies, and we must say he did it very cleverly. The procession was led by that veteran soldier of the Mexican War, Lieut. John Keeffe, who carried the Stars and Stripes. After the procession, the crowd again assembled at the stand in front of the Exchange, and after vociferous calls for Mr. John G. Fisher, that gentleman appeared, and delivered a forcible and entertaining speech. After Mr. Fisher had concluded, Col. Filler was loudly called for, and that eloquent champion of freedom stepped upon the stand, and entertained the audience with a speech that we have never heard excelled upon the stump, in vigor, pointedness and eloquence. The speaker was interrupted with frequent bursts of applause. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for Col. Filler, and three times three for the unconquerable Democracy. The Democratic Brass Band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with most eloquent music.

ORGANIZATION OF A LYCEUM.—SAMBO IN THE WOOD-PILE.—One night last week some of our towns-folk resolved that they would make an effort to start a Lyceum, or Debating Club, and accordingly a number of them assembled at the Court House to carry their resolution into effect. There were some eight persons present at the meeting. M. A. Points, Esq, was called to the chair. The committee on Constitution (Messrs. Keagy and Schaeffer) made a report, which was read. One of the articles of this Constitution provided that none but white male citizens, of a certain age, should become members of the Lyceum. The reading of this article at once brought Mr. Durborrow, of the Inquirer, to his feet, who moved to strike it out. Mr. Keagy also "went back" upon his own offspring, and the rest of the Radical brethren followed suit. The motion to strike out the words white male citizens, was debated at great length, Messrs. Kerr, Koontz, Schaeffer, Berkstresser, Reynolds and others opposing the motion, and Messrs. Points, Keagy, Durborrow, et al., favoring it. Mr. Durborrow said that he wanted it understood that he was "one of those who are in favor of striking out the word white from the Constitution of Pennsylvania," and that he would not sign the Constitution if the words "white male citizens," were not stricken out. The scene was truly alarming. Things looked war-like. The Chair, terrified by the noise and confusion, ruled the article out of order, and the question was referred back to the committee. Such things may astonish our readers, but it is not at all surprising to us that some people prefer debating societies to be composed of themselves and negroes.

MUSIC AND LEGERDEMAIN.—Mr. J. H. Sharp, the Great Musical Wonder, and a Ventriloquist of more than ordinary powers, will give an entertainment to the people of Bedford, at the Court House, on Friday evening next, Nov. 1. He will give performances in sleight-of-hand, double voice singing, and Ventriloquism, and will appear in a number of amusing characters. Admission, 25 cents. Children under 12 years of age, 15 cents. Doors open at half past six; performance will begin at half past seven. We hope our readers will turn out and give Mr. Sharp, a good audience. We have seen him perform in private, and we must say that his double-voice singing, alone, is worth the price of admission.

THE OCEAN.—There is a beauty away out on the broad ocean, away from sight of land, when the lively breeze curls the top of every little wave into foam, and produces on its crest a little "white cap" or crown. But if you go to Berkstresser's fashionable clothing bazaar, you will find things of beauty and utility that are durable, and can be otained for little money.

TOO LATE.—The proceedings of the Bedford County Teachers' Institute, came too late for publication this week. They will appear in our next.

BUSINESS IN BEDFORD.—We adapt the following, from the Valley Spirit, to our own bailiwick: The election being over and our farmers having got through with the busy work of early autumn, a revival of business, which has been rather dull for some months, may with confidence be expected. Our merchants and dealers in all sorts of goods and wares are receiving their fall and winter supplies, and preparing to meet the wants of their customers. They have been able to buy on reasonable terms in the cities, and they are able to sell on like terms to the public.

If there is a single merchant or dealer of any sort in our midst who is striving after large profits, we advise him to change his course, and come down to "quick sales and small profits" at once. It pays better to sell one thousand dollars' worth of goods per week at a profit of ten per cent., than the same amount per month at a profit of twenty per cent. Let our business men of all classes determine that they will sell at the lowest rate of profit within the bounds of reason and fairness; let them make this determination widely known; let them sacredly keep every promise they make to the people; let their goods and their prices speak for them to all who may come to examine and inquire, and we are mistaken if Bedford does not soon transact a heavier business than she ever did.

We invite our friends, both in town and country, to make a habit of looking over the advertising columns of the BEDFORD GAZETTE. The dealers who advertise with us are anxious to do business.

If they were not, they would not advertise. The very fact that they advertise in our paper proves that they wish to sell to our readers. The man who wants to sell, and says so, may generally be relied on to sell at a fair rate, whilst the one who straightens himself up and pretends not to care whether he sells or not, will generally be found to hold his goods or wares as high as he carries his head.

To those business men who are not now advertising with us we would say, come in and ascertain our terms. We are not suffering for the want of patronage, but we are anxious to contribute to a revival of trade in this beautiful town of ours, and having advised our merchants and dealers to sell at the lowest fair rate of profit, we stand prepared to deal with them on the same liberal terms that we ask them to deal with the public.

PREDICTIONS ABOUT THE WINTER.—We see it generally stated that European meteorologists are predicting an early and hard winter this year, for the reason that the birds of passage have begun their migration southwards at least a month earlier than usual. Storks, wild ducks and other birds, are reported to be passing southward over France and Belgium in large numbers. Similar signs of a severe winter have, from time to time been noted in our country, and we are inclined to attach more importance to them than weather prophecies usually deserve. Meteorologists say a wet summer signifies a dry winter, and dry winters are always proverbially cold. Housekeepers should make a note of this inference, which we think will prove correct.

DEAD.—It is our painful duty to anounce the death of Mr. John Amos, of Bedford tp., an old and highly respected citizen of this county. He died at his residence, on Monday morning last, after a lingering illness.

AUCTIONEERING.—Our friend, Capt. Wm. Gracy, of Ray's Hill, has taken out an Auctioneer's license, and now tenders his services to the people of his vicinity. The Captain is a good fellow, a brave soldier, and deserves success.

THE REGULATOR.—Don't forget to call at the Regulator's, and see Irvine and Statler's new stock of Boots, Shoes, Notions, Queensware, Groceries, &c. Their goods are of the best quality and they sell at the lowest prices.

NEW HARDWARE STORE.—We call attention to the advertisement of T. M. Lynch, in this issue. Mr. Lynch is the successor of Blymyer and son, in the hardware business, and has replenished the stock, with large and select additions.

NEW GOODS.—See advertisement of A. B. Cramer & Co., in this paper.—This firm are noted for the excellent quality of their goods and the fair prices for which they sell.

CLOTHING, &c.—Winter is coming, but Isaac Lippel's new stock of clothing and dry goods have come already. See inducements in advertising columns.

SOLD.—Messrs. T. H. & N. J. Lyons, of this place, have sold their Tan Yard, in Bedford tp., to some parties in the East, for $6,500.

—Utah has church property worth nine hundred thousand dollars.
